Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott of Mechanicaville, N. Y., are the proud and happy parents of two dozen youngsters. To be known Mr. Elliott is the champion Amerher "babies" as is the papa, and the Eithe biggest on record.

Ever since President Roosevelt stirred the fathers and mothers of America by change in the sentiment with regard to children. In some circles, where babies ups have been forced into the background and the babies are enthroned. At first Mr. Roosevelt was smiled at, but as the force of his remarks came home to their vigorous young president was right. Children always have been the delight of Mr. Roosevelt. Not long ago he caused a stir during his western trip by discovand eight young Olivers. Mr. Oliver is a banker, and when he introduced his famlly to the president the latter became so the family. Last October Mr. Oliver put $15,000 in his pocket, came to New York family will spend two years abroad. They will visit the pope, and everywhere they go they have been pointed out as the point of the man considered the most capable judge. There are six girls in of the nicest "stepladders" imaginable.
