Mount Vesuvius Booming More Deadly as the Days Go By.

NO TRACE OF BOSCO TRECOSE REMAINS

Forty-Eight Hours Ago It Was the Home of Ten Thousand People.

Completely Surrounded by Streams of Lava from the Mountain.

TERROR OF THE PEOPLE IS PITIABLE

Work of Rescue is Hampered by Showers of Ashes and Red Hot Stones Which Fall on the Railway Tracks.

NAPLES, April 8.—The hope that Mount Vesuvius was becoming calm was disappointed today when the volcano became more active than ever.

The panic has spread to Naples. Two strong earthquake shocks, which shattered windows and cracked the walls of buildings, were experienced today. The entire population rushed to the streets in terror, many persons crying "The madonna has awoken us; the end of the world has come."

No trace remains of Bosco Trecese, a commune on the southern declivity of the mountain, where up to forty-eight hours ago ten thousand persons lived; and Torre Annunziata, on the shores of the gulf of Naples, where the lava is approaching rapidly and has been evacuated by its thirty thousand inhabitants.

A telegram received from the mayor of San Sebastiano, a village near the observatory on the northwest declivity of Vesuvius, says the lava is approaching rapidly and that the people are terror stricken. They have been for nights, he says, without sleep, are destitute and beg that assistance be given them.
