

GOSSIP OF THE POLITICIANS

No Candidate Can File or Withdraw His Name After Saturday.

DEMOCRATS WANT CITY ATTORNEY TIMBER

Business Man Tells How Broatch Prostituted His Office as Police Commissioner to Brew-

The opportunity for candidates to get on the municipal primary ballots will end at noon Saturday. The Dodge law requires all filings to be made at least thirty days before the primaries, which this year will be held April 4.

City Clerk Ebborn gives out that candidates who have filed for places on the primary ballot will not be allowed to withdraw after the filings close Saturday.

With the question still open as to whether or not a man needs to be registered last fall to be eligible for the municipal primaries, a new complication has arisen with reference to the Dodge primary law.

It is probable there will be at least one more democratic filing for the city attorney-ship and one for the clerkship. With regard to Harry E. Burnham, who has filed for the first named place, astute democratic politicians and speculators have had the strength to stand even a fighting chance against a republican nominee.

An interesting sidelight on the personal and political characteristics of W. J. Broatch has been revealed by a conversation a city employe had with one of the representatives of a large iron firm, the other day.

Our house formerly did a considerable business with the Omaha brewers in selling them what is known as hop iron—that is, material for the hoops that go around beer kegs.

get any of the brewery business, despite this remarkable condition of affairs.

E. A. Benson has employed one campaign method at least which occasioned quite a bit of amusing embarrassment for a little while in a certain household in an upper ward.

Now, it just so happened that the male head of that household was at home. He was sitting in the room where he could not help but overhear the little chap.

"The idea of his asking me for my photograph," she indignantly exclaimed. "Oh, don't try to get out of it that way just because I happen to be at home," said the husband, who had a sense of humor about him.

Tom Dennison is very sanguine of Broatch's success in the majority race and so expressed himself with emphasis to a reporter for The Bee in the mayor's office at the city hall.

Following are the new political filings up to noon Wednesday: Republicans—Committee: Peter Loch, Sixth ward; Peter M. Back, First ward; Thomas S. Crocker, Ninth ward; Edward Abrahamson, Fifth ward.

Democrats—Committee: S. J. Cusick, Second precinct of Second ward; W. H. Williams, Second precinct of Third ward; William Slaven, First precinct of First ward.

A Young Men's Benson club was organized Tuesday night in the offices of Broatch & Burnett in the Paxton block. It is reported that about fifty were present.

Harry G. Conynman, who ran up to a year ago, was chief clerk in the city treasurer's office, has filed for a position on the republican ballot for the nomination for city comptroller.

SALOON HEARING IS BEGUN

Finally Gets Into Court and is Once More Postponed.

RIGHT OF APPEAL IS QUESTIONED

Breen Denies Thomas' Power and Latter Claims It on Grounds the Board Had Been Repealed.

The hearing before Judge Kennedy on the motion for an order to require the fire and police board to cancel the licenses of certain saloon keepers for alleged violations of the Sunday closing law took up the forenoon session of the court Wednesday, and at noon was continued until Friday morning at 9:30.

The principal question discussed by the attorneys was whether or not Elmer E. Thomas had lost his right to appeal, because sixty days had elapsed between the action of the board and the filing of the transcripts.

City Attorney Breen for the board contended the right of appeal had been forfeited. He said no demand had been made on the board for the transcripts of the proceedings in the five cases involved in this hearing or they would have been furnished.

Barred by the Board. To this Mr. Thomas retorted somewhat hotly that the board would not even let him look at the papers without paying for them.

Your board is not going to give anything out that would injure a saloon-keeper," he said.

Mr. Breen said a mandamus case involving the same question was before Judge Sutton, and he did not think Mr. Thomas ought to have the right to go into other courts to secure the same order.

Mr. Thomas declared the mandamus case before Judge Sutton had not been finally heard because Mr. Breen could not be induced to set a time for the final hearing. He said the present motion was made in order to expedite matters and cause the cancellation of the licenses of saloon-keepers who have recently violated the law pending an appeal.

He contended the board had been remiss in not furnishing him with transcripts and for this reason he had not lost the right of appeal. He offered testimony in support of the chief of police and the mayor which was determined to prevent the enforcement of the Stocumb law and said a few Sundays ago he had seen four men come out of the rear door of Joe Waechter's saloon while a policeman guarded the front door.

MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE Tailor Accidentally Turns on the Gas and Comes Near Being Asphyxiated.

George Gibson, a tailor residing at 1946 Guming street, was rescued from an untimely end at the gas station of the city of Van Camp and Police Surgeon Willis, who found the man nearly asphyxiated. It was reported Gibson engaged a room at the hotel Tuesday evening and accidentally turned on the gas. He declared he had no suicidal intentions. At last accounts Gibson was doing well.

Dangers that Threaten the Child's Life. (From the Chicago Tribune.)

"Health Commissioner Reynolds of Chicago, in his latest bulletin of the department, says that the worst danger to which the children of Chicago are now exposed is the neglected cold."

It would be unwise for the health commissioner of a city to recommend any remedy for a cold, but should he do so, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy would certainly head the list as the most efficacious for colds, croup and whooping cough in children, as a remedy that can always be depended upon to effect a speedy cure and that is pleasant and safe to take.

John Melcher of 189 South Seventh street was fined $5 and costs by the police judge Wednesday morning, when arraigned on the charge of violating the Curfew law. Melcher was charged with keeping five dogs in his house.

UNIFORM LAW ON DIVORCE

Project Given Good Start by State Representatives at Washington.

JOHN L. WEBSTER TELLS OF WORK

Thinks It Will Be Far-Reaching in Influence, but Delegates Did Not Reach Any Decisive Conclusions.

John L. Webster has returned from a trip to Washington, where he went as a delegate to the congress on uniform divorce laws, a body called together by an act of the legislature of Pennsylvania, which appropriated $50,000 to pay the expenses of the congress in session and drafting the code.

Beyond the adoption of generally worded principles, the congress took no decisive action, placing the drafting of a proposed uniform code in the hands of a committee, which will report to a final meeting to be held subsequently.

"Practically all of my time in Washington was taken up by attendance at the congress, and also at a meeting of the committee on uniform insurance laws of the congress on uniform state laws," said Mr. Webster. "I met the president casually and had a few minutes' conversation with him."

Divorce Law Congress. "I regard the divorce law congress as a most important meeting and one that is likely to initiate developments of a far-reaching nature."

"Prohibition of the granting of secret divorces by requiring all proceedings to be in open court and with the appointment of an attorney for the defendant when the latter does not make a defense."

"Against collusive divorces."

"The necessity for agreement upon uniform causes for divorce and limiting the grounds upon which decrees may be granted."

Conflict is Threatened. "The probable attitude of the New York and Massachusetts delegates to the conference precipitate conflict. New York laws recognize but one valid cause for divorce—adultery—and persons divorced on other grounds in other states are liable to criminal punishment for both adultery and bigamy if they return to New York and re-marry."

"The chief general principles enunciated may be summed up as follows: "Against that are termed migratory divorces and the requirement of two years' residence in a state as a requirement to gain a divorce."
