Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN OPENS

Great Mass Meeting Held in Dodge Light Guards' Armory.

ADDRESSES ON NEED OF AN ASSOCIATION

Speeches Made by Iowa and Nebraska State Secretaries and President Carpenter of Omaha Association.

If the attendance at the mass meeting yesterday afternoon and the interest shown in the proceedings count for aught, the project to establish a Young Men's Christian Association in Council Bluffs should be an assured success.

The meeting, aside from the purpose for which it was called, was a most interesting and entertaining one. The committee in charge had been careful not to fill the armory with formal addresses alone, but offered a number of varied musical selections which interspersed the speeches and materially tended to enliven the proceedings.

The musical program was an excellent one and included the singing of a number of well-known hymns by a large male chorus under the direction of C. W. Coker, two cornet solos by Prof. A. A. Covill, a solo by Dr. Claude Lewis, a number by the Elks' quartet and the singing of several hymns in which the large audience joined.

The benefits of a Young Men's Christian Association from different standpoints were presented to the gathering by W. A. Magee, state secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association for Iowa, W. J. Carpenter, president of the Omaha Young Men's Christian Association, and Rev. James O. Moore, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church of this city.

W. A. Magee, state secretary for Iowa, was assigned the topic, "What I Have Heard Some Business Men Say About It." He opened his address by saying that he was glad to see that the movement for the establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association in Council Bluffs had been inaugurated by the young men of the city.

This, he contended, augured success for the project. After referring to the fact that Council Bluffs was one of the very few cities in the state of Iowa which did not have a Young Men's Christian Association, the speaker told of what had been accomplished in this line in other cities throughout the state.

He mentioned in particular the assistance rendered by business men in other cities, and mentioned how in Dubuque one business man of that city had contributed $50,000 toward the erection of a building for the association in his city and how this business man had told him that he would not withdraw his contribution for the entire width of the state.

Miss Manie Maher, residing at 311 Eighth avenue, was taken to St. Bernard's hospital yesterday and today her case will on complaint of her father, John Maher, be investigated by the commissioners for insane.

Mr. Carpenter followed State Secretary Magee and told what he as a business man thought of the Young Men's Christian Association. In opening he said the greatest benefit of the association is the Christian home, ordained by God; the next institution in potency and power is the church, and as he understood it the institution which comes next in the welfare of any city or community was the Young Men's Christian Association.

Concluding, the speaker said: "What have the people of Council Bluffs done for the betterment of its youth? The Christian home, the public library, its hospitals were all as I understand it, built by outside agencies. Council Bluffs now has the opportunity and should rise up and do something grand for its young men."

Rev. James O'May's address was on "What I as a Preacher Think of the Young Men's Christian Association." His views of the project was outlined in one of his opening statements, which was "The Young Men's Christian Association is a necessity, not a luxury."

Someone in the audience asked Mr. Carpenter if Council Bluffs could not borrow the famous clock and he replied that the Young Men's Christian Association of that city had the first lien on it, but that possibly later on this city might be able to secure it.

ing of the youth of the city so as to fit them for their future careers as business and professional men who would be a credit to their city. It provided them with proper environments and gave to the youth who was a stranger in the community a helping hand, which no other organization did or could.

General Committee Appointed. As had been announced no effort to solicit subscriptions was made at the meeting, which was called merely for the purpose of presenting to the people of the city the benefits to be derived to the community by the establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association.

These comprise the general committee: Joseph W. Smith, chairman; R. B. Walston, secretary; E. E. Hart, E. C. Lougee, O. J. McManus, C. C. Clifton, E. E. Bender, F. T. True, W. S. Cooper, E. C. Campbell, E. J. Jones, Dr. H. B. Jennings, W. N. Clifford, F. C. Riker, R. Reed, J. F. Wilcox, H. C. Van Brunt, P. H. Key, T. N. Patterson, Leonard Everett, N. P. Dodge, John G. Woodward, Emma C. Murphy, E. A. Dickerson, D. F. Montgomery, F. J. Day, C. A. Beno, C. G. Saunders.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETING

Vote of Monday's Election Will Be Canvassed.

The Board of Education will meet tonight and canvass the vote cast at the school election last Monday. The board will then reorganize and Emmet Tinley will succeed himself, while O. A. Schoedack, the other newly elected member, will assume the seat vacated by W. E. McConnell. It is likely that J. P. Hess will be re-elected president.

There is some question whether under the new school law H. G. McFee will retain the office of treasurer until July 1. It is also a question whether the same law does not apply to members of the board, but even if it does Mr. McConnell stated yesterday he would not take advantage of it, but simply vacate his seat this evening and turn it over to his successor, G. A. Schoedack.

Miss Floyd Frank, a teacher in the Washington Avenue school, will tender her resignation. It is said that Miss Crow will be elected to take her place.

inmates of the house were aroused by strange noises emanating from Walston's room. Investigation showed Walston walking about the room, gesticulating and talking to himself. The police were summoned and Walston was taken to headquarters. Here his condition became worse and he was removed as speedily as possible to the hospital.

Mayorality Fight in Omaha. ONASA, March 18.—(Special.)—It begins to look as if Omaha was going to have the liveliest fight in its history over the question of mayor. C. H. Bradbury, the republican candidate, is an ex-clerk of the district court of Monona county and at present secretary of the Monona County Abstract company and a member of the city council. He has many friends and they will put up a hard fight for him. Henry Harlow, the present mayor, has served two years and has lots of friends who say he is the best ever. He is president of the State Good Roads association and has given much attention to the streets of Omaha and is generally known as a public-spirited official.

DEMAND FOR DEMURRAGE BILL

Iowa House of Representatives to Be Bombarded with Petitions This Week.

TODAY WILL BE A BUSY DAY IN HOUSE

Committee Ordered to Report by 2 P. M. on All Bills Introduced Before March 6.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES. MOINES, March 18.—(Special.)—It is learned that the house the coming week is to be bombarded with petitions from the farmers and co-operative elevator men from the northern part of the state in favor of the reciprocal demurrage bill, and the measure is far from being dead for this session. The demand for the law is the difficulty the farmers and elevator men experience in getting cars. The bill has been in the hands of a sub-committee, which Saturday reported to the full committee a substitute measure, which is a little less objectionable to the railroads.

The joint pardon committee of the house and senate next week will consider the pardon of Alonzo Robbins of Lee county and J. B. Taylor of Clinton, Tuesday; Betsy Smith of Polk county and William Tool of Sac, Wednesday; Louis Busse of Bremer, Thursday; and Joseph G. Smith of Monroe, Friday. The last two are under sentence to hang April 29 this year. The attorneys for Al. D. Storms of Des. Moines county have withdrawn his application.

Blender Twine Bill. The appropriation committee have nearly agreed to kill the blender twine bill for this session because of lack of money, and if anything is done at all it will be to appoint a committee to investigate the Minnesota factory and report at the next session.

Cuts Down Reports. The house has passed the senate bill cutting down the number of official reports to be bound in the official documents, which will save the state about $2,500 a year.

For Corn Experiments. Prof. P. G. Holden of the State Agricultural college appeared before the senate appropriations committee Saturday afternoon and made a very strong talk in favor of the bill appropriating $87,000 for experimental work in the state. He declared that colleges and the State Normal will suffer at the expense of the State university as the single board will cut off much of the work done at these two schools as being duplications of the State university, while little or nothing will be cut out at the State university. The bill will be taken up again in the senate Tuesday.

Flenniken Primary Bill. The committee on elections of the house has perfected the Flenniken primary election bill, which has been before the committee for several days, and reported it out favorably. The author of the bill presented some amendments designed to make the bill better and to conform to other bills that have been considered. The bill was prepared hastily that the number of matters were overlooked. Discussion of the bill in committee developed that there was wide variation in the views of the members and that even if the bill is perfected as its author desires it will be opposed on the floor of the house. The wisdom of taking out of the bill consideration of judicial nominations, both district judges and supreme judges, was recognized by all, and there will be no disagreement on this phase of the bill. The bill, as it now stands, provides for the nomination of the governor, lieutenant governor, state auditor, state treasurer, secretary of state and railroad commissioners, both district judges and supreme judges, to be recognized by all, and there will be no disagreement on this phase of the bill.
