CORPORATIONS ON THE RACK

Certain Public Service Concerns May Be Investigated by Grand Jury.

CHARGES OF ELECTION FRAUDS MADE

Matter Has Been Placed in Hands of County Attorney by Parties Who Are Back of Move.

The May grand jury of Douglas county is to be asked to investigate charges that certain public service corporations spent thousands of dollars in attempting to manipulate the nominations at the recent party primaries. Certain public officers, who do not want their names used at this time. claim to have a considerable amount of evidence already in hand. They say their object is to strike at the corporations rather than at the candidates who accepted financial support and to teach the former a lesson that they can no longer meddle with Omaha politics.

Under section 35 of the charter any franchised corporation convicted of spending money to elect or defeat candidates through its officials or agents, directly or indirectly. in subject to the forfeiture of its franchise. The fines provided for both candidates and corporation officials and agents cannot be in excess of $500, and it is the franchise matter that is the most important.

Spring Styles in New Clothes for Boys

Our clothing department, devoted to the task of dressing boys in style, is ready to prepare the boys for Easter with the newest spring modes that have been brought out. We would be much pleased to have the person who puts up the money for the boy's clothes to come along with the boys and inspect the newest ideas. We have made it a point to have our clothes for boys built young. This thing of putting models for old frames on young folks is ridiculous-the boy will grow old fast enough without pushing him along. That, next to our low prices, is the secret of our big business in boys' clothes.
