fure, everybody rejoices, excepting the bill-The war on the offensive biliboards started several months ago. By a mysteriously concerted impulse a cyclone of home owners' wrath blew up on a given night and on the following morning there wasn't a biliboard in the path of that cy-the happening. The midnight cyclone aroused the city council. An ordinance was passed con-two feet above the surface of the ground.

"All billboards shall be so constructed as to leave a clear space of at least eighteen three feet distant from any wall or fence or other obstruction which would prevent
