DECIDE TO MEET IN OMAHA NEXT YEAR

Lawyers Are Called to Meet in Lincoln March 7 to Discuss Bill for Creating New Federal Judicial District in Nebraska.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special.)—The State Press association this morning refused to adopt a resolution endorsing the Hepburn rate bill and the stand of the Nebraska delegation in congress on that measure. The resolution was introduced by H. M. Wells of Crete and at once A. L. Gale of the Lincoln Star rose to a point of order that the resolution had not been reported to the resolutions committee and therefore the motion was out of order. President Donovan promptly ruled with Mr. Gale and no discussion followed.

Mr. Wells' resolution was as follows:

Whereas, President Roosevelt, in his inaugural address, ably advocated the passage of a bill enlarging the scope and powers of the Interstate Commerce commission, and,

Whereas, In accordance with his recommendation the bill known as the Hepburn rate bill has been framed, introduced and passed the lower house of congress, is now pending in the United States senate, and is a measure which, if enacted into law, will be of great and lasting benefit to the agricutural, stock-raising and shipping interests of this country, as well as to the general public. It requires publicity; it practically makes impossible the pernicious rebate system, abolishes favoritism and will give to the carrier and the carried a square deal. The people have no right to ask more than that; they should not be content to accept less. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Nebraska State Press association that we hereby tender our thanks to every member of congress from Nebraska for his loyal and unswerving support of that measure, and we respectfully ask our senators in congress to support that bill and to oppose any amendments which will tend to incorporate therein any provisions providing for court review, which will have a tendency to weaken its usefulness or cause long, vexatious and needless delay in the settlement of cases arising between corporations and their patrons, and we call upon our senators to give to the Hepburn bill, or to some other bill that will be equally efficacious in producing the desired result, their hearty and unanimous support.

Resolved, That the secretary be instructed to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of the congressmen and the United States senators from Nebraska.

Discuss Railroad Advertising.

At the morning session addresses were delivered by Richard L. Metcalfe and J. C. Seacrest. These two talked about the railroad advertising question, the former taking the "business office view" and the latter the "editorial room view." Mr. Metcalfe departed from his subject long enough to take a few pokes at broken down politicians who allow the newspapers to do the things which are for the benefit of the people and then claim the credit for it and run for office on what the newspaper has done, while the editor couldn't get any office, no matter what it is.

At the afternoon session Lafe Young of Des Moines lectured on "Newspapers of the Orient." In his address Mr. Young departed from his subject and gave a history of his recent trip with the Taft party, which was full of humorous incidents as well as good information.

After the session the members of the association visited the state farm.

The following officers were elected: Frank Reed of the Shelton Clipper, president; L. W. Varner of the Sterling Sun, vice president; W. M. Maupin of Lincoln, secretary and treasurer; A. B. Wood of the Gering Courier, corresponding secretary.

The editors adopted resolutions thanking those who had contributed to the success of the meeting, recommending amendments to the postal laws so that strictly advertising journals could not be sent through the mail as second-class matter and recommended amendments to the libel law making it a misdemeanor rather than a felony for the publication of a libel, in accordance with the recommendation of Edward Rosewater, and also recommended an amendment to the law providing that newspapers could criticise without fear of being fined for contempt any decisions rendered by the court.

Tonight occurred the illustrated lecture by John T. McCutcheon, the cartoonist.

The association will meet in Omaha next year.

Meeting of Lawyers Called.

President Calkins of the Statee Bar association has invited all lawyers of the state to meet in Lincoln March 7 to discuss the Burkett bill creating a new federal district for the South Platte country, and at the same time should the bill be passed to recommend a lawyer for judge of the new district.

At the last session of the supreme court the executive committee of the bar association, acting upon a petition which had been signed by numerous lawyers, decided to request the president to call the meeting.

By Lincoln politicians the meeting is believed to be for the purpose of heading off Tom Munger, who has the endorsement of Senator Burkett and for whom the office is to be created.

Mr. Munger said he had heard of the meeting, but he did not know yet whether he would attend.

"I believe it is not a concerted action to oppose anyone," he said, "but merely a mass meeting to get the sentiment of the lawyers of the state. Every lawyer will get a chance to express himself for or against the bill, and each will have an opportunity to say who he prefers for judge."

Grand Island Bonds Legal.

The $60,000 bond issue voted by the city of Grand Island for the erection of a high school has been declared legal by Attorney General Brown, who has recommended to the auditor that he register the bonds. By those who opposed the issue it was asserted the board had authorized the election without waiting for a petition signed by one-third of the voters. The other side asserted the law specified the election could be called by a vote of two-thirds of the board. One section of the statutes so provides and the legal department held the law was good.

State Vital Statistics.

Vital statistics compiled by Dr. Sward of the board of secretaries of the State Board of Health under the provisions of the law enacted by the late legislature show during the last year for the state 5,470 deaths from sixty-one causes. The summary of deaths by the month is as follows: January, 475; February, 608; March, 397; April, 378; May, 373; June, 332; July, 250; August, 233; September, 365; October, 724; November, 641; December, 534.

Of the sixty-one causes of death the largest number succumbed to infant disabilities, there being 989 deaths of children under 5 years of age. The next highest number of deaths from any one disease is charged up to heart failure, there being 532 deaths from this cause. Typhoid fever carried off 108 persons, tuberculosis took 362, cancer caused the death of 245 persons. Bronchitis was responsible for sixty-three deaths. Bright's disease carried off 165, while appendicitis was responsible for seventy-five deaths and 200 persons died of apoplexy. Paresis was responsible for 147 deaths. Only three persons died of sunstroke, while tetanus was responsible for ten deaths; twelve persons died of accidental poisoning; brain fever carried off six, while only one person in the state died of smallpox and only one person died of hydrophobia. Lightning killed four persons, while one person was frozen to death and thirty-five persons were drowned. Of the persons whose death were due to animals there were thirty-seven, of which number thirty-three were males. Firearms was responsible for forty-three deaths.

There were seventy-six persons, so the statistics show, who preferred death to live and therefore killed themselves. Forty-three persons were accidentally burned to death.

Lagrippe was the cause of the death of sixty-four persons, while erysipelas killed only eight persons. Whooping cough was responsible for eighteen deaths. Alcoholism killed twenty-seven persons. Ulcer of the stomach was responsible for the death of twenty persons. Peritonitis killed ninety-two persons, 297 people died of old age and fifty-eight persons died as the result of falls. Only three persons died of locomoter ataxia. Childbirth resulted in the death of thirty-nine persons.

Bursting Fly Wheel Takes Leg.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special.)—While a number of the attaches of the Herman Tagge farm, nine miles west of this city, were sawing wood with a power saw the flywheel suddenly bursted and Charles Tagge, nephew of Herman Tagge, who had come over from his neighboring home to assist, was struck in the leg with a flying piece, breaking both bones and tearing through the muscles in such a manner that the leg had to be amputated above the knee. One of the pieces flew through the side of a barn and another was imbedded over a foot in the soil. A smaller piece also struck the unfortunate young man in the head and cut a deep gash, but fortunately did not fracture the skull. The young man has been brought to the St. Francis hospital in this city, and, being in good physical condition, there is no doubt as to his recovery.

Nebraskan Blows Out Gas.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—While on his way from Tripoli, Ia., where he attended his father's funeral, to Brunswick, Neb., where he is a harnessmaker, Albert J. Brown blew out the gas at the Hotel Vendome and has been in an unconscious and critical condition all day at a hospital.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but 25 cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

BROWN ENDORSED AT HOME

Mass Meeting at Kearney Formally Put Him in Senatorial Race.

NEIGHBORS TESTIFY TO HIS WORTH

Resolutions of a Highly Eulogistic Character Adopted and Number of Complimentary Speeches Are Made.

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special.)—The republicans of Buffalo county met here today in mass convention and adopted resolutions endorsing Hon. Norris Brown for the United States senate.

The meeting was held in the city hall, which was literally packed. Hon. N. P. McDonald presided. Delegations were present from Gibbon, Shelton and all parts of Buffalo county. The meeting was highly enthusiastic throughout. Addresses were made by the following persons: N. P. McDonald, Prof. C. A. Murch, C. H. Gregg, E. C. Calkins, J. F. Crocker, Judge F. G. Hamer, Prof. Hayward H. C. Andrews, Captain S. H. Black, Joseph Owen, J. E. Harris, S. C. Bassett, Oscar Knox, James H. Davis, Judge H. M. Sinclair, M. A. Brown. The committee on resolutions consisted of N. P. McDonald of Kearney, F. D. Reed of Shelton and Samuel C. Bassett of Gibbon. The following resolutions were adopted:

The republicans of Buffalo county, the friends and neighbors of Hon. Norris Brown, in mass convention assembled at Kearney, February 28, 1906, observe with pride and gratification the spontaneous expressions of public sentiment which have been made throughout the state in his favor for the office of United States senator. We take pleasure in testifying to his sterling integrity and genuine worth as a citizen and his ability and faithfulness as a public officer; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby unqualifiedly endorse the official acts of Attorney General Norris Brown and pledge him our unanimous and loyal support in his candidacy for the United States senate; that we commend him as a man faithful and conscientious in the discharge of public duties, loyal to the principles of the party he represents, and worthy of the confidence and support of the people of the state.

Qualifications for Place.

E. C. Calkins, regent of the University of Nebraska, spoke as follows:

To us who are his neighbors there will be in this election a double satisfaction—satisfaction in the fact that he is our friend and neighbor and a greater and more abundant satisfaction in the knowledge that he is especially equipped for an efficient discharge of the responsible duties of that honored office.

Ever since he met and held with even hand the cleverest and most effective stump speaker that ever canvassed Nebraska for votes there has been no doubt of his forensic ability and power to meet in debate and on equal terms the ablest public speakers. In the art of seeing what his opponent saw, of feeling what they felt, and giving voice to their emotion William L. Greene was unsurpassed. He spun the thread of fallacy around their wavering thought and touched with master hand the chords of hope and fear, of love and hate, of sympathy and passion, and swept them off their intellectual feet with a torrent of eloquence and emotion. When Norris Brown went out to meet this Goliath of debate there were some who feared for his success, but the Sixth district well knows and will long remember with what patient skill he unwound the web of sophistry and with what quick resource and ready art he construed with simple truth and plain logic the barrier that withstood the floods of eloquence and passion.

But it is not alone as a debater and a lawyer that Norris Brown has distinguished himself. Probably no man could meet success in either capacity without a comprehensive knowledge of political questions and the affairs of state, and he has shown in his public addresses an extended grasp of political history and an insight into public questions which rounds out and completes his qualifications for the office for which we support him.

Prof. C. A. Murch of the State Normal school addressed the meeting as follows:

I am for Norris Brown because as private citizen or public official, he has always done his best, and, I may add, it has always been a mighty good best. I am for Norris Brown because he belongs in that group of American citizens with red blood in their veins and brains under their hats, who get things done and done right—LaFollette, Jerome, Folk, and that American citizen and man, Teddy Roosevelt.

Knows Needs of the State.

Hon. Samuel E. Bassett, former state bond commissioner, said:

It is not alone enough that the man chosen to represent the people is willing to serve the people, is anxious to serve the people. In order to properly serve the people he must know the people, their wishes, their desires, their ways of living and mode of thought, their resources, the difficulties that hedge them about, in order to be helpful in lessening those difficulties or entirely removing them.

It goes without saying that he should be a man of honesty and integrity, having the full confidence of the people; but he should also be a growing man, a progressive man, for Nebraska is a growing and progressive state, a state with untold resources yet undeveloped, and only such a man can keep step with, can keep abreast of the rapid march of events which affect our interests both as a state and a nation. Such a man is Norris Brown, in whose interests we have this day assembled.

Less than six years ago he was appointed deputy attorney general, and so well and faithfully did he perform the duties incumbent upon him that he was the unanimous choice of his party as candidate for attorney general, to which office he was elected at the last general election. As attorney general he became not only the legal adviser of the people of the state, but the defender of their rights as well. Questions arose involving not only large financial interests, but principles of vital importance to all the people of the state, questions which involved the rights of the people as against the organized greed and graft of a few individuals. In all forms of government, whether it be local, state or national, there is no more important principle involved than the right to levy and collect taxes for the support of the government, for the revenues thus collected are the life-blood of the government. The attorney general was called upon to defend the revenue laws of the state, to determine that in the valuation and assessment of property and the collection of taxes the corporations had the same rights, the same privileges, no more, no less, as individuals. In defense of the rights of the people he has shown so much skill and ability in the presentation of the issues involved, so much of originality and resourcefulness of methods employed, so much of success in results accomplished, that today the name of Norris Brown is a household word on every farm in the state whereon is raised a bushel of grain which must pay tribute on its way to market. His able and successful defense of the revenue laws and the principles involved meets the hearty approval of every loyal taxpayer.

Home Town Believes in Him.

Hon. N. P. McDonald, county attorney, said:

It is gratifying indeed to the friends and neighbors of Mr. Brown to note the spontaneous expressions of the people throughout the state in favor of his election as senator. We believe that he merits their approval. His ability, integrity and experience qualify him for the duties and responsibilities of the place. He has a wide acquaintance throughout the state. His genial personality has made him friends everywhere, among all classes. The able and satisfactory manner in which he has conducted the office of attorney general has given him the confidence of the people. He knows the whole state and is familiar with its diversified interests. He is acquainted with the wants of the people in every section of it and appreciates the measures that will bring them the greatest comfort and prosperity. He is broad-minded enough to fairly consider all the interests of the state, honest enough to seek the greatest good for all, fearless enough to restrain the strong hand that would take more than is "fair and square" and just enough to protect the corporation the same as the individual, the great interest the same as the small interest.

Telephone Company Enjoined.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Today Joseph R. Dodds secured a writ of injunction against the New Home Telephone company and its promoters to restrain them from proceeding with the work of installing a plant at Wymore. It is alleged in the petition that the ordinance under which the franchise was secured was illegally railroaded at the council meeting on the night of January 30, without having been read the required number of times and without having a majority of all votes present. The temporary writ was issued by County Judge Stafford and was served by Sheriff Trude on the defendants, the Ericson Telephone company, the Home Telephone company, J. Harry Myers and Frank M. Smith. The Home Telephone men say that it is a move on the part of the Nebraska Telephone company to prevent the progress of the Home in Wymore.

Mother Locates Daughter.

BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Mrs. Nevitt of Dorchester, Neb., arrived in town today and with the assistance of the officers succeeded in locating her 16-year-old daughter, who had run away from home several weeks ago. The two left for Dorchester this afternoon.

Beach of the Tefft-Willer Dry Goods corporation was elected a member of the board. L. A. WELSH, Local Forecaster

Saved From Threatened Catarrh of the Lungs By Taking Pe-ru-na!

Mrs. Mary Mag, 423 College Ave., E. Pittsburg, Pa., writes:

"Last spring I had a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. I went to the doctor for some time, but his medicine did me no good.

"Having read in the paper some testimonials of the value of Peruna, I decided to try it, and at the same time wrote to Dr. Hartman for advice. I took five bottles of Peruna and am now entirely cured.

"Before taking Peruna I was so run down that I could do no work and could not stand on my feet. My head ached and I could not sleep—I would wake up and cough. In the morning, on rising, I would cough for at least ten minutes. I was alarmed.

"But, thanks to Peruna, I am now enjoying good health. I would not be without Peruna. I keep it in the house and give it to my little boy when he has a cold."

MRS. MARY MAG.

A NEGLECTED cold is generally the first cause of catarrh.

Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year.

Women Should Beware of Catching Cold.

Often they are not considered serious and so are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

By reason of their delicate structure the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of these organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body.

It would be wise, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible.

Peruna has been found the most reliable of all remedies for coughs, colds and catarrh, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.

It searches out every crevice, every duct of the body. It quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, thus relieving the congested mucous membranes. It exercises a healing and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes, no matter whether they are the more exposed membranes of the head and throat, or whether they line the remotest cells of the lungs.

Pe-ru-na the Remedy for Catarrh of the Lungs.

A word to the wise woman is sufficient. Take Peruna at the first appearance of a cold.

DOCTORS FOR MEN

THE MEN'S TRUE SPECIALISTS

Come to our office and we will make a thourough, seaching and scientific EXAMINATION of your ailments FREE OF CHARGE. An examination that will disclose your true physical condition, without a knowledge of which you are groping in the dark and without a thorough understanding of which no physician or specialist should be allowed to treat you. If you have taken treatment without success we will show you why it failed. We want all ailing men to feel that they can come to our office freely for examination and explanation of their condition without being bound by any obligation to take treatment unless they so desire. Every man, whether taking treatment or contemplating same, should take advantage of this opportunity to learn his true condition, as we will advise him how to best regain his health and strength and preserve the powers of manhood unto ripe old age.

We are helping weak, nervous, broken-down young and middle-aged men back to ruddy health, invariably without interfering with their usual business pursuits. They come to us weakened and debilitated from specific or private diseases and secret weaknesses. Many are discouraged, depressed, nervous, tired, languid, full of regret perhaps for the errors of youth or later excesses and indiscretions. Some are on the brink of nervous exhaustion, caused by worry, overwork, neglect of the human system, dissipation, etc.

We wish that you could see them change after commencing treatment with us. Every day their condition improves. You can see the depression vanish and a new alertness in their face and bearing as the new red blood of health courses through their veins and they are infilterated with new vitality, new hope and new energy. They go away feeling all new—strong physically, mentally and sexually.
