Fifty-seven old scitlers met at the public library Thursday afternoon and completed the organization of the Pioneer Association of Douglas County, for which temporary organization was effected at a meeting held February 1

A constitution was adopted and presented by a committee consisting of J. J. O'Connor, Thomas Swift, Joseph Redman, B. E. B. Kennedy and Mrs. Grace 1. Allan Brad-It mentions the object of the assoin social and traternal unity." It provides of Nebraska for thirty-five years and are shall be cligible to membership. Those members who lived in the state prior to March 1, 1867, the date when Nebraska became a state, are to be known as veteran pioneers. Provision is made for an annual meeting and election in January. Membership tees are 10 cents and annual dues ligion of Beauty 56 cents. No personal, political or sectarian subjects are to be discussed at the

Dunham served as temporary after the adoption of the constitution: President, George H. Lake; vice presidents, Anderson, Thomas Price, Sardius Brewster; secretary, James S. Gibson; assistant secre tary, Miss Margaret O'Brien; treasurer, Harry P. Deuel. An executive committee was appointed to consist of Thomas Swift. B. E. B. Kennedy, Jonathan Edwards, David Whitney and Mary Brown Screnson The publication of an annual roster of member's advent into Nebraska and dates of deaths, was discussed and referred to the executive committee for consideration

Dr. E. B. Child expressed a sentiment which met with general approval. He thought the members of the association ought to pledge themselves to allow nothing but sickness to keep them away from such honor to the dead ought to be considered of as much importance as fellowship with the living. Upon motion the matter was referred to the by-laws committee The next meeting will be held in the pub-He library rooms Thursday, April 5, at 2:30. Regular meetings are the first Thursday

WINCH WILL CASE UP AGAIN

Prolonged Litigation Over Probating Instrument is Resumed in the Distret Court.

The Seth F. Winch will case has been carried into court again by the filing yesterday afternoon in county court of a petition for the probate of the original copy of the will, which has been on deposit in county court since last November. The case has been in court in one form or an other almost constantly since the death of Seth F. Winch, in February, 1899.

The property involved is said to be worth about $20,000. Immediately after the death of Mr. Winch the present petitioner, whose name at that time was Winch, and who had taken care of Mr. Winch for several

WOMAN IN CLUB AND CHARITY

The art department of the Woman's club will give a stereopticon program Saturday cores of the court, and the present move gational church, "Old Masters versus Modern Art' is the subject as announced. A small admission will be charged, the proceeds to be used in carrying on the department's study. This year the women have been studying early Christian art with the stereopticon, which has necessitated funds beyond the allowance made by the club, and the department hopes by this entertainment to afford an educational opportunity and at the same time raise sufficient money to continue its study.

The material for the Real Estate exchange booklet to advertise Omaha is in the hands of the committee. It now remains for the committee to secure subscriptions among the real estate men and other business men of the city to defray the expenses of publication. The first issue is to be 50,000 copies and it will cost $1,000. Comparisons of the present husiness interests of the city with those of former years, showing the steady and healthy growth, will be the strong feature of the booklet. Advantageous comparisons of Omaha with other cities are made. One of these shows the live stock interests of South Omaha are greater after twenty years than were those of the Chicago live stock market when it was twenty years The book will be handsomely illustraced with half-tone engravings. It will come from the press in about a month.

PRIZE FIGHTER PASSES AWAY Harry Tenny, Knocked Out by Frankle

Neil, Dies at San Francisco.

Neil, Dies at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO. March 1.—Harry Tenny, who was knocked out last night by Frankie Neil, the bantam champion pugilist, died at 8 o'clock this morning.

The news of Tenny's death quickly spread over the city. Orders were at once given at police headquarters to arrest all concerned. Neil soon surrendered himself, as also did James Coffroth, Eddie Graney, Willis Britt, Morris Levy and Mark Shaughnessy. All were charged with manslaughter and released on $560 ball each.

After making the autopsy Coroner's Surseon Cussack announced that Tenny's death was due to cerebral hemotrhage, caused probably by a blow. It was also discovered that strychnine and other drugs were given Tenny during the night, so the stomach was removed and sent to the city chemist, who will analyze the contents.

The mother of the dead boy, Mrs. Israel Tenuebaum, this being his real name, asserts that he was poisoned. A brother, James Tennebaum, charges that the little highter was "doped before he entered the ting. This serious charge is denied by Neil and others connected with the tragedy. Mark Shaughnessy, one of his seconds, says that he fell in a fit after leaving the ring.
