

DENTISTRY

1910—Omaha—300,000.

If your teeth are not sensitive and you experience no pain while they are being filled, almost any reliable dentist in the city, South Omaha, or The Bluffs, can attend to your needs very readily, for they all do excellent work.

But, on the other hand, if your teeth are sensitive and the instruments used in filling cause a sharp pain, I am about your only choice, for I have a complete system of painless dentistry. Not only do I fill and crown teeth without pain, but I remove pulps ("nerves") alive in a few minutes without hurting you in the least.

I substantiate what I say in my advertisements.

ANTI-HENNING'S MAN CALLED

Democrat in Republican Club Says Treasurer Never Levied on Lawyers for Taxes.

KIERSTEAD NAMES SIMERAL AND CATHERS

Speech Making Ends Soon Afterward and Henning's Knocker is Invited to Attend No More Meetings.

Seventy-five members of the Fifth Ward Equal Rights club were treated Monday night to some edifying arguments on why and why not City Treasurer Hennings should be elected mayor of Omaha.

The chief debaters were W. L. Kierstead and John Coffey, who, upon a preliminary vote, was found to be a democrat, so registered last fall.

Coffey opened up the fireworks by a vigorous denunciation of Hennings and a severe rebuke of the club.

"Why, this man Hennings is not fit to be mayor. He is not fit to be city treasurer. What kind of a treasurer has he made? He has never talked so much as a vigilant enforcer of law because he levied on property to compel payment of taxes.

But he never levied on any property except that of a poor man. No one ever heard of him levying on a lawyer's property to compel the payment of taxes."

That was when things got good. It was at that juncture that Kierstead shied his case and then I decided to run. I know I am gaining strength all the time. We will have a good organization, and whether we win or lose we will present a united front to the enemy."

Mr. Dahman met with an enthusiastic reception after his declaration and was followed by other speakers for democracy, including John Power, Tom Flynn, Dr. S. R. Patten, W. T. Canaday, Louis Piatti, John Murphy, E. P. Berryman, W. S. Shoemaker, Ed Rothery and others.

At a well attended meeting of the Fourth Ward Equal Rights club last evening a new candidate for councilman from the Fourth ward was brought out by the endorsement of Charles M. Bachman by an action, called to order by Mr. Bachman.

When Mr. Kierstead added a word or two, another member of the club arose to ask Mr. Coffey if he was not a democrat, anyway.

"Yes, I am," said Coffey. "Then what did you thrust yourself upon this club for?"

The secretary of the club was instructed to send Mr. Coffey a notice of dismissal at once.

The club took no final action on the selection of a councilman candidate, but decided to do so at the meeting next Monday night. It was agreed to, in which President Dave Christie will participate, to leave the choice to a secret ballot of the members of the club, there being three candidates, Redman, Stone and Wilkerson.

The man receiving the highest number of votes after the first ballot, however, and a partner of Tom Dennison, has come to Omaha to lend a hand in the campaign. "Chuck," as he is familiarly known, is the man in whose name the old Diamond pool room was run when it was reopened a few years ago and is credited with being the man who squared up Tom Dennison with Broatch.

"Chuck" was in conference Monday with the city clerk for the meeting of the police board, but waited downstairs until the meeting adjourned. He then repaired to the Budweiser saloon, where another conference of the Broatch political captains was held.

It developed the alleged partial slate vouched for by a democrat leader Monday is imperfect in ways more than one. Dr. Elmer R. Porritt, who was accredited with the endorsement for the councilman nomination from the Seventh ward declares he is neither a democrat nor a resident of that ward and he hopes no further unauthorized liberties will be taken with his name.

City Clerk W. H. Elbourn filed his application Tuesday for a place on the republican primary ballot for re-election. Scoring the regular printed forms which he had prepared and desiring to be unique and extraordinary, Mr. Elbourn had his certificate written out entirely in red ink and signed it with writing fluid of the same hue. Other filers were: Ernest S. Holmes, councilman, Eighth ward, republican; Thomas H. Dalley, councilman, Fifth ward, democrat; Fred Rokenhouse, councilman, First precinct of the Fifth ward, republican; Ed Gardipee, councilman, Fourth precinct of Tenth ward, republican; James Griffen, councilman, Fourth precinct of Fourth ward, democrat; E. E. Kelton, councilman, Third precinct of Sixth ward, democrat; David Custer, councilman, Fourth precinct of Third ward, democrat; William Galien, councilman, Third precinct of Fifth ward, democrat.

The Broatch bunch has opened headquarters in two large rooms on the second floor of the Union block on Fifteenth street. The quarters are within a few yards of Colonel Jim Dahman's and are much more elaborate than those of the democratic candidate in many ways. On the street the information was cheerfully bandied about that the barrel had arrived and the time was deemed opportune for establishing a habit for the snark and its contents. As yet, however, the Broatch headquarters do not possess much semblance of an active business, each account. A desk, couch and several chairs complete the equipment so far moved in. Bob Houghton and one other individual were the only spectators present. It has not been given out who is to be in charge or at what hours expense money may be obtained.

Will N. Chambers, a young attorney, has filed for the republican councilman nomination from the Fourth ward.

Democratic workers of the city to the number of ninety met at the Paxton hotel last night to discuss informally the ways and means of taking action to lick the other fellows," as George Rogers put it when he called the meeting to order. Invitations had been sent out to leaders in all precincts of all wards and about ninety responded. When the call for the meeting was made Ed Smith was still in the field and the meeting was called to unite

CROWE JUROR BACK IN BOX

Louis Rasmussen, Despite Order to Leave City, on Another Jury.

PASSED BY THE DEFENSE AND STATE

Lawyers for Enright, Charged with Holding, Protest in Vain Against Trying Case While Public is Aroused.

Louis Rasmussen, one of the twelve men who set Pat Crowe free and one of the four Crowe jurors who received letters ordering them to leave the city within a certain time or take the consequences, is on another jury. He was passed by both state and defense yesterday afternoon at Enright Sutton's court in the case of Michael Enright, charged with holding up a saloonkeeper in South Omaha.

Charles M. Tracy, another Crowe juror, was passed by the defense, but expelled by the state.

On the ground the public mind is inflamed on account of the verdict in the Crowe case, the attorneys for Michael Enright, the defendant in a criminal case before the district court, sought to secure a continuance of the hearing in his case Tuesday morning.

Newspaper clippings giving expressions of opinion, both editorially and in quotations from others, were read in court for the purpose of showing a prejudice against all persons charged with crime exists in Omaha and vicinity. After listening to arguments Judge Sisson refused to grant the continuance. In doing so he said it was possible the jurors in the Crowe case might want to "square" themselves in the public mind by bringing in a verdict of guilty, but he did not think this influence would extend to other members of the panel.

He got the general public condemned because the Crowe verdict met with condemnation was no reason, he held, why the courts should disband and go out of business. He said he was willing to excuse Crowe jurors and had made a proposition to effect that the defendant's trials were held separately over the protests of the defense. It is charged Berry and Enright went into Burks' saloon and locked him in the ice box at the point of a gun while they rifled the money drawer.

In spite of the fever expressed by the attorneys for the defense they did not object to the two Crowe jurors who were called to the jury box. The two jurors were Louis Rasmussen and Charles M. Tracy. The defense passed both of them for cause, but the state used its last peremptory challenge to strike Tracy's name from the list. The defense waived its last two challenges. Rasmussen was left on the jury. He is one of the members who received the threatening letters which formed one of the grounds for the motion for a continuance asked for by the defense.

The jury was secured about 4 o'clock and after a short recess Adam Burks, the proprietor of the saloon, was placed on the stand as the first witness. He is a Pole and his evidence had to be given through an interpreter.

Enright is charged with holding up a saloon belonging to Adam Burks in South Omaha on November 24 and securing $90 in cash. John Berry is a co-defendant with him, but on the motion of the state the trials will be held separately over the protests of the defense. CROWE VERDICT UNDER BANE Action of Jury in Liberating Convicted Criminal Condemned by Commercial Club.

The Omaha Commercial club Tuesday adopted resolutions denouncing the verdict in the Pat Crowe case in these terms:

The executive committee of the Commercial Club of Omaha desires and does by the following resolution place itself upon record as protesting against the mockery of justice represented in the recent trial of one Pat Crowe in this city for robbery. We deprecate any such hasty upon justice, believing that it has a harmful influence upon the community and tends to place our city in a false position before the country. The evidence against this man was perfectly clear and should have resulted in his conviction of the crime charged and admitted. Whether the jury that acquitted him was ignorant or guilty of a willful disregard of their oath, or whether their prejudices were so strong as to prevent their doing justice, we do not know. We deprecate their action as one of our most respected citizens and an outlaw, we, of course, are not in a position to say, but we denounce their action as prejudicial alike to good government, to the good name of the city, of which they should be respectable citizens, and as having ing a tendency to encourage further crime. Therefore, be it Resolved, That the action of said jury does not express the sentiment of the good citizens of Omaha, and be it further Resolved, That the Commercial club, representing as it does the commercial interests of this city, desires to say, the world at large that the verdict of the jury can only be denounced as a most willful and deliberate miscarriage of justice and should be condemned by every law-abiding citizen.

O'LEARY EXCUSED FROM PANEL Third Member of Crowe Jury Let Out of Further Service in District Court.

John F. O'Leary is the third member of the Pat Crowe jury to be excused from service for the remainder of the term. The excuse was granted Tuesday by Judge Sutton at the request of O'Leary. M. Rosenbaum and W. H. Sloane are the other two.

SCHOOLS GAIN ONE THOUSAND Increase Middle of February Over the Same Date of a Year Ago.

As compared with a year ago the enrollment of pupils in the public schools shows a gain of nearly 1,000. On February 16, a year ago, there were 14,339 on the lists, and on February 16, this year, there were 15,336, or 997 more. Practically all of the gain is in the grade schools, the high school showing an increase of but 19. The figures being 1,599, against 1,580.

Superintendent Davidson accounts for the better showing by reason of the growing population of the city, the milder weather conditions and a very small amount of contagious diseases affecting school children.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS. Fred Gentch, of Superintendent Park's office is the happy father of a ten pound boy.

G. L. Davis, 428 North Twenty-fourth street, was arrested last night after a fight with Officer Kinn, and locked up at the police station, charged with assault with intent to do great bodily injury. It is asserted that Davis attacked his wife, after her servants being because displeased at some action on her part.

Thaddeus D. Perine, a cattle buyer for Allen, Ind., at Omaha, has begun suit in district court against the Union Stock Yards company for $10,000 injuries sustained in a fall from his horse. At the time the accident happened, April 22, 1904, he was riding from the Stock exchange building to the cattle pens. The foot of his horse went through a hole in the plank with which the aisle was paved, and the animal fell on him, breaking both bones in his right leg just above the ankle and other bones in the leg. The fall was inside the stock yards and he says it was the duty of the stock yards company to keep it in good condition.

Mr. A. B. McConnell returned Saturday from a month's trip to old Mexico.

SEASONABLE FASHIONS.

NO. 6420—A FLA... ODD-WAIST. Thanks to Mistress Fashion, the appreciation of fine materials and needlework ranks above that of the richest silks and velvets, and any woman who is clever with her needle may own as pretty a waist as may be seen. A blouse like the one shown might be made of white, pale gray or lavender lousine, of batiste, with lace motifs finishing the shallow yoke in points. The collar is in one with the round yoke, and may consist of finely tucked muslin or net. The narrow cuff of the sleeve is edged with rows of gathered lace, which forms a becoming setting for the arm. The back and front of the waist are gathered easily all around, while an exquisite design is daintily embroidered upon the front and sleeve. Plain Brussels net is in growing favor for waists of this kind and might be used to advantage here. In the medium size the pattern calls for 2 yards of 36-inch material. No. 6420—SIZES, 32 to 42 inches, bust measure.

For the accommodation of readers of The Bee these patterns which usually retail at from 25c to 50c each, will be furnished at the nominal price of 10c each, if supplied now kept at our office, or if you wish any pattern can get it either by calling or enclosing 10c cents, addressed "Pat-
