WARD COUNCILMEN NAMED

Good Attendance Marks the Republican Nominating Primaries.

Ticket Composed of Representative Business Men and Universally Conceded to Be a Strong One.

First Ward Second Ward. Third Ward. Fourth Ward. Figh Ward. Sixth Ward. Joseph S. Lidgert Peter H. Wind Robert B. Wallace Hans F. Knudson Walter M. Hendrix The above are candidates for the ward ouncilmen nominated at the republican ward primaries last night.

A large attendance in most of the wards narked the primaries last night and much nterest was evidenced in the nominations. In the First ward Joseph S. Lidgett was ominated by acclamation. In accepting the nomination Mr. Lidgett announced himself in favor of municipal ownership and extension of the water works service to all parts of the city not now supplied.

In the Second ward the nomination went to Peter H. Wind by two-thirds of the ninety votes cast. Twenty-nine votes were scattered among C. A. Tibbits, J. E. Hollenbeck and Frank E. Clark.

The nomination of Robert Wallace in the Third ward was practically unanimous. only three votes straying to Paul DeVol. who was not a candidate.

In the Fourth ward, known as the silk stocking balliwick, only forty-six votes were cast of which twenty went to Hans F. Knudson, giving him the nomination. Soren Wilson, who at the last moment declined to be a candidate, received three votes, A. J. Manderson eighteen. R. Black two and Ed Ford three. The nomination of Peter Smith in the Fifth ward was by acclamation. In the Sixth ward interest was at fever neat and the county building at Twentyfourth street and Avenue B was inadequate to contain the crowd at one time. The fight was between W. M. Hendrix and C. S. Hubbard. Hendrix got the nomination with 140 votes to sixty votes for Hubbard. The ticket is conceded to be a strong one. all of the candidates being well and favorably known. Joseph Lidgett is a retired farmer living at 615 East Broadway. Peter H. Wind, the nominee in the Second ward, is a well known contractor and served the ward in the council during 1890 and 1891. when he made a most excellent record Robert Wallace, the nominee in the Third ward, is one of the best known young business men of the city and for several years has been prominently identified with every movement for the betterment of the city Hana F. Knudson, the Fourth ward nomince, is a grocer on South Main street and since its organization has been one of the leading members of the Council Bluffs Retail Grocers' and Butchers' association.

Councilmen Younkerman in the First ward, Maloney in the Second. Weaver in the Fourth and McMillen in the Fifth, it is understood, will be renominated. There is, however, doubt as to whether Tinley in the Third or Crippen in the Sixth will succeed in securing renominations. It was stated yesterday that the nomination in th Third ward would likely go to John W. Schott, a druggist on Main street. CUTS OFF FAVORS TO ALL OFFICIALS

House Passes the Bill Taking Circle

Off the Official Ballot and Cross Mast Be Made for Each Man Voted For.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, March 9 .- (Special.) -- After but a few minutes discussion the senate today amended the anti-pass law so as to make section 4 except only the railroad commissioners and their secretary when traveling on official business, and then passed the bill unanimously, with forty-six votes in favor and none against. The bill, as it goes to the house, prohibits the giving of passes by any steam or interurban railway to any city, county, district or state official, including judges and members of the general assembly, delegates to political conventions, members of political committees or candidates to city, county, district or state offices. Section 2 of the bill prohibits such persons soliciting such passes or transportation at less cost than is offered the general public. Section 2 excepts persons holding notorial commissions, pubife offices that pay no salary or fees, officers or faculty members of the state educational institutions, members of the State Board of Agriculture, members of National Guard and city fire departments and per ons accompanying live stock or perishable commission and their secretary on official business. Section 5 provides for running excursions. Section 6 provides that no one shall be exempt from testifying and section 7 provides for punishment not exceeding six months in jail or a fine of not exceeding $500. Registration for Narses. The senate this afternoon passed the bill requiring trained nurses to be registered. The bill was introduced by Young of Washington at the request of some of the nurses of the state and created a board of examiners. This provision was eliminated in the debate on the bill and the State Board of Medical Examiners was delegated to ex-

Circle Goes Off Ballot. The house today passed by a vote of 16 to 9 the senate bill to take the circle off the official ballot in Iowa, so that there will be no more "straight tickets" cast. The full line of fresh, sait, smoked and cured bill is one which was demanded for many years as a democratic measure, but finally taken up by progressive republicans and put through in the interest of justice.

strenuous fight to cut out of the anti-pass bill the provision exempting employes of railroads, which would have allowed many legislators and delegates to conventione to still ride on passes, said today that the bill should have cut out the exemption to directors of the department of agriculture. They are already paid 5 cents a mile by the state for their traveling expenses, in addition to $1 a day while employed. Sen ator Brooks is understood to have had an amendment to that effect, but the previous question was moved and voted before he had time to introduce it. It may be that the house will make the amendment. House Opposes Long Terms. The house came today to consideration of series of bills intended to make changes in the code necessary because of the adoption of the blennial term idea. The first of these was a bill to change the time of making out official reports and this was passed, and a bill to change the fiscal term so as to correspond with the time of meeting of the legislature was adopted. Then came a bill fixing the terms of office of state officers. These, according to the bill, are to remain as at present save in the case of railroad commissioners. The proposal was to extend their terms to twice the present length and make them six years each. As soon as the house reached it this clause was stricken out. In the same bill was a provise for giving six-year terms to township trustees, and this was stricken out before the bitt was passed.
