URGES SOUTH TO TAKE LEAD

Judge Alton B. Parker Addresses Manufacturers' Club at Charlotte.

NORTHERN DEMOCRATS UNABLE TO WIN

Former Candidate Urges Southerners to Take Charge of Party Machinery and Select Next Nominee.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 17.—Judge Obelsance Obelsance Aria, O Love! of Thy Might Let Me Borrow andidate for president in the last election, tonight in an address before the Manufacturers' club of this city urged south-

lows:

During all its history the democratic party has denounced the ledgment of unus power in the government; has operated its logical outcome, the granting of special privinges in the levy of taxes and has missed upon economy in expenditure. Under these as guiding principles it built up its own organization and has only been able to maintain it by constant devotion to them. In time they have become inalienable policies and ingrained traditions. In or out of power, in nation or state, in the demands of its leaders, in the devotion of its rank and file, in war or peace, in its early or later days, it has stood for these things.

While this conscious devotion to an idea has commended limit.

While this conscious devotion to an idea has commended itself to the democrats of the whole country and has thus made and kept the party national during recent years, the people of the south, without variableness or shadow of turning, have been its mainstay. Shirking no responsibility, seeking no national rewards, promoting no special interests or movements, they have neither been truculent in victory nor discouraged in defeat.

Going on their way, regulating their own affairs, without hope of commanding subsidy, paying cheerfully to carry out policies in which they could have no part, they have so impressed themselves upon their time that the one special problem coming to them from the past has been solved in such a way that the whole country has not only been forced to approve and appland, but to imitate as the only way to deal with it.

New Duties and Responsibilities.

New Duties and Responsibilities. But the time has come when new duties and responsibilities must be undertaken by the democrats of the south. It is more than two score years since the war closed and your people find themselves upon the threshold of what promises to be the most remarkable business development the world has ever known within the same time and space.

The two first numbers rende

In 1886 you tried Nebraska and since that day no old democratic northern state has accredited one of our party to the United States senate and in none has there been a friendly governor. All the democratic training schools of the north—elementary, intermediate and higher—were closed and have remained so. The party paralysis was complete and almost fatal. In 1890, hoping to cure or patitate it, you advised returning again to New York for your candidate only to meet the worst defeat in our party history. It is now nearly twelve years history. It is now nearly twelve years since any man professing devotion to your party has been chosen in nation or in any northern democratic state to fill an important executive office. At the last election northern democratic state to fill an impor-tant executive office. At the last election perhaps eight out of ten of the voters then under 30 were ranged with our opponents and today the party organizations are life-less, their one time leaders are dead or have abdicated, or worse, have become re-publicans, while in more than one state the threat hangs, over them that they may become the victims of the spoiler, or the corruptionist.

Candidate from South.

When such conditions confront you why should you hesitate longer? Until the democrats of Nebraska. New York and other northern states have brought forth fruits meet for repentance, or at least so long as they are threatening to give themselves and the party over to further destruction—should you not assert yourself? You have borne the heat and burden of the day. Your statesmen have demonstrated their ability not only to take care of the interests of their states and their cection, but they have been the only dam against aggression at home and the threat of discredit abroad. Among them are men with the knowledge, experience, honesty and courage to represent their fellow partisans without the surrender of principle, and their fellow countrymen with salety and honor.

and honer.
I. myself, placed at the front for a time. and honor.

I. myself, placed at the front for a time, have every reason to be grateful to democrata everywhere, especially to those of the south. I appreciate the honor thus conferred upon me and have no regrets for the past; but no one, I think, can know better than I how futile our effort has been in the past and how unpromising the outlook is for the future unless we throw as de isms and grasp the great moral issue now so clearly perceived by the people. The time has come when the really effective democrata of the country should be recognized and when they themselves should no longer hesitate, decline or refuse to seek or to accept those honors which are their just due for work well done. It may possibly be that the party will go to defeat again, but since 1806 it has done nothing else under northern leadership, and certainly it cannot do worse.

Will Eliminate Factions.

Will Eliminate Factions.

I believe that it will do better, because it will at once eliminate the factions which are inevitable so long as their leaders feel that they have only to capture a few state organizations in the north to nominate their candidate and then depend upon the south to support and elect him if possible. And certainly no faction can refuse to support a worthy southern candidate in the light of the loyalty of the south to every party candidate.

If we are honest with ourselves, earnest and vigilant in the recognition of those popular deeds which are both safe and democratic and regardful of our own ideas and traditions, we shall again be intrusted with power and we shall be ready for it. When this time comes the south ought to be and, indeed, it must be, the one great effective fero. In bringing about such a happy consummation—sorely needed if our institutions are to endure inviolate. Will Eliminate Factions.

A Habit to Be Encouraged. The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, colds and croup, to which children are susceptible, are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to resuit in pneumonia and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing injurious and mothers give it to litle ones with a feeling of perfect security

There was a sudden flurry of excitement at the South Omaha High school Friday noon, when on entering the space allotted to the locker rooms some of the students found volumes of smoke issuing from crevices about the lockers. The alarm of fire spread quickly and a panicky feeling prevailed for a moment or two. The principal and some of his assistants made an investigation of the suspicious smoke. It was found that there was no cause for alarm. The smoke was due to the fact that the janitor had emtled the waste paper before the grate in the furnace room and that the paper in burning in the coal pit had not been supplied with draft enough through the furnace to carry off the smoke as was usually the case, so it filled the basement and came up through an air shaft to the locker room. Here it rolled out in such volumes that the pupils were seized with alarm.

telegraphic dispatches purporting to come from Rome, in which the name of the Right Reverend the Bishop of Lincoln and The latest reports from the South Omaha hospital shows no change in the condition of the wreck victims. The burial of Miss Freda Hoffman took place yesterday afternoon at 2 p. m. There was a large number of her friends from the Hemis Bag company to pay their respects, and beside them a very large attendance from her friends in South Omaha. The funeral was from the residence.

Right Reverend the Bishop of Lincoln and the names of two other bishops are mentioned. Those cablegrams are bogus. They do not contain a scintilla of truth, and they originated not in Rome, but here in the United States. The supreme authority in the church vested the right reverend bishop with special and plenary powers to deal with the insurgent priest. He exercised those powers and the case is finished. It remains to be seen whether the courts of Nebraska will protect the Catholic church in its property rights. Thus far they have failed to do so, and at Seward the strange spectacle is presented of five or six schismatic familles, headed by a schismatic and excommunicated priest, holding the church building and forcing the congregation proper to worship in a public hall.

But you ask why are those fake cablegrams sent out? I will answer and say that they are sent out for a twofold purpose. First, to influence the action of the supreme court were to pass upon the their appearance in the newspapers; and now that Judge Evans is about to pronounce upon a certain phase of the case the same ruse is resorted to. In their folly they imagine they can influence the judges of our courts by such artifices. Again, it is beginning to dawn upon the simple-minded and deluded followers of the schismatic priest that, perhaps, after all they are being humbugged, and in such cablegrams. They are copied into the county papers of Seward and Butler counties, and the farmers in their simplicity seeing them in print give credence to then because, as they reason, being in the newspapers the dispatches must, of course, be true.
