HEROINES OF SIEGE

Two Missionaries Who Suffered at Peking Come Together in Omaha.

FIRST REUNION SINCE THAT PERIOD

Just as Mrs. F. D. Gamewell left the rostram upon the close of her address at the missionary conference at the First Methodist Episcopal church Thursday morning a woman stepped forward and embraced her. It was Mrs. Bainbridge of Council Bluffs, who was with Mrs. Gamewell during the siege of Peking, China, and suffered with her all the privations and anxieties of that trying period. This was the first meeting of the two women since those momentous days and was joyoun to both.

Bishop McDowell presided at the morning session. Thursday afternoon Dr. F. D. Gamewell presided. The addresses of the afternoon were by S. Earl Taylor, Dr. J. B. Trimble and Bishop W. F. McDowell.

LIVINGSTONE AS A GOOD EXAMPLE Bishop McDowell Draws a Lesson from His Uneful Life.

The concluding session of the conference was held last evening with a program, the chief part of which was a biographical sketch by Bishop W. F. When they are described, in addresses or even in print, nuch imagination is needed for appreciation, whereas, if the thing is actually seen, it becomes of vital interest. outdoor practice the latter part of last week, and, asthough the diamond has been pretty muddy ever since, the men have managed to locate a few dry spots on the campus where they could limber up their arms and judge a few skyscrapers. The outlook for a successful season is bright, as a majority of last year's men have returned to codege this year. Several promising new men have appeared.

Royal Johnson, a catcher of experience and more than ordinary ability, is this year's captain of the base hall squad. He has a wealth of material for the pitching staff, including Sawyer, Orr, Williams and Pflaum, the latter a new man at the university. The first base position is in doubt, though it would not be if it were known for a certainty that O'Neili would be in the game. Hupp, second base, Good, shortstop, Cooper, third base, and Fickey, centerfield, are permanent fatures, while lifsiey. Track prospects are unusually good this year. For the sprints there are Stoiand, Fowler, a fast man from the Black Hills, and Bromley, the speedy foot ball player. Meyers, Gunderson, Brockman, Turney, Woodwort, Kielbaugh and Collins are all good middle and long distance men. Meyers will take care of the hurdles, and there is a string of men who will look after seconds in these events. In the high jump are Meyers, Fowler and Hupp, all capable of negotiating 5-7. Hupp is good for more than Il feet in the broad jump. Goodner, a new man from Pierre, is very proficient at pole vaulting. All the high men in the university are trying for the weight events. IOWA CITY, Ia., April 5.—(Special.)—The athletic management of the State University of Iowa has announced the schedule for the baseball team following immediately after the opening of active work on the athletic field. The Hawkeyes will play nineteen games, twelve of them being at Iowa City, the rest at different places in the state. The longest trip will be to Minneapolis, where they will meet the University of Minnesota in one game. On that same trip the team will meet upper Iowa University or Luther College. Minnesota will be the only conference team the men will meet. The season opens here with a series of preliminary games with the Davenport leaguers. Beginning on April 17 they will play one game every day for the balance of the week. From that time on the college season will open in the state, the team meeting from three to four rival teams each week. state, the team meeting from three to four rival teams each week.

The schedule is not as heavy as it would have been had the old squad kept out of brush league ball hast summer. At the close of the last college season, when Iowa had by far the strongest bunch of players it had had in several years, plans were made for at least two castern trips for the team this spring going as far as Ann made for at least two eastern trips for the team this spring, going as far as Ann Arbor and swinging back up through Wisconsin. But when it was known this winter that the men would be ineligible for the university team, all plans for an extended schedule were promptly dropped and only about half of the number of games proposed were arranged for. The completed schedule is as follows:

April 17-21—Davenport at Iowa City.
April 26-28—Minnesota trip.
May 5—Normal at Cedar Falls.
May 18—Cornell at Iowa City.
May 28—Ames at Iowa City.

May 39—Ames at Iowa City.
June 3—Grinnell at Grinnell.

Sporting Brevities. Runkle is making a hit with the fans, as well as hitting the ball. He batted 1,000 in the Fort Crook game.

Perrine and Wamble are fighting for the third base position and Pa is giving each an equal break, playing one and then the Stone is starting out well and may have his eye right with him again this season. At any rate he made four hits in a recent exhibition game.

Dolan's injury did not keep him out of the game long and he is taking up his new position as if he liked it. Dolan also seems to have his batting eye this year.

Omaha can have the pictures of a real automobile race if not the race itself. Moving pictures of the Vanderbilt race are being given at the Auditorium this week. Caruthers is a vast improvement on the general run of umpires generally at the opening of the season for the exhibition games, or any other time for that matter. And this is the conviction of every unblased man on the circuit. But because Bobby won't stand for Mike Cantillon's to fight it out for the vacant positions.

After waiting for many moons after some of the other schedules were out, O'Neill inally has given out his schedule for the coming year. From a rough view, Omaha fans have no cause to complain of the treatment they will receive in the way of games here. Because the good people of Lincoln will not permit Sunday ball. Omaha will have four extra Sunday games, which will suit most of the fans. The teams have to travel a trifle farther under the present schedule, when Lincoln is paired with Omaha instead of Des Moines, but Omaha gets more halidays and Sundays.

With a scathing lecture on the sariefty of marriage relation, Judge Troup yester day afternoon dismissed the divorce sug of Amelia Ranney against Alvirous Ragney and directed that each party pay its wn costs.

Judge Troup declared the evidence showed both had sinned before and after marriage and the sins of each had been condoned by the other. Under such cirumstances he thought the parties should mave no standing in court. He declared he was tempted to dismiss the petition before the evidence was half in, but was restrained from so doing because he wanted bear all of the case.

Mrs. Ranney charged her husband with being an habitual drunkard and with abusing her. He in turn declared she had conducted an unsavory resort before their narriage and had sold him liquor and knew his habits perfectly well. He says he was drunk when he married her and that she had a husband living at the time, from whom she had not secured a divorce.
