CIRCLE WILL STAY IN OMAHA

Woman's Auxiliary to Woodmen of the World Will Not Move.

NOT GUIDED BY THE PARENT ORDER

Root Now Says Removal of Woodmen is Not Decided On and Has Not Come Before the Council.

Mrs. Emma B. Manchester, head of the Woodmen Circle, the woman's auxiliary of the Woodmen of the World, says her order will not move its national headquarters away from Omaha...

"Relative to the attitude of the Woodmen Circle, which, although being the woman's auxiliary of the Woodmen of the World, is an entirely separate and distinct order, we feel not only a very great admiration for the Woodmen of the World and its officers...

"We have every confidence in the ability, honesty and integrity of the supreme bench of this state. We believe the widows' and orphans' mite which our members have placed in our keeping and which, owing to the fact that our headquarters are in Nebraska, is deposited in Nebraska banks...

"In view of the splendid manner in which County Assessor Reed and ex-County Clerk Drexel, and also the Board of Equalization of Douglas county, have stood by Omaha and its best interests in helping us protect our order's reserve fund from being over-taxed in 1905, we believe it but justice to them that we at least wait for the decision of our supreme court...

"If they find that the law provides that we must be taxed, then it is time enough to take action. Of course we may be severely criticized by some of our members in other states, but we believe that if we would be repaying the efforts of our county officials in our behalf last year very poorly were we to move without first waiting for the decision of our supreme court...

Root Reverses His Statement. "The question as to whether the headquarters of the Woodmen of the World will be moved from Omaha has not been decided," said J. C. Root, sovereign commander, to The Bee Friday afternoon, contradicting his previous assertion...

Some Summer Rates. The Northwestern has announced a new schedule of rates to the northwest for the summer months. Some of the rates were the same as were in effect last year...

OMAHA MEN AT CONFERENCE

Local Railroad and Commercial Representatives Will Go to Chicago Meeting.

FREIGHT RATES ARE NOT TO BE REDUCED

Schedules Between Missouri River and Chicago to Come Down and Also Those from Chicago to Atlantic Seaboard.

A conference of railroad officials is scheduled in Chicago for next Tuesday to consider the advisability of reducing the class rates from Chicago to the west.

Commissioner McMann and the transportation committee of the Commercial club have been invited to appear in Chicago Tuesday and assist in determining a proper reduction in these freight rates.

Burlington officials have been indicted at St. Louis on the ground of making those reductions to certain jobs, and it was said by a prominent railroad official in Omaha that the idea probably was to give all shippers the benefit of these reductions on all roads.

Representatives of the Commercial club of Sioux City have also been invited to be present at the conference.

A merry rate war is being waged between the roads running between Chicago and New York and Boston, and the end is not in sight. The fight is being waged by the differential lines against the standard lines to compel the Michigan Central to fix its rates so as to put that road back into the standard line crowd, to which division it is claimed the Central belongs.

Union Pacific Bulletin. The Union Pacific has a new agricultural bulletin on the press of the principal crop yields of the states and territories tributary to the Union Pacific, compiled from the United States reports.

The report gives the farm value of land per acre in the states named and makes a remarkable showing for the states which grow crops under irrigation ditches.

Rush for Homesteads. The desire all over the country for people to find land for cultivation was demonstrated in a striking manner at the Burlington station in Omaha Tuesday, when the station was crowded with homeseekers desiring to go in all directions in search of available land for homes. A striking illustration of the divergence of travel in connection with the low homeseeker's rate was given when two parties stood side by side on the same platform.

The Northwest has announced a new schedule of rates to the northwest for the summer months. Some of the rates were the same as were in effect last year.

Notice to Land Seekers

A large tract of valuable agricultural land is to be thrown open for settlement on March 20, 1906. This land has been in litigation for twelve years and on January 20 the United States land office handed down an opinion which will open this land for settlement on March 20.
