The only way you could form any idea of the vast quantity of beautiful silks now being sold during this great cut price sale was to have watched the throng of customers who sought the Congressman Souris Would Amend the silk department during the last two days. Not alone the special prices, but of greatest importance is the snappy, beautiful quality of the silks.

The new grays in the different size check and dainty pin stripes are simply beautiful and right up to the minute in dress elegance. Other pretty shades of navy, brown, green, etc. We mention only a few, but hope to show more. At 29c small neat figures, navy and brown; at 39c, broken check in bright colors; regular 75c and 85c quality in a charming line of the new Queen's gray, at 49c and 59c, in the new soft chiffon finish. Now is the time to buy your silk and this is the place. Come Wednesday by all means.
