CONFER WITH PRESIDENT

Attorney General Moody and Commissioner Garfield Talk Over Packers Decision.

QUESTION OF APPEAL IS NOT SETTLED

Bill Now Pending Before Congress May Give Opportunity to Have Ruling of Judge Humphrey Reviewed.

While Mr. Lodge was speaking the senate received announcement of the request for the house for the appointment of the conferees on the statehood bill, and Mr. Beveridge moved that the senate insist upon its amendments and appoint conferees to meet those of the house.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—President Roosevelt had an extended conference today with General Attorney Moody, Secretary Taft and James A. Garfield, commissioners of corporations, concerning the adverse decision rendered in Chicago yesterday by Judge Humphrey in the beef packers' case.

Mr. Spooner then addressed the senate on the rule bill, devoting himself especially to the legal questions involved in the controversy. He took especial exception to Mr. Bailey's proposition prohibiting circuit courts from suspending the orders of the Interstate Commerce commission.

The features of the debate were remarks by J. Adam Bede of Minnesota, during which he told of his approval of the president, particularly because he had given his daughter in marriage to a member of the house of representatives, and not to a degenerate prince, or to a representative of "that house of detention at the other end of the capital."

He made the point that where congress confer jurisdiction upon the courts in any given matter it confers complete jurisdiction according to both law and equity; the jurisdiction once conferred could not be limited. He declared that if congress could take away from the courts the authority to grant temporary injunctions it had power to deprive them of the right to issue permanent injunctions.

Mr. Duffell, as soon as the rule had been read, demanded the previous question, which, if ordered, carried with it forty minutes' debate, to be divided equally between the friends and opponents of the rule.

Mr. Spooner paid a high tribute to the supreme court, declaring that in the last ten years it had done more to assert the vital principles of the constitution and to sustain the rights of the people.

By a vote of 175 to 125 the house adopted the statehood rule and the speaker appointed Hamilton (Mich.), Brick (Ind.) and Moon (Tenn.) conferees.

RUNKEL'S COCOA

is food—rich, nutritious, muscle-building, blood-making. A baby can digest it. Just the powdered cocoa bean without the addition of sugar, flour or starch—which cost far less than pure cocoa beans and merely add bulk to the can, and profit to the maker. You can pay the same price but you can't get the same quality. One half-pound can will make 40 cups.
