AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Old Stack at Hammond Plant Blown Down by Dynamite Blast. BRICKS FALL CLEAR OF MORTAR IN PILE

A large crowd gathered on the Q street viaduct at 10 o'clock yesterday morning to witness the lowering of the old square stack of the Hammond plant.

The first step was the undermining of one side of the stack as far as safety would allow. Then a few sticks of dynamite were placed on the other side.

THE "DISCOVERY" OF THE SODA CRACKER

For years the humble soda cracker remained obscure and unappreciated. No one seemed to realize its food value—no one seemed to know that it was one of the most nutritious rations obtainable.

Then one day the soda cracker was "discovered." The NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY saw its value if properly presented to the public.

Nearly 400,000,000 packages of them have been sold, and the food value of the soda cracker is a settled fact.
