

MAN STABS WIFE; KILLS SELF

Charles Harris, colored, Oats Woman Twenty-one Times and Takes Poison WIFE CALMLY SITS AND SEES HIM DIE

While in a fit of jealousy Charles Harris, colored, of 1207 Cass street, inflicted twenty-one superficial stab wounds on the body of his wife, at Eighteenth and Leavenworth streets, Thursday morning; then went to Sixteenth and Chicago streets, drank a bottle of strychnine and died half an hour later in the surgeon's room at the city jail.

Harris is the man who tried to hang himself in a cell at the city jail two months ago. He was arrested at that time on complaint of his wife, who reported the man threatened her life.

The stabbing affray occurred at 8:15 a. m. in front of Kelly's laundry, 1709 Leavenworth street. Mrs. Harris was employed as a domestic with Mrs. Mollie Harris, 1709 1/2 Leavenworth street, shortly after she left her husband a week ago.

Man Surrenders to Police. The police patrol with Detectives Mitchell, Davis, Maloney, Donohoe and Officer Woodruff made a hurry call to the scene.

Large Pocket Knife Weapon. The stabbing was done with a large pocket knife. When searched Harris had the largest razor in the city jail.
