DEBATE ON ANTI-PASS BILL

Senate Put in All of Session on It Without Resolving a Conclusion.

HOUSE PASSES THE EXEMPTION BILL

Measure as it Now Stands Leaves Only Forty Dollars Per Month at Wages of Family Exempt from Execution.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
DES MOINES, March 8.—(Special.)—The senate today spent the entire forenoon on the committee substitute for the Hughes anti-pass bill and adjourned at noon with the bill still under consideration. Senator Gilliland of Mills and Dowell of Polk took strong stands on the bill, the senator from Mills offering a resolution to strike out section 4 which permits employes, even though state officials, legislators or other officials, to ride on free transportation on the road for which they are employed.

Senator Hughes opened the discussion of the bill, making a brief speech and offering an amendment providing that no employe or agent of a road shall be exempt from testimony under the law, but exempting them from prosecution if they do testify. The amendment was adopted. Senator Gilliland then moved to strike out section 4, and the entire morning was spent in discussion of the amendment. Turner of Adams offered a substitute providing that county, district and state officers and delegates to political conventions should not be exempt from the anti-pass law, and Gilliland accepted it, though later on the floor stated that he was not sure, but that he should not have accepted the substitute. The argument on the amendment was waged by Gilliland, Dowell, Garst and Turner on one side and Saunders and Jamison on the other. The contention of one side was that a citizen should choose between holding a public office and being the employe of a railroad, and on the other side it was contended that an attorney for a railroad had a right to accept transportation in payment of salary if he chose, and that a railroad employe ought to have the same rights as a banker or any other profession or employe to hold a city or public office.

DEATH BY INDIGESTION

A Long Train of Fatal Ills is the Direct Result of Undigested Food.

Undigested food, by fermenting, forms a poison in the stomach and this is absorbed in the blood. If this goes on very long, and your heart happens to be weak, you'll be found some morning dead in bed, or you may fall back down the stairs about an hour and a half after dinner, and the doctor will call it heart disease. Yes, that may be the result, but not the cause. The cause is indigestion. Indigestion is a simple, common word, but has a terrible import.

And so you may get apoplexy, and die suddenly while you're standing.

If you have a weak liver, the poison of undigested food will attack it and you will get jaundice. If you have weak kidneys, you will get Bright's Disease or diabetes, from which there is no recourse for any man.

It was a learned physician who said that the progress of a race depended upon the stomachs of its members.

And you have at some time in your life eaten a heavy meal, or eaten in a hurry, and felt that "lump of lead" immediately afterward. That lump of lead is a hard ball of undigested food. The stomach can't digest it, and finds it hard to throw it out. And so it scours, and it makes you sour and everybody sour who talks with you. It gives you a bad breath and is building for you the road to dyspepsia and death, unless you stop it.

Stop it with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Just think, these little tablets are every bit as powerful as the gastric juice in your stomach. One grain will digest 3,000 grains of food. Isn't this wonderful? And it is true, just try it and prove it.

If you have any heart, gas on the stomach, fermentation, burning, bloating, feeling, indigestion, dyspepsia or heartburn, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will make it disappear before it can do any harm to your heart or other organs.

They will invigorate the stomach, relieve the stomach of two-thirds of its work and give it a chance to rest. They will increase the flow of gastric juice, and if you will ever "live" in your lifetime, it will be after you have eaten a good, hearty meal, and taken one of these little tablets immediately afterward. You'll just feel fine.

Take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after your next meal to-day and you will see them ever afterward. You will be cheerful, vigorous and your mind will be clear; you'll have snap and vim, and add many a day to your life.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold everywhere. Get a box today.

LIVING TOO HASTILY

AMERICAN WOMEN BREAK DOWN

Irregularities and Female Derangements Result. Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owing to our mode and manner of living, and the nervous haste of every woman to accomplish just so much each day, it is said that there is not one woman in twenty-five but that suffers from some derangement of the female organism, and this is the secret of so many unhappy homes.

No woman can be amiable, light-hearted and happy, a joy to her husband and children, and perform the duties incumbent upon her, when she is suffering with backache, headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down pains, displacements, spinal weakness or diseased organs.

Irritability and snappy retorts take the place of pleasantness, and all smiles are driven out of the home, and lives are wrecked by woman's great enemy—female trouble.

Read this letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
I was troubled for eight years with irregularities which broke down my health and brought on extreme nervousness and despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved to be the only remedy which helped me. Day by day I improved in health while taking it until I was entirely cured. I am at present in my social and household duties as thoroughly as ever, and I thank Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for making me a well woman, without an ache or a pain.
—Mrs. Chester Curry, 43 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass.

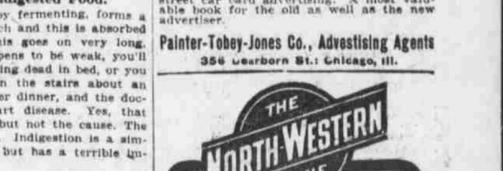

At the first indication of ill health, painful or irregular periods, pain in the side, headache, backache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues," secure at once a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

WOMAN TELLS HER STORY

Wilcox and the young woman said they were from Minneapolis, but it later developed that the young woman was from there. The young woman admitted to Chief Richmond that she was not the wife of Wilcox, but in fact was his first cousin. Her home, she said, was in Blair, Ia., where she taught music. Her home life, she said, was unpleasant and after correspondence with her mother she decided to secure her employment elsewhere. Last Saturday Wilcox appeared in Blair and that evening the two left, going to Dedham, where they put up at a hotel. At Dedham, according to the young woman's story, Wilcox telegraphed to his wife in Minneapolis, who had not returned money to enable them to reach Omaha, where they put up at a cheap lodging house, and the next day the young woman entered the house of ill-fame.

The telegrams received by Chief Richmond from Minneapolis were from the young man, who in his letter mentioned a signed "Mother." His Broken-Hearted Mother. The young woman, realizing evidently the disgrace she has brought on herself and her family, is not anxious to be sent home and requested Chief Richmond to find her employment somewhere.

Young Wilcox, after receiving a scolding lecture from Judge Scott, was sentenced to forty days in the city jail, but the county attorney's office now has the case under investigation and it is possible that he will be held on a more serious charge. After his arrest Wednesday night Wilcox sent a telegram to his mother, requesting money for $25 to enable him to return home. Yesterday he received a telegram from Minneapolis, addressed to G. W. Harris, care of police station, and signed Thornton. "Your wife here" was all that the telegram contained.

Matters in District Court

The district court pett jury, which was discharged for the term yesterday morning by Judge Thornell, after seven weeks' service, presented J. B. Matlack, the court bailiff, with a handsome gold watch in recognition of his courtesy and watchfulness for their comfort. Attorney S. B. Matlack made the presentation speech and Judge Thornell returned the watch to add a few encomiums to the faithful service of the court officer. Mr. Matlack was recently initiated into the Council Bluffs lodge of Elks and the watch bears on its case an engraving of an elk.

S. P. Matlack, the young man under indictment for passing a number of worthless checks, has met his end in his hands. His young wife, Maud C. Matlack, who was married July 25 last, only a few weeks before he was arrested, yesterday began suit for divorce in the district court. She charges him with treating her cruelly and deserting her after the worst kind of episode.

Mrs. Martha Hummel files a divorce from Charles Hummel, to whom she was married December 2, 1902, in Neola, Ia. She charges her husband with deserting her on February 19 of this year. She asks for the custody of their minor children and that the wife in the household in Neola be declared to be her.

William Nelson, who was married to Ella Nelson in Montezuma, Ia., December 1, 1905, charges his wife with deserting him two years after their marriage. He filed a petition for divorce.

Monday's case yesterday her petition against Jos. Carroll, in which she asks for $1,800 damages for alleged assault and battery.

The personal injury damage suit of Haefner against Huber Bros., assigned for trial yesterday, was continued to the next term and the petit jury was sworn.

The record which has been brewing between J. P. Woodring and H. F. Schmidt, comprising the Woodring-Schmidt Underwriting company, culminated yesterday in Woodring bringing suit in the district court to dissolve the partnership and for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the company. The property of the firm is said to be worth about $4,000 and the largest indebtedness is $2,500, due the First

At Dedham, according to the young woman's story, Wilcox telegraphed to his wife in Minneapolis, who had not returned money to enable them to reach Omaha, where they put up at a cheap lodging house, and the next day the young woman entered the house of ill-fame.

The telegrams received by Chief Richmond from Minneapolis were from the young man, who in his letter mentioned a signed "Mother." His Broken-Hearted Mother. The young woman, realizing evidently the disgrace she has brought on herself and her family, is not anxious to be sent home and requested Chief Richmond to find her employment somewhere.

Young Wilcox, after receiving a scolding lecture from Judge Scott, was sentenced to forty days in the city jail, but the county attorney's office now has the case under investigation and it is possible that he will be held on a more serious charge. After his arrest Wednesday night Wilcox sent a telegram to his mother, requesting money for $25 to enable him to return home. Yesterday he received a telegram from Minneapolis, addressed to G. W. Harris, care of police station, and signed Thornton. "Your wife here" was all that the telegram contained.

Matters in District Court

The district court pett jury, which was discharged for the term yesterday morning by Judge Thornell, after seven weeks' service, presented J. B. Matlack, the court bailiff, with a handsome gold watch in recognition of his courtesy and watchfulness for their comfort. Attorney S. B. Matlack made the presentation speech and Judge Thornell returned the watch to add a few encomiums to the faithful service of the court officer. Mr. Matlack was recently initiated into the Council Bluffs lodge of Elks and the watch bears on its case an engraving of an elk.

S. P. Matlack, the young man under indictment for passing a number of worthless checks, has met his end in his hands. His young wife, Maud C. Matlack, who was married July 25 last, only a few weeks before he was arrested, yesterday began suit for divorce in the district court. She charges him with treating her cruelly and deserting her after the worst kind of episode.

Mrs. Martha Hummel files a divorce from Charles Hummel, to whom she was married December 2, 1902, in Neola, Ia. She charges her husband with deserting her on February 19 of this year. She asks for the custody of their minor children and that the wife in the household in Neola be declared to be her.

William Nelson, who was married to Ella Nelson in Montezuma, Ia., December 1, 1905, charges his wife with deserting him two years after their marriage. He filed a petition for divorce.

Monday's case yesterday her petition against Jos. Carroll, in which she asks for $1,800 damages for alleged assault and battery.

The personal injury damage suit of Haefner against Huber Bros., assigned for trial yesterday, was continued to the next term and the petit jury was sworn.

The record which has been brewing between J. P. Woodring and H. F. Schmidt, comprising the Woodring-Schmidt Underwriting company, culminated yesterday in Woodring bringing suit in the district court to dissolve the partnership and for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the company. The property of the firm is said to be worth about $4,000 and the largest indebtedness is $2,500,
