hought a 44-foot lot and announced that he would build on it a warehouse for the company. Friday morning Mr. Beaton ac quired two 23-foot lots on the west of his former purchase and has announced that the company will build a warehouse twice as large as was at first contemplated, in creasing the facilities of both wholesale and warehouse part of the Susiness. One was owned by Dr. Porter and the other by the Byron Reed estate. Harrison & Morton and the Payne Investment company made the deal. The price of the lots WR.8 $7,500.

The Swenson Mercantile company, a new wholesale notion firm located temporarily at 1119 Farnam street, has bought lot i block 123, as a location for a home, though definite plans for building have not been formulated. The price was $9,000. R. C. Peters & Co. made the sale. The lot is on Tenth street immediately north of the Burlington headquarters.

Another concern which is looking for a new home is the Omaha Loan and Building ciation. Several locations have been offered, among them the Douglas block at the southeast corner of Sixteent hand Dodge streets, and indications point to purchase of this. The price asked is suld to be $35,000.

Ninety-three Lots Bought. Hastings & Heyden have bought from the Omaha Safety Deposit and Trust company ninsty-three lots west of Miller park and northwest of Fort Omaha. They will iny out the land in acre and half-acre tracts, build several houses and place the property on the market

S. R. Cox, a live stock commission man of South Omaha, has bought the lot and frame dwelling at the southwest corner of Twenty-fourth and Dodge streets from Joseph Polsom, a nonresident, through Hastings & Heyden. The consideration WRB $8,000.

Mrs. Laura B. Summers, wife of Dr. J. E. Summers, jr., has bought what is said to be one of the best residence lots in the city, and will build a residence on it. The lot is 79x165 feet and is at the northeast corner of Thirty-seventh street and Dewey avenue.' The Cudahy home is on the opposite corner and on one of the other corners Hugh Murphy will build a fine house. The consideration was $7,500.

J. T. Kerns has bought from the National Life Insurance company, for $7,500, two brick flats at Thirty-second and Poppleton avenue.

H. K. Burket paid M. C. Grant of New York $2,760 for a fifty-foot vacant lot at Twenty-ninth avenue and Jockson street next Mr. Burket's new home.

Dr. E. C. Henry has bought the F. L. Harris residence at the southwest corner of Thirty-fifth avenue and Jackson street for $4,250.

Jackson in Jail.

On a charge of assault which he says is inspired by animus of enemies, O. W. Jack-son, janitor of the city jail, was bound over to the district court by Folice Judge Craw-ford, Friday, the woman in the case being me who gives the name of Thelma De Vall, who was fined in police court Tuesday porning 55 and costs for disorderly con-sust in Minnie Fairchild's house of ill-apute. Jackson could not give the re-uired bond of $1,000 and went to the county 10.
