CSERS OF COAL ARE TROUBLED Laundries Have Only Week's Supply

on Hand. Heavy users of steam coal in Council Bluffs are on the anxious seat, and this is particularly true of the steam laundries. M. B. Graut, one of the proprietors of the Bluff City Steam laundry, stated yesterday they had only about a week's supply of coal on hand and the prospects for securng more were not of the brightest. Unless the situation is relieved soon, Mr. Grout said, he feared they would have to shut down. The Eagle and Evans laundries, it said, are no better off. Manager English of the Citizens Gas and Electric company said the company had a little coal on hand and a carload somewhere on the road. HUNTER'S DRESS GOODS DEPT.

The weather man is kept busy these days ringing on the changes. First thing we know he will spring the warm days and sunshine on us and then everybody will "get busy" all at once. Incidentally the ladies of the household will wish they had gotten their spring sewing done in advance when every other body was not wanting the same dressmaker at the same time they are. A good many are doing this very thing, too-getting their dresses made now when they have fime to plan and execute without undue rush. Why don't you do likewise!

HUNTER'S DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT

Offers You the Choice of the Latest and Most Popular Creations in Dress Fabrics.

Next Saturday we are going to have another concert by Covalt's fine orchestra, afternoon and evening. Those who heard this fine orchestra at Hunter's last Saturday were delighted with the music and it is certainly a relaxation from the usual way when you can mix business and pleasure together. It is one of the points which is making "Shopping at Hunter's" a pleasure. Tell all your friends about the Saturday concerts by Covalt's fine orchestra at the A. E. Hunter Company store. These concerts are absolutely free to the public and the pleasure of hearing the music is yours for the coming.
