It's a Dead Cinch

You can't buy as good meats as we sell at any other market in Omaha. Would-be competitors claim they have, but they are not in it with our meats. Quality in what counts with us.

The reason of this is we buy in such large quantities—and only the very choicest native steers—which gives us an advantage as to quality and price. If you've never traded with us, better give us a trial order.

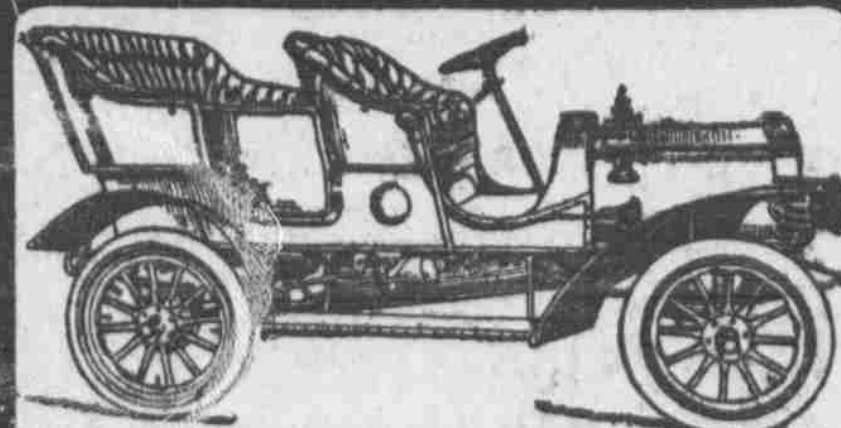

See our window display of choice spring lambs for Easter trade.
