HOGS-Under the influence of a sharp reak at Chicago bogs opened slow and ull at this point, with buyers generally bidding 5970c lower than the average market of yesterday. Sellers were slow to make such a concession as that, and when they finally let go of their holdings it was at prices only $675c lower than yesterday a general market. The hage sold largely at $5.575606.00, as against $6.0006.10 yesterday. While the trade was slew at the eponing it was reasonably active when the trade was once under way and the big bulk of all the hogs sold by 10 o'cleck in the forenoon.

As will be noted from the table above the receipts of hogs today were quite liberal for a Friday, 140 cars being reported in, as against 160 a week ago. For the week thus far the receipts have averaged about the same as for the previous week, but somewhat lower than a year ago.
