AMENDMENTS BY MR. BAILEY

Texas Senator Submits Proposed Changes in Hepburn Base Bill. ONE DEFINES A REASONABLE CHARGE

Another Franklin's Suspension of Order of Interstate Commerce Commission Pending Review.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The entire day in the senate was devoted to the consideration of the railroad rate bill. Mr. Cullender began the proceedings by presenting an amendment prohibiting corporations coming under the operation of the proposed law from making campaign contributions and he was immediately followed by his colleague, Mr. Bailey, who offered the amendments so long promised by him and followed this action with a speech in which he explained that he would not now present the amendments but for the fact that Mr. Dilliver had referred to and criticized them in an interview. He indicated some displeasure over the interview, but exonerated Mr. Dilliver from courtesy in the matter. The Iowa senator disapproved any intention to reveal a secret and the incident was closed pleasantly. Both Mr. Bailey and Mr. Dilliver made speeches reiterating their views on the rate question and they were followed by more or less extended remarks by Messrs. Tillman, Patterson, Heyburn and Knox.

THE DOCTOR HABIT And How She Overcame It.

When well selected food has helped the honest physician place his patient in sturdy health and free from the "doctor habit" it is a source of satisfaction to all parties. A Chicago woman says: "I have not had a doctor in the house during all the 5 years we have been using Grape-Nuts food. Before we began, however, we had the "doctor habit" and scarcely a week went by without a call on our physician.

"When our youngest boy arrived, 3 years ago, I was very much run down and nervous, suffering from indigestion and almost continuous headaches. I was not able to attend to my ordinary domestic duties and was so nervous that I could scarcely control myself. Under advice I put to Grape-Nuts. "I am now, and have been ever since we began to use Grape-Nuts food, able to do all my own work. The dyspepsia, headache, nervousness and rheumatism which used to drive me fairly wild, have entirely disappeared. "My husband finds that in the night work in which he is engaged, Grape-Nuts food supplies him the most wholesome strengthening and satisfying lunch he ever took with him." Reply of Speaker Cannon.

Speaker Cannon received the delegation in the lobby of the house of representatives today. He had read the memorial and the speaker had read the memorial. Speaker Cannon made a speech in which he resented the charge of unfairness against the house committee on labor. "It is impossible for a committee not to have many men of many ideas in its make-up," said the speaker. "I select the members of the committee on its responsibility for a caucus to select them, as that would consume a whole session. In your annual meetings you doubtless find a great variety of opinion. If you don't have a lot of damns I miss my guess. No two men have the same ideas.
