FUNERAL OF KING CHRISTIAN

Body of Dead Monarch Laid in Its Last Resting Place at Roskilde.

COPENHAGEN, Feb. 18.—In the magnificent church here this afternoon the body of King Christian X. was laid in its last resting place at Roskilde.

The coffin, which was carried by the Danish throne, whose royal robes were of black and red, was supported by black officers in uniform. The only decoration was a golden branch, a tribute from the king of Denmark.

Leaning against the wall were floral tributes from foreign monarchs and from the Danish royal family. The queen, Alexandra, the dowager empress of Russia, the queen of Denmark, the duchess of Cumberland and the other royal women emerged from the apse just before 2 o'clock and seated themselves in the front row of chairs to the left of the coffin.

The organ played Beethoven's majestic funeral march the royal procession swept up the center aisle. King Frederick was attended as a Danish general. Emperor William, in the uniform of a Danish admiral, walked at his left and the king of Greece at his right, both kneeling as they passed.

JOHN A. MCCALL PASSES AWAY

Final Rest Comes to Former President of New York Life Insurance Company.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—John A. McCall, until recently president of the New York Life Insurance company, died at 5:32 this afternoon at the Laurel house, in Lakewood, N. J., where he had been taken three weeks ago, in the hope that the change might benefit his health, which had suffered a breakdown two months ago.

The cause of the death was not given out by the family until some time after the end. Then Mr. McCall's son, John C. McCall, briefly announced: "The end has come. My father has passed away."

Mr. McCall had been unconscious since about 10 o'clock this morning, except for one brief awakening this afternoon, when his eyes opened and looked into the face of his wife, who was bending over him. He smiled and as he did so his eyes closed again and he remained in the coma until the end.

One of the last persons Mr. McCall talked to was his old friend and pastor, Rev. Father Matthew Taylor of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, in West Seventy-first street, this city. He went to Lakewood yesterday to see Mr. McCall at the latter's request. Bishop James A. McPaul of the diocese of Trenton arrived in Lakewood this morning to see Mr. McCall.

Mr. McCall, who had long been his friend, this morning at 7 o'clock the bishop said mass in the church of Our Lady of the Lake at Lakewood, offering prayers for the recovery of the stricken man. The attending physicians notified the family at 1 o'clock that the case under medical care.

She had become worse only by the long vigil at the bedside of her husband and when he died she practically collapsed, although it is thought her condition will not develop seriously.

She was brought to New York tomorrow morning and will be sent to the McCall residence on West Seventy-second street. The funeral will be held Wednesday at the church of the Blessed Sacrament.

John A. McCall was born in Albany, N. Y., March 2, 1838. He entered the insurance business early in life and in 1885 was appointed state insurance commissioner by Grover Cleveland, who was then governor. He relinquished that position to become controller of the Equitable Life Assurance society, which position he held until he became president of the New York Life in 1892.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK

House Will Begin Consideration of Appropriation Bill Tuesday.

MOVE TO ENCOURAGE MARKSMANSHIP Measure Contains Provision for Increase of Pay for Good Shooters.

PROPOSAL FOR JOINT MANEUVERS Appropriation of $700,000 for This Purpose Will Provoke Discussion.

STATEHOOD BILL IN THE SENATE Mr. Dick Will Continue His Speech in Favor of the Bill Tuesday—Pure Food Bill Also Comes Up.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The House of representatives will dispose of one of the regular annual supply measures—the army appropriation bill—this week. Monday will be the first "suspension" day of the session.

Suspension day is a procedure where a member may, if he has made arrangements with the speaker in advance, be recognized and over a motion to suspend the rules and pass a bill, if objection is raised a two-third vote will obviate the objection and pass the bill, after a debate of forty minutes, which is automatically ordered by the objection. Under this order any item on the calendar is eligible for consideration.

Chairman Hull of the military affairs committee expects to call up the army appropriation bill Tuesday. He estimates that it will be Thursday or even Friday before the measure is finally disposed of. The general advance in the bill will occupy Tuesday and at least a part of Wednesday. Procedure under the five-minute rule will not be curtailed and a day or more will be consumed in scrutinizing the details of the bill under this order.

The provision of the bill abolishing the grade of lieutenant general of the army will be the text of a number of speeches. The provision is "new legislation" and consequently subject to a point of order. The making of a point of order is within the province of any member and the provision may go out of the bill in this manner.

To encourage marksmanship in the army the provision will amount to $200 a quarter. The benefit to the army by encouragement of rifle expertness is regarded as more than compensatory, and while the provision is like that abolishing the grade of lieutenant general, subject to a point of order, the military committee believes that the provision will result in a saving of $200 a quarter.

A provision for joint army and militia maneuvers is another topic of discussion. There is an aggregate of $500,000 carried in the measure for this purpose. The plan is to have the maneuvers held in many sections of the country. The general advance in the bill will occupy Tuesday and at least a part of Wednesday. Procedure under the five-minute rule will not be curtailed and a day or more will be consumed in scrutinizing the details of the bill under this order.

VIOLENT DEATHS IN NEW YORK

Nine Persons Killed and Many Minor Accidents Mar Sunday Quiet in Gotham.

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Nine violent deaths, with a long chapter of minor accidents and shooting affairs, some of which may result fatally, constituted the usual Sunday report submitted to headquarters today by the police of New York and Brooklyn. A street murder in the Italian quarter heads the list. There were three cases of suicide, all in Manhattan; one man was
