THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1906.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

D

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Bee (without Sunday), one year. Bee and Sunday, one year rated Bee, one year. by Bee, one year. DELIVERED BY CARRIER. inday E iturday Daily Bee (including Sunday), per week. 150 Daily Bee (without Sunday), per week. 150 Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week. 50 Evening Bee (with Sunday), per week. 100 Sunday Bee new control of the sunday). Sunday Bee, per copy. Address complaints of irregularities in de livery to City Circulation Department.

OFFICES. Oracles. Omaha-The Bee Building. South Omaha-City Hall Building. Council Bluffs-10 Pearl Street. Chicago-1840 Unity Building. New York-1506 Home Life Ins. Building. Washington-601 Fourteenth Street. CORRESPONDENCE.

Communications relating to news and ed-itorial matter should be addressed: Omaha Bee, Editorial Department.

Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Publishing Company. Only 2-cent stamps received as payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or eastern exchanges, not accepted. THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraska, Douglas County, 58: C. C. Rosewater, secretary of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily. Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of February, 1906, was as fol-lows:

lows:
1	15 31,36
2	16
3	17
4 20,820	18
5 31,750	19
6 81,710	30, 81,37
1 31,550	21 31,82
8 31,450	3 31,254
9 31,490
10 32,720	34
	25
The second se	36
	37
18 31,290 14 31,290	38 31,384
deres original
Total
Less unsold copies commentation of the second

Dafly average C. C. ROSEWATER

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 28th day of February, 1906. (Seal) M. E. HUNGATE, Notary Public.

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

Arch Duke Ferdinand may change his mind and decide that a little throne is better than no throne at all.

If Senator Lodge resurrects the Philuppine bill he will make some people believe that the age of miracles is not past.

At last the wisdom of the ostrich has been vindicated. The Standard Oil company has emulated its example by hiding its head.

If Colorado deesn't hurry those Cripple Creek murder cases it may find all of the alleged murderers immune through confession.

Russian police have been instructed to take no active part in the coming election. The downfail of the reactionary policy is thus confirmed.

SANTA FE'S GOOD EXAMPLE. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company is to be commended doubtless made by telegraph and exfor its refusal to join the other compostoffice the interchange of business ponies having lines in Kansas in their communications and packages, and railattempt to nullify the state schedule of rates on oll, by arbitrarily putting in force rates higher than the legal rates Omaha must likewise be larger. and fighting the public authorities tooth and nail through the time-consuming we must remember that Omaha's prosperity is directly dependent upon the process of the courts. The Santa Fe company incurs the displeasure of the territory within its commercial reach, and that every city, village and hamlet confederated roads, but sets a worthy example when it officially announces that it will submit in good faith to the forward movement, in the reflection of good crops and fair prices enjoyed by maximum freight charges prescribed unthe carrier, and proclaiming its intensources yet untouched, the outlook for tion to go before the legislature next uninterrupted trade expansion for winter to show that the legal rates are confiscatory and to secure permission to Omaha was never better. increase them. This announcement, if it be sincere, commendable desire to get an authoritaimplies a definite submission to the pubtive ruling in advance on the constitulie authority, in striking contrast with tional provision governing eligibility to the attitude of two railroad systems state office in ample time before the towards taxes levied in Nebraska. It is nominating conventions. We apprehend, strange that great railroad corporations should so iong have failed to perceive that genuine and conclusive recognition of public authority is the condition of peaceful and wholesome relations. The ultimate best interests of the railroads themselves are bound up in it.

It may be safely assumed that the Santa Fe will fare far better by taking has no discretion where the petition is the people of Kansas into its confidence, in proper form and duly attested by the by presenting its case to them openly required number of signatures. The and above board, than by any possible effort of defiance and chicane, almost limitless as are the resources of a great railroad corporation for the latter course. But resistance inevitably means war with the public, and a state of war same office at one time. with its bitterness and exasperation is not favorable to consideration of the nice details of equity. The railroads ought by this time to have had enough of the losses and enmities engendered county board establishes the power of by foolhardy war with the public authat body under the revenue law to inthority crease or decrease assessments upon its

The people of Kansas or any other state will meet the transportation corporations fairly and more than half way If they come, equally with other citizens, with ungrudging acknowledgment of the supremacy of the state and asking a square deal on the merits of the case.

FAIR PLAY FOR FAIRBANKS. Nothing could be more irrational and unfair than imputation to Vice President Fairbanks of purpose to defeat or to falter with the Dolliver-Hepburn bill in the senate. Though the place of the vice president is of great importance by reason of the fact that he succeeds to the presidency in the event of the death or disability of the chief executive, yet otherwise his principal function is simply that of presiding officer of the senate, with exceedingly limited influence in that body, of which he is not a member nor even entitled to a vote excett in case of an equal division of the the house possesses over legislation action here just as it is for foot ball now but one surviver, General Miles, of athletics. through the power to appoint the committees of that body, and he is otherwise equally circumscribed by the very constitution, the traditions and the rules of the senate. If there be just complaint or general suspicion of the senate as a body, or of many of the senators, on the score of disposition to thwart the popular demand on pending railroad legislation, Scotch women who hope to vote for the adium should attach to the senate be effected in short of two years, the itself or to those senators who are at voters are not likely to be stampeded fault, and not to the official who is desby any turning on of the hose at this ignated by the constitution merely to sit stage. as its chairman-certainly not in the absence of specific evidence of interference on his part, not a scintilla of which is even alleged against Vice President Fairbanks. If the field of speculation is to be opened, he ought to be entitled to the benefit of all the presumptions that rest upon the fact that both the would-be kidnapers that summary punsenators front Indiana are said to be ishment would overtake them before the heartily supporting the very measure in against $46,388 for February of last chairman, who is allowed $500 more. Senayear. The same sort of a showing is doubtloss made by tolograph and or sion more power, but he does not object to more commissioners and higher salaries. press companies, which share with the Evening Up Things. Boston Transcript.

The law of compensation never sleeps. road earnings on freight in and out of People will be very ungrateful if they com- decreased the number of crimes traceable plain the coming summer that ice is high While contemplating Omaha's growth, in price.

Nuf Sed. Chicago Tribune

It will be a long time, just the same, before the National Educational association succeeds in popularizing "thru," "bizness" in this territory is also marching in a and "tuf."

Model for Action. New York Tribune.

charges unremnnerative and unfair to with so solid a foundation resting may be taken as a compliment, but it is cots on which the boys were sleeping when meant as business. firmly in the development of natural re-

> Tip for a Knocker. Chicago Record-Herald.

The commerce commission has decided that certain petroleum rates are unjust, but that it has no power to give relief. clency of present rate laws.

Possible Cure-All for Hazing San Francisco Chronicle.

A suit is to be brought against an east ern university to recover damages for inhowever, that the difficulty will be to juries sustained by a student in a hazing make a case on which the courts can affair. If the principle that the governing be induced to pass. The court might authorities of an educational institution issue the proposed mandamus against are responsible in cases of this kind is asserted, it will go a long way toward abatthe secretary of state requiring him to ing a victous practice which is winked at accept a candidate's petition on the by many presidents because they are vicground that that officer is not the judge tims of the delusion that it does a student of the candidate's qualifications and good to subject him to hard knocks.

Worshipers of the Big Dollar Philadelphia Record.

Silverism dies hard. Four members of ourts have almost invariably held that the house committee on coinage, weights the only way to test title to office is by and measures have made a minority report quo warranto, and that a case in quo the treasury to increase the supply of subwarranto cannot be instituted until two sidiary silver by using as material some of persons are in position to claim the the silver dollars now lying idly by the million in the treasury vaults. They want the secretary to preserve the integrity of the sacred silver dollars by buying fresh. bullion for the subsidiary coins, or to buy federal court for this district on an ap- buillon and coin dollars therefrom to repeal from an assessment made by the place the dollars coined into smaller pieces.

PERSONAL NOTES.

fected. This makes the county board risk.

share equally with the county assessor responsibility for equal taxation of property within their jurisdiction and relieves the property owners of the unpleasant necessity of complaining Will S. Hays, whose songs "Mollie Daragainst his neighbor in order to get jusling," "The Little Old Log Cabin in the Miss Hannah. tice for himself. The taxpayers will Lane," etc., were sung two score years ago, is living in Louisville, Ky., and re- man as he ran down the street. watch the county board when it next cently celebrated the 74th aniversary of his sits as a board of review and equaliza- birth.

tion to see whether it will shoulder this Congressman Champ Clark has been responsibility without shrinking. good enough to give out the information that if Benton had been elected president there would have been no civil war. Sel-

The recent conference of school superdom does the little word "if" reach a intendents at Louisville among other dignity superior to this. things condemned the tolerance of fra-Champ Clark of Missouri came loning ternities and secret societies among high down the center aisle of the house, rocking from side to side, but covering dis-

State Treasurer Mortensen evinces a

The decision just rendered in the own initiative, subject, of course, to notification and hearing of the parties af-school students as subversive of discitance at a surprising rate. "There's pline and detrimental to habits of studi-Clark," mused Speaker Cannon; "look at the high schools and some of the lower have been a camel." grades of the public schools have gone Daniel S. Jones, a civil war veteran and a member of the squad that captured senators. He is entirely devoid of the altogether too far in aping college cus- a member of the squad that captured enormous influence which the speaker of toms and that the time is ripe for a re- Ind., aged 55 years. It is said there is

The keynote of the Bensonian plat-

Those bankers in Cincinnati seem to Pay is the Thing

ROUND ABOUT NEW YORK. Metropolis.

The problem of dealing with gangs of bud boys is particularly acute in the metropolis. Measures of reform and repres sion heretofore applied have not materially to youngsters. Whatever reform has been effected has been offset by the activity of Fagin schools of crime. One of the outlast rented a cellar on First avenue, made it suits of clothing, kegs of butter, crates of and bacon, boxes of soap and what not ically as the other roads holding those the best part of the situation is that The president's commendation of Admi- Along the walls of the 12x20 room were product. the police discovered them. The element of romance and danger in such a performance makes it attractive to adventurous youths.

> The mild winter days have encouraged the managers of the Waldorf to throw open Senator Foraker will use this in his next the roof as a playground for children and speech as additional evidence of the suffi- pets. Next to Grammercy park, this is the most exclusive playground in New York. The small children, who have heretofore been compelled to go out on the streets with their nurses, can romp and play to their hearts' content without fear of anyone. But it is noticeable that nurses accompany the children; the women themselves generally accompany the dogs. One guest of the Waldorf-the owner of a Japanese spaniel-takes her pet on the roof every day promptly at 2 o'clock. This tiny aristocrat does not condescend to mingle with either the children or the other dogs And he has frequently change of togs. Recently he appeared in a red sweater with hood attachment. The roof of the Ansonia apartment hotel (the biggest in the world) has a gymnasium, a chicken coop, a pigeon house and, in the summer, a truck garden. The roofs here are coming in for use more against a bill to authorize the secretary of and more. Roof camping on Lower Broadway skyscrapers is to be one of the features of midsummer life when the season begins. Already landlords have made arrangements with tenants

Miss Hannah Hughes, 20 years old, had a fist fight with an alleged thief in Twentyfifth street and Ninth avenue and the aflooking for brave and fearless defenders of fair wound up with the man being taken to Jefferson Market court, where he was held in $500 bonds by Magistrate Mayo for petty larceny.

confessed to twenty-six murders. His the magistrate, her family had moved from ment of Norris Brown's candidacy and the vanced to $1.90, so that his profits are now conscience may feel easier, but one is 453 West Nineteenth street to 458, directly withdrawal of one or more candidates outbound to regard him as a poor insurance across the street. She was coming out of side of the eity of Omaha. One of those that the people of this state will not send Queen Wilhelmina of Holland is bearing the new residence when she saw a man Brown's way is Editor Hammond of the other times, on that platform. Neither the cost of concerts given by well known coming out who carried in his arms a bun- Fremont Tribune, who comes out strongly his great wealth nor his unknown party singers in the slum quarters of The Hague. dle consisting of her brother Tom's coat for the attorney general. It looks like the service will appeal to them. If there is a her.

but I chased him,'

"Give back those things," she said. "Fergit it, fergit it," was the reply,

You.' Miss Hannah's fist shot out and landed easy to understand why he is not having beneath the man's car and the latter fell it, for he has done much for Omaha and "down and out.", He still retained pos- he has been an active and influential sensession of the stolen property and in a ator and occupies a present position of great ousness. There is no question but that him travel. If he had four feet he would few minutes struggled to his feet and stag- honor and usefulness. But we take it that gered into a saloon, with Miss Hughes there is a feeling in Omaha, as well as hanging to his coat and landing a blow throughout the state, that Nebraska should now and then. Then a policeman took have a younger man in the senate, and him in.

1854-1906 WALTHAM WATCHES. The WALTHAM WATCH COM-PANY was the first company in America boys, from 16 to 19 years old. They had to make watches, the first to be organtheir home, and filled it with stealings from ized, and at the present time is the sults of clothing, kegs of butter, crates of first in the quality and volume of its

> "The Perfected American Watch," an illustrated book of interesting information about watches, free upon request.

> > AMERICAN WALTHAM WATCH COMPANY, WALTHAM, MASS.

> > > with pride.

before the state convention will meet, and t is only fair to allow Mr. Millard's acts to prove or disprove his words. In case the present incumbent is not able, however, to harmonize the different factions and gain a re-election, we are in favor of Edward Rosewater for senator, a man who has always labored with effects that were beyond petty quibbling and jealousness, who would make a senator that any state would be proud of and a record that Nebraska could and would point to Fremont Tribune: The best judges of the senatorial situation agree that Norris

Brown is likely to sweep the state as

Mr. Burkett did. The probabilities are outside of Omaha, and very likely none

from that city when the convention meets.

Senator Millard will soon discover that he doesn't have a ghost of a show. Then he will fade from view. This will be the time for another Omaha man to step in if he feels like it. G. W. Wattles is said to be holding himself in readiness to take the fatal step. Mr. Wattles has been quoted as saying he will spend $10,000, $25,000, $50,000

or even $100,000, to perfect an organization

POINTERS ON STATE POLITICS.

Cozad Tribune: If Senator Millard is wis e will not be a candidate for re-election Nebraska voters do not want railroad and orporation men to represent them. York Republican: It took a long time to smoke Senator Millard out of his hole and his declaration of his intention to stand by the administration was tardy enough to make the public suspicious of it. An agreement or a promise extorted under compulsion is not a very lasting thing, after the pain of the extortion has passed away. When the devil was well the devil a monk was he.

Papillion Times: Editor Rosewater of The Omaha Bee is the best and most logical there will be no other candidate in the field candidate in the ranks of the republican party to succeed Senator Millard, But Rosewater is not acceptable to the railroad and trust interests of the state. He has made the sad mistake of advancing ideas that have not been officially sanctioned by the managers of the g. o. p., and thus he has absolutely no chance to be named. The republican party in Nebraska is not the rights of the people. Waterloo Gazette: The senatorial situa tion in Nebraska has been clarified some- $500,000 of Omaha street railway stock at Mr. Orchard of Idaho is said to have According to the story told by the girl to what the last week by the formal announce- 50 cents on the dollar and that it has adspect to the field, we are disposed to stick headway against Norris Brown that candihe may be, and to add that of the three equipped from point of service to the state county should lay aside personal prejudice cleared for action with reference to other has

"Let me speak with you a moment."

the old home and just entering the door of to signify his purpose to get out of Mr. a man to the senate at this time, above all "You bring those things back here," said by the Douglas county candidate, whoever date is Editor Rosewater. He has pioneered the slogan of "Burkett and Brown!"

New York's "finest," grown remarkably braska republicans. So it may as well be

Only the poorest people are allowed to at- and an opera cloak and packet belonging to field against Omaha, but with all due re- candidate in Omaha who can make any

"Aw, go chase yourself," answered the

"Well, your honor," said the girl to Magistrate Mayo, "I didn't chase myself,

In Twenty-fifth street the man stopped for once and support him. exhausted, and Miss Hanah overtook him.

Skidoo for yours, little girl, or I'll hurt looking toward his elevation to the senate To prove he can do this he says he bought more than $1,000,000. It goes without saying along the lines of the present sentiment. eligibles in Omaha so far mentioned we He has friends in many parts of the state believe Edward Rosewater is the best and admirers in all parts. But Mr. Rosewater is not available, for the reason that the state will unite almost solidly against and acquaintance with its needs, and this Omaha. That city has had a senator from the beginning of statehood. The time has come when the remainder of the state will demand the senator and contest it with Kearney Hub: Some weeks ago Senato Millard announced that he would stand for re-election. As a citizen of Omaha he should at this moment be having pronounced Omaha support, and it is not quite appealed in a remarkable manner to Ne candidates on the ticket SMILING REMARKS.

paid-for autobiography of W. J. Broatch declares that he has always been "conspicuous" in the public eye." "Notorious" would express it better.

The way desirable corners in the business district are changing hands, it will soon take a big pile of chips to get into the corner lot game in Omaha.

members of Parliament because they are graduates of a university may be doing much to advance higher education in certain quarters.

With the Chinese delegates to America quarreling among themselves, the men who stay at home will probably have their own way when it comes to changing the rules.

'Billy' Saunders. Benson and reform" is the battle cry of the Fontanelle braves! "Billy" Saunders and reform. Zip-Hip, Hooray! By the way, when did "Billy" take the reform Keeley cure?

Strange, is it not, that the authorities of Doane college do not seem to be impressed in the slightest with the idea that they should refuse to consider the offer of Carnegie money for fear of being polluted by it.

For some inscrutable and unexplainable reason the disguisition of Candidate Benson on the enforcement of law. including the Sunday closing law, is significantly silent on the enforcement of the no-treat law.

The efforts of the Nebraska delegation at Washington to hatch out a bill to locate a government fish hatchery in Nebraska should keep the members in pracrice to land political fish when they come home.

Omaha bank clearings for the past week have reached high water mark. The aggregate is over $11,000,000, 21 per cent above the corresponding week of 1905, which was the most prosperous year in Omsha's history.

That hole in the wall at the county jail can be measured best against the hole in the county treasury out of which salaries are extracted for all the roustabouts who have been enrolled as season. deputy sheriffs and jallers.

The most amusing thing about Erastus Benson's platform is his denunciation of platitudes which, almost in the same breath, is followed by a string of platitudes borrowed from the campaign books of all the political parties. living and dead, ancient and modern. The only strictly original idea evolved by Benson is that he favors "the mu-ulcipal ownership of government," whatever that may mean. 1. 1. 1. 26.

question. Even the unofficial bearing of Vice public sympathy as a foundation for President Fairbanks on a matter like their acquittal.

this, so completely absorbing public attention and permeating all political cir-If the Fontanelle candidate for mayor cumstances, is one of extreme delicacy. For if ignorant or malicious misreprecome that the two chief champions of sentation assails him as to things abso- the county jail feeding graft are Fontalutely beyond his responsibility, much nelle members of the county board? more would he be made the victim of And where was the protest of the anti- fathers to save the children, since they canhositie criticism if he were to obtrude graft candidate when the attempt was bimself conspicuously in the lime light being made to perpetuate the county as if for the purpose of making political jail feeding graft?

capital. ONWARD AND UPWARD. Measured by any yardstick of material progress. Omaha, commercially and industrially, is pursuing a steady course onward and upward. As the year 1905 when closed disclosed a balthe inevitable gracefully. ance sheet for Omaha notably in advance of that for the year 1904, so the form is "death to graft and grafters." initial months of the year 1906 are marking records ahead of those of the Fontanelle governor's jail feeding corresponding months of the preceding graft? Did not "Johnny" McDonald In the matter of real estate and buildmove to make Benson's nomination unanimous? ing activity the statistics are decidedly gratifying, being far to the good in the comparative column. This is explainable, of course, by the fact that the winside payments they have been making to ter has been an open one, entailing no hold deposits of public money. This recessation of outdoor operations and enabling building projects to be carried of limitations has not yet run on their on almost as if through a summer trausactions.

The expansion of general business is With Great Britain forcing a vote on shown most gratifyingly in the bank important questions at Algeciras it is clearings totals and the postoffice recelpts. Omaha bank clearings for Febas the British Lion never forces a fight ruary, 1906, are more than $8,000,000 in -unless it has all to gain and nothing excess of the bank clearings for February, 1905-a gain of approximately 30 per cent, and this notwithstanding the fact that the number of banks clearing Chicago Chronicle. through the local clearing house is Senator Lodge has offered an amendment to the Hepburn bill displacing the smaller than a year ago. Stamp sales present Interstate Commerce commission from the Omaha postoffice again for the by a new one, consisting of nine members. month of Vebruary, 1906, are $52,855, as each with a salary of $12,000, except the dashes our feet.

the capture of Davis.

M. C. Conway, a trolley car conductor It was to have been expected that in Denver, is making quite a name for himthe "immediate" compulsory purchase self as a tracer of deserters from the of the water works, which has done United States army. All told he has capservice in every political campaign for tured about fifty men who had taken French leave of army life. At one time the last five years, would be trotted out Conway was a soldier in the Eleventh again for another heat on the municipal United States cavalry. He has made arprimary race track. Inasmuch, howrests all over the west, getting $50 for each capture he makes. He served in ever, as City Attorney Breen admits Cuba, China and the Philippines. that the "immediate" purchase cannot

BISHOP SCANNELL'S PASTORAL Critic Says "His Zeal Outruns His themselves.

Discernment." Chicago Chronicle

The Lenten season pastoral sent out to The proclamation by one of the all the churches in his diocese by Bishop lower Broadway is by no means the first Omahn yellows that parents in this city Scannell of Omaha is a human document in for a building of this height that the amwarm sympathy with human needs, some- bitious New York architect has projected, are alarmed for the safety of their times too sympathetic to admit of entirely children is simply a suggestion to desclear vision. Like most men of warm cem- building department in the form of serious peradoes to imitate the Crowe kidnaping perament, he seems inclined to generalize and responsible plans. Certainly it must be exploit. The Bee feels free _1 warning too hastily and too broadly.

No one who knows the world will question the judgment that the simple, toilful basis as that of a sixty-five-foot square, or life of the farm tends to develop honest, local yellow journals would have time sturdy manhood when it has fit natural mato make heroes of them and work up terial to work on, but in the bishop's the implication in coupling theater goers and votaries of pleasure" grow old premasible to approve the broad generalization- the space that the elevators necessary to the implication in coupling thater goers render satisfactory service would absorb. is really opposed to graft, how does it and votaries of pleasure. A habit of attending the theater alone never dwarfed man- agreed that a skyscraper of sixty-five feet hood seriously The bishop's phrase is too square on the area and of forty stories in broad. His zeal outruns his discernment. Stranger still is it when he appeals to not trust the mothers because, he says, women are swayed by extraneous considerations and their judgment is not to be relied on. Here again it is evident that the bishop has generalized too hastily in draw-

Revolutions in Colombia no longer ing so sharp a line of distinction between possess the interest in America they did fathers and mothers. There is not the least doubt that if he will look about among his while the Panama canal might be afown flock he can speedily pick out many a fected, but the sympathies of the councase where the father cuts no figure among try will be with General Reyes, who the directing forces that control his family, proved that he knew how to recognize but the mother is the commanding officer and director.

Equally true it is that in other families the father is exclusively the director, the arbiter, the "boss." And it is quite safe to say that the bishop knows in his heart that What does Mr. Benson think of the these father-dominated families are not always the most wisely or the most really governed. Among all England's rulers the one most distinguished for uniting clear regular servants had fed, the members of sagacity and an imperious will was a woman.

And so the bishop must know of yet other several days of drudgery they were pretty right and by precedent he is entitled to families whore father and mother contrive well played out, and were willing to pay another term as attorney general, but we be decidedly adverse to telling about the to convey an impression of joint authority. exercised sometimes with much wrangling afraid of the job." and friction, but more often with smooth and harmonious pressure that wins its end inctance would indicate that the statute before it is even recognized as power.

Probably the bishop on reflection will ad-The various laws being introduced in mit that this last named is best of all, but federal and state legislatures to stop corthat joint authority, even when marred ruption may not all pass, and some of with friction and clanking jars, is nearly them may be upon an entirely too Utopian always better than the one-sided force that basis, but they show the public conscience wastes much in lost motion, like the willing is aroused and that some measure of hom probable that danger of war is averted horse in a team that must pull the load and esty and honor must replace present exits lasy or stubborn mate as well. posed conditions. The public may resent a Next after the natural fiber of character ruling state of things better than its own born in the child, it is the home training moral standard; human nature hardens more than any other one thing that deter- itself instantly against the "holier-than mines character growth. If that training thou" attitude, no matter how justly taken. has been intelligent, faithful and whole- But neither will it tolerate conditions be some, the bad play may shock and disgust. low its own moral code, as has been prov but it will not corrupt. To blame it for more than once, by the reforms in soci immorality in spectators is not unlike kick- and political affairs brought about in the ing the insensate stone against which our face of strongly entrenched power and in-own gross willfulness or carelessness fluence by the sheer force of public opinensitive, would like to escape a police taken for granted that there is no possi parade this year. The patrolmen's benefit bility of the re-election of Senator Millard. essociation has petitioned the ind of Al- and when he becomes thoroughly con dermen not to encourage the usual public vinced of that fact the best service he demonstration of the force by making an could perform would be to announce that appropriation of the people's money for he is no longer a candidate, as Hammond Ledger. grandstands and so on. Policemen regard and Kinkaid have already done. By doing the annual parade as a nuisance, rather so he would deal a solar plexus to the than a glory. It is complained that they Omaha intriguers who have been casting have been continually halled hitherto with about for all kinds of impossible candidates derisive cries of "Here comes the grafters!" when as an Omaha man Senator Millard "Look at the side door rappers!" "See this was the noblest Roman of them all and bunch of fakes!" These remarks pain and entitled to an undivided Omaha supportdisplease, and do not cheer, and constitute if he desired to succeed himself. one of the chief reasons why the men beg Aurora Republican: The call for the ot to be forced to make an exhibition of state republican convention is soon to be made. The Republican does not know the sentiments of the committee which will

The project of the Singer Manufacturing formulate the call, but it does know that company to erect a forty-story building on the sentiment of the people is for including in that call the nomination of a candidate for United States senator to succeed Senator Millard, whose term soon expires. The but it is the first that has come before the experience of two years ago, when E. J Burkett was chosen by the convention method, has proven the convention method the first in which an altitude of forty to be far ahead of the legislative way stories has been projected on so exiguous a

The people had a hand in the matter and they chose well and wisely. The opposition something over 4,000 square feet. The utilithe convention method comes from the tarian New Yorkers at once begin to ask. politicians and from others who would "Will it pay?" He "figures" on the elevachoose by the legislative way a senator tor service that the tenants of these forty who would serve their interests better and stories would require. If he be a building the people less. Naturally Senator Mil. turely and never become men, it is not pos- expert, he also figures on the proportion of who is a candidate for re-election. prefers to take his chances with the legislature-and well he may-but the voice of Those who discussed the subject today the people is not calling for Senator Millard or any other man of his style. The demand is for an open champion of the square on the area and of forty stories in height did not exceed the structurally prac-ticable, but most of the experts think that the projector should shorten the building or buy more ground. The enterprising manager of one employ-ment agency now makes a specialty of germ-proof cooks. He advertises his stock of immunes by means of a circular letter addressed to families afflicted with sickin the convention call. ness of a contaglous nature. Arcadia Champion: The republicans of

"I learn the address of those families through the health reports." said the manthe state of Nebraska need exercise no ager. "The servants I supply them with great haste in the selection of the next have lived through all contagious diseases candidate for United States senator, nor under the sun, from hives to smallpox, need the fight be confined to any one man hence they are comparatively free from at-and dignified one, and the party will do tack and are willing, for the sake of the extra money there is in it, to accept a sit- well to look carefully upon the candidates uation in a quarantined house. The fami- who present themselves and use deliberate lies to whom I offered aid of this kind were judgment in their choice. We are not fighting, nor do we wish to fight the can mighty glad of the assistance. Employment agencies do not, as a rule, keep a list didacy of Norris Brown for the position. of germ-proof cooks on hand, so, after the Mr. Brown is a young man of splendid talents. He has been given a position of the stricken households were obliged to honor and trust in the state and so far take charge of their own kitchens. After his services have been acceptable.

almost any price for a cook who was not see in this act no pressing need to advance him past men whose claims are no less on the party and whose right to a reward

Public Conscience Aroused. Baltimore American.

greater than his. Senator Millard has affrance by a letter his allegiance to the firmed by a letter his allegiance to the But the memory of the music is what brings my heart to taw With "The Wind that Shakes the Barley" A long session of congress is still ahead

Coal. Wood.

from point of years of service are much

We sell the best Ohio and Colorado Cosis-clean, hot, lasting: Also Rock Springs, Illinois, Hanna, Sheridan, Walnut Block, Etc. For general purposes, use Cherokee Lump, $5.50; Nut, $5.00 per ton Missouri Lump, $4.75; Large Nut, $4.50-makes a hot, quick fire. Our hard coal is the SCRANTON, the best Pennsylvania anthracite We also soll Spadra, the hardest and cleanest Arkansas hard coal All our cost hand screened and weighed over any city scales desired COUTANT & SOUIRES 1406 FARMAM Phone 930.

By

man paused to listen, and th other furtively begged the price of a "That's the first 'after dinner' spe ever heard before dinner," said the

nan. So tickled was he at his own wit that so tickled a whole dollar.-Philadelphis

Omaha. The Omaha candidate could secure a few straggling Burlington countles, but not enough to encourage him, whoever he might be. This is why the chances are against an Omaha candidate lifting his head after it has soaked into Senator Millard that he is a dead one. It is probable that the next month will settle the senatorial situation, when the decks will be

"Somebody says the climate of the Philip-pines is like eternal spring." "Yes, and I understand that all the na-tives have an eternal spring fever."-Cleve-land Plain Dealer.

Ascum-Pve heard your minister waen out you seem to treat very popular, as if you liked him. Church-Think so?

Ascum-Yes, I notice you send him away on trips to Europe pretty often. on trips to Europe pretty often. Church-Yes, that's the way we like him best.-Philadelphia Press.

"How Mid Mr. Scadds make his money?" asked the inquisitive girl. "My dear," answered Miss Cayenne, "you must never again ask such a question about any one. People will think you are writing for a magazine "-Washington Star.

Discharged Cook-An' will yez give me a reference, mum? Cross Lady-Reference, indeed! What is there to recommend you? Discharged Cook-Just say th't I've lived wid you a whole month.-Cleveland Leader.

Ma-Gracious! What's the matter with the baby

Fa-Oh. he bumped his head against one of the redals of the plano. Ma-Poor little dear! Perhaps he's seri-

Pa-Oh, I guess not. It was the bedal he struck-Philadelphia Press. It was the soft

Was any tenant ever known to go ou suffy to the cemetery three months after the funeral and mournfully put flowers on his landlord's grave?-Somerville Journal.

OLD TUNES.

and "it of sings:
 being me up to taw
 being me up to taw

I'm a-longin' for the music like the kind issue. The office of senator is an honorable | When I

I'm a-longin' for the music like the kind I used to know
When I roomed with Mark and Jimmie and with Aleck Gish an' Joe,
In the boarding house off yonder in the lonescome time o' life.
Fore I had a little baby, 'fore I had a little wife;
When I git my pipe a-burnin' an' I'm settin in the gloom
I can hear the fellows laughin' see the in the gloom I can hear the fellows laughin', see the three beds in a room, An' I hear the strings a singin' as the bow begins to saw At "The Wind that Shakes the Barley" and

Turkey in the Straw

Then I hear the hands a pattin', an' the voices pause an' break. An' I smell the perfumed breazes that have made the barley shake: Nights we've sat and cut and shuffled till the comin' of the dawn Or have bluffed, and been caught at it, on a bobtail flush or straight. We have "done" the town by sadisht and have gone its every sail:

We have "done" the town by have gone its every galt; but the memory of the may Kindling. Coke.