ZIMMAN SEEMS TO BE SAFE | FUNERAL OF MRS. HAMILTON

President of Council Probably Will Serve Out Term as Mayor.

COUNCIL NOT LIKELY TO DISTURB HIM

Four Members Are for His Retention While Four Others Are Not Committed for His

Present indications are the council will not displace Harry B. Zimman from the office of the mayor, but will permit him o serve out the remainder of the term, which expires May 21. Although there are members in the council bostile toward Mayor Zimman, at least four councilmen esides himself are willing to have him omplote the term. These are Hoye, Brien, Comstock and Dyball. It is possible the others, Back, Huntington, Schroeder and Evans may be disposed to forget old animosities and let the matter rest, in view of the futility of electing anyone else to fill the place, but they have been noncommittal and give the assurance only that the mayoralty will not be tampered with at least until after the primaries.

The attitude of the councilmen friendly toward Mayor Zimman is known. Hoye and O'Brien have been his consistent supporters in the council. Comstock has but a brief session. The following resoannounced he does not favor electing anyone else to take the office, and Dyball which the board adjourned out of respect says he will not stand for anything of the to the late Mayor Moores, that the memkind. In the latter's opinion the time in- bers might attend the funeral:

volved is too short to make any action while.

Eyen should a councilmanic majority seek to oust Mayor Zimman it is not likely a could succeed. Lawyers have studied police Commissioners hereby express their the legal questions of the case and take a member who was always anxious and assue with the city legal department that a member who was always anxious and energetic in providing means for the conduct of the fire and police departments and not the mayor's office. They say they are satisfied they could carry their contention in court.

"Should a move be made to turn Mayor Zimman out, the chances are litigation would ensure, entailing restraining orders and procedure lasting beyond the end of the welfare of their members, and be it sympathy to his widow and orphans in their bereavement, and that these resolutions be spread upon the records and a copy thereof sent to the family of the decased.

The Creighton Medical college dismissed of procedure lasting beyond the end of the term," said a prominent attorney. "In its classes in regard for the mayor's hort, nothing would be gained, except death. perhaps a quantity of sympathy votes for Zimman's councilmanic candidacy."

Breen Gives His Opinion. City Attorney Breen was talking about the matter Monday morning: 'It is the generally accepted view," said he. "that the election by the council of mayor would mean the political suicide of the councilmen voting for it, because it would be regarded as an attack on Mayor Zimman by certain corporation interests. The move would smack of persecution, because the time that he will serve as chief executive of the city is so short. Of course, after the primaries the five councilmen conning for homination who have been on the opposite side of the fence from Zimman, may be defeated. They would have nothing to win or lose by turning Zimman out. I doubt, however, if any man in the body would stoop to revenging himself in this for the meetings have not proven altoway, I am told four councilmen are de- gether successful and the union may deopposed to taking any action, either before or after the primaries, and I have. That is a matter for future deenticipate this will be the view taken by cision, however. all the members.

The election of a man unused to the duties of the office would be the height of absurdity. He would not dare to sign his name to a paper without consulting someone to find out what he was doing. It reoutres considerable time to become familiar, with the affairs of the office. Mayor Zimoan knows them thoroughly and is in a position to serve as mayor, having a thorough understanding of his duties and city affairs generally.

The evening was spent with reminiscences of college life. Dr. Tombo can, a peremptory writ of mandamus spoke of present conditions and prospects of Columbia university, and, among other things, said.

the applications of saloon keepers for Herenses, whose notices are published in The Omaha Evening Bee.

The order fixes Monday, April 2 at 9:30 a. m. as the time for the hearing, which will be held in court room No. 7 in the Bee building. The commissioners are G. W. Masson, A. L. Berquist, T. J. Nolan, A. A. Nixon and W. B. Van Sant.

The application for the writ is the result of action taken by the South Omaha board at a meeting held March 12, when it took the unusual and, it is asserted, the unlawful course of practically announcing it would not consider applications for saloon licenses unless the legal notices were published in the Daily Democrat of South dormitories are each ten stories in height and will accommodate about 800 students there being 300 rooms in each. These have been furnished by the university in heavy oak, and the rent is quite reasonable. Bot dormitories will undoubtedly be filled in the next academic year. In addition the buildings just mentioned, work has begun on a half for Columbia college, the undergraduate densityent for men. This begun on a hall for Columbia college, the undergraduate department for men. This building will be known as Hamilton hall, being named in honor of Alexander Hamilton, one of the celebrated alumni of the college. It is to cost $500,000, which sum has been provided by an anonymous donor. While the male academic departments of almost all of the leading universities throughout the country have been losing ground in the number of students during the past few years. Columbia college has made rapid advances and the college is now larger than at any previous time in its history, the present enrollment being almost 600.

It is generally supposed that Columbia made rapid advances and the college is now larger than at any previous time in the slocumb law, whiten requires that ch notices shall be published in the newsper having the largest bona fide circuition in the county. The affidavit points out that the action of the board, if followed, will cause great loss not only to the relator, but to all of the applicants who do not follow the provisions of the Slocumb law by publishing their notices in the paper having the large est circulation in the county. The action of the board is declared to be unauthorized and in violation of their duttes and of the laws of the state of Nebraska as dispersions of the Slocumb law by publishing their notices in the paper having the large est circulation in excess of 5,000 actual and bona fide subscribers in the county.
