NEW MAIL TRAIN TO THE NORTH ment from Omaha to Black

Hills Country. The government has inaugurated a new porthwest to run on the new train on the Burlington road put on last Sunday. This daily fast mail requires sixty-foot cars to Edgmont, Billings and the Black Hills. It takes the Black Hills mail so that it ceaches there at 4 p. m. instead of late at night as formerly, which made the delivery the next day. This applies to eastern mail as well as Omaha mail and the people of the northwest are correspondingly elated. This service gives two complete lines of mail instead on one as formerly.
