The changes recommended by the committee in the substitute bill which will come up the first of next week have been made with a view to simplifying it. These are believed to be of far greater importance than the notices given to them. The original bill provided that there must be a declaration of party preference and the machinery for changing votes was cumbersome. It was the weak point in the bill as is now recognized by the friends of

While on its face the bill is innocent enough, it is in fact an attempt to curb the power and growth of the big centralizing creamery plants. It is the claim that these plants in order to drive out competition of the local creameries purchase milk and cream several days old of patrons and no matter what its condition pay full market price or above. The local creamery is unable to handle such stuff and make good butter of it and cannot afford to buy it and throw it away and so is unable to meet the competition. It is charged that the centralizing plants take the cream his satisfaction that the bride-to-be was anxious for it for the reason that being after it is fermented and unfit for use and In the minority they fear that often times manufacture it into butter by various processes. ROCKFORD, Ia., Feb. 18 .- (Special.)

The board of directors are:

President-A. C. Johnson of Marshall-

Through the kindness and generosity of P. J. Mallery in turning over his poelroom last Friday evening to the ministers of the city, a large crowd of young men was given a chance to hear a little gaspel preached who would not attend the revivals now in progress. Promptly at 7 o'clock Rev. Mr. Smith of the Methodist Episcopal church, accompanied by the gentlemen of his choir, filed into the already crowded hall. The meeting opened with the singing of familiar hymns. Rev. Smith's text was, "All Ye, Like Sheep, Have Gone Astray." He talked about thirty minutes without "roasting" any one. It was a masterly effort and is the first of
