

ACCEPT NORMAL BUILDING

Action Taken After a Stormy Meeting of the State Board.

DEDUCTION MADE FROM CONTRACT PRICE

City Council Considers Ordinances Reducing Street Railway Fares and in Other Ways Gets After Company.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 9.—(Special Telegram.)—After a tumultuous meeting lasting until midnight the State Normal board accepted the Kearney Normal school after first deducting $500 from the last payment of $5,000 due the contractors, Knutson & Isdel.

Architect Berlinghoff reported to the board that the building had not come up to the specifications in that the color of the stone was not uniform and some of the blocks were not in line with the majority of the blocks. After a long debate in which Mortensen and McBrien were not in favor of accepting the building and Gregg leading the debate to accept it, Mortensen finally moved the compromise of holding out $500 from the contractors. Berlinghoff reported the contractors had done their work all right and the blame should be placed on the Kearney company which manufactured the stone.

Ludden, Mortensen, McBrien, Majors and Gregg attended the meeting.

Trouble for Street Railway.

The city council tonight went after the Lincoln Traction company in approved style and every ordinance introduced was a poke at the company. One seeks to take from the company its right to do business, heat and lighting; others were as follows: Keep the tracks clean, refusing permission to tear up Nineteenth street to lay tracks, to make President Scudder put down a walk around a lot he recently bought, repair tracks all over the city, sell six tickets for 25 cents, thirteen for 50 cents and twenty-six for $1; furnish comfortable cars and more of them; all corporations to be taxed $1 each for every pole owned in the city and the poles must be of iron.

Santa Fe Statement Short.

The Santa Fe railroad, which cuts into Nebraska at Superior for a distance of about two miles, filed a report of its property with the secretary of the State Board of Assessment this morning.

The report shows the road owns two box cars, valued at $250; one furniture car, valued at $150, and one coal car, valued at $115, and that these constitute its property in Nebraska. The road makes no report of its earnings in this state, but gives the following as the financial statement of its system:

Gross earnings	$45,633,996.03
Operating expenses	40,000,594.29
Dividends declared	2,788,919.09

The Santa Fe system has a capital stock of $200,000,000, of which $23,496,000 is paid up. The market value February 28 was: Common stock, 88% of par; and preferred 100%. The total indebtedness of the system is $394,824,000.

Examiners Want More Money.

In his report of the condition of the state banks for the year ending November 3, 1905, copies of which have been received from the printers, Secretary Royce of the State Banking board recommends to the legislature that more money be allowed the examiners for traveling expenses, as without passes the sum now appropriated is not sufficient. Mr. Royce also recommends that banks be required to pay a fee for more than one examination during the year, which is now the law.

Tax Case Tuesday.

Unless the Burlington again asks for a continuance the taking of testimony in the railroad tax injunction suit will begin Tuesday afternoon in the senate chamber or the supreme court room. The hearing has been put off on three different occasions, but this time Attorney General Brown said it looked like a go.

The attorney general will place on the witness stand upon the members of the State Board of Assessment for the year 1905 and an expert. He will use this testimony, together with the opinion written by Judge Munger, to make up his case. It is not known how many witnesses the railroads will put on the stand.

Just when the taking of evidence in the grain cases will start is not known now, because Senator Pemberton, the referee, will not return from Kansas until this evening, and until he gets back and is consulted no date will be set for the hearing.

Denison Succeeds Sutton.

Judge Sutton of Omaha, who was appointed by Governor Mickey to be one of the delegates to the National Charity conference to be held in Philadelphia, has notified the governor he will be unable to attend. In his place he recommended that E. F. Denison be appointed. Governor Mickey acted upon the recommendation and Mr. Denison will receive his commission shortly. He is superintendent of the boys' department of the Young Men's Christian association at Omaha.

Sheriffs Dislike Rules.

The sheriffs out in the state are objecting seriously to the ruling of the attorney general that receipts must accompany vouchers filed for railroad fare. One sheriff wrote in that he would take what he could get, as he was at the mercy of the auditor. He said in his letter he had agreed to serve summons for the railroad company to return for transportation and therefore, he thought, he earned all the transportation he received. Last year he said he had served summons, which, if paid for, would have netted him $7 of the railroads.

money. He made no record of the fees because he had the annual. His office, he said, only paid about $60 a year. When it was discovered that the sheriffs in various parts of the state had such a contract with the various railroads the governor asked for a ruling on the question and attorneys general ruled the receipts must be filed with the voucher. The governor found out about the agreement when one sheriff sent in a voucher to which was attached his contract with a railroad company.

Prisoners Sent to Asylum.

John Schmitt, sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty-five years from Otero county for murder committed in 1895; Joseph Streeter, sentenced for burglary committed in Dodge county almost a year ago; and Charles B. Smith, sentenced for life for murder committed in Nebraska county in 1905, have all been transferred to the asylum at Lincoln. The men were examined by the prison medical board today and pronounced insane.

Contract for Temple Let.

The contract for the university temple was let this afternoon to Louis Jensen for $55,000. The original amount raised for the purpose of erecting this building was $100,000, but the remainder of the money will be used to pay for the lots and the wiring and incidentals connected with the structure. John D. Rockefeller gave two-thirds of the amount necessary for the construction of the building.

Dry Time in Lincoln.

All saloons in Lincoln will be closed tomorrow morning pending action on application for licenses by the excise board. The licenses will be issued as rapidly as possible, but there will be a few short hours during which Lincoln will be dry.

Mail Carrier Commits Suicide.

WEST POINT, Neb., April 9.—(Special.)—Alfred Geist, a well known citizen, aged 40 years, committed suicide early this morning by hanging himself to the rafters of his barn, where he was found by his children upon their arising this morning. The deceased was a rural mail carrier and was the father of eight children. He had been acting in a very despondent manner for some time past, but no fears were entertained of self-destruction. His domestic affairs have been rather unpleasant for some time past, his wife having secured a divorce from him a year ago. Verdict of Accidental Death.

FREMONT, Neb., April 9.—(Special.)—Coroner Overgaard held an inquest this morning on the body of W. C. Cook, the young man who shot himself Saturday evening at the back of his store on Main street. The jury after a short deliberation, brought in a verdict of accidental death. The evidence disclosed that Mr. Cook was in the habit of going hunting quite frequently and was very careless with firearms. The gun which he borrowed of Matheson and which has been in possession of Sheriff Bauman since the shooting, was before the jury and it was discovered that the safety did not work right and that consequently it could be easily discharged. He was 27 years of age. His body will be taken to Blair, his former home, for burial.

Consumption is a Germ Disease. How Can It Start with a Cold?

This is a reasonable question and one that must arise to the mind of almost everyone when the claim is made that consumption starts with a cold. The cold simply prepares the system for the reception and development of germs of that disease, that would not otherwise have found lodgment. It is the same with diphtheria, scarlet fever and measles. They are most likely to be contracted when the child has a cold. That is why a cold should never be neglected. The longer it hangs on the greater the danger. As a quick cure for colds Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be relied upon. Its remarkable cures have won for it a world wide reputation and an immense sale. It is pleasant and safe to take.

Certificates to Committee.

Documents piled up on the desk like leaves under an oak tree in the fall and the only tangible thing accomplished during the day was the certification to the election of the new city committeemen in order that that body might be called together and organize for the campaign. This was done late in the day.

The only real contest projected was that between Elbourn and Greenleaf for the republican nomination for city clerk. The returns show Greenleaf, the Fontanelle candidate, 137 votes to the good. Despite Elbourn's protest he would not start a contest, this is precisely what happened. Saturday afternoon he said he heard a number of reports that votes cast for him had not been counted in for him in certain precincts in the First, Second and Tenth wards. Early Monday morning W. E. Stockham, who was the low man in the three-cornered clerkship contest, filed an affidavit, declaring his belief there was error in the counting of the ballots for the clerkship and demanding a recount on the strength of this declaration in the language of the Dodge primary law which provides that in case of a tie vote or the filing of an affidavit by an interested candidate demanding a recount and expressing a belief of fraud or error, the ballots shall be checked up and the result declared final.

Broetch Wants to Settle Bets.

W. J. Broetch, who ran third in the republican majority contest according to the official figures, Monday afternoon filed a demand for a recount of the ballots cast on the office of mayor, alleging error in the returns.

It was stated for Mr. Broetch that he had no idea of precipitating a contest on the result, but desired to have the recount made for his own satisfaction and to benefit persons who bet large sums of money as to whether he would be

CANVASS BOARD CENTER OF EXCITEMENT

In Midst of Tarnish Pink Settlements—Committee Meeting Getting Certificates, Only Tangible Result of Day.

The official canvassing board of the city primary returns was a storm center all day yesterday and quite late in the afternoon without completing the canvass and with a bright outlook for more trouble today.

Affidavits demanding recounts of the votes on the office of mayor and city clerk were filed by W. J. Broetch, W. E. Elbourn and W. E. Stockham. Protests to doing anything of the kind came from all quarters and in the midst of the turmoil the question was raised whether A. H. Hennings had any right to be a member of the board as city treasurer.

Elbourn filed for himself. After a prolonged conference with his attorney, T. J. Mahoney, Elbourn filed an affidavit of his own at 3 o'clock, when the board on the ground that he was not city treasurer, and another against Elbourn acting on the board because he was an interested party. Broetch also filed an objection to Hennings on the same theory raised by Stockham, and the opinion of the city attorney was asked for and received, causing the change in the personnel of the board.

Must Specify Error.

Mayor Zimman, as chairman of the board, took the position that the affidavits must specify where error or fraud had been committed in order that the board recount the votes in the precincts mentioned and not cover the entire fifty-four precincts in the city. City Attorney Green said he thought third or second in the race. Most of the bets were three to one that Broetch would be better than third and a great deal of the money has been made. Charles E. Panning, who got the biggest lump, $1,500 from Billy Nesselthous, has received his money.

Then Greenleaf filed an objection to recounting the ballots, holding that the affidavit of Stockham did not contain sufficient grounds for complying with the demand in that it did not claim fraud or state facts to warrant its sufficiency; also charging that it was not in good faith and that Elbourn was the only candidate who could profit possibly by the deal. Later he filed other objections, one of them objecting to Hennings as a member of the board on the ground that he was not city treasurer, and another against Elbourn acting on the board because he was an interested party. the law could not be interpreted that way and that the affidavits were sufficient, and was warmly backed up by Attorney Mahoney. The matter asked if the board could summon witnesses and take testimony under oath and the city attorney replied he thought not. His honor and the city clerk exchanged a quantity of wit across the table and the board adjourned to give Mr. Green time to figure out his opinions.

"I have received some very queer-looking reports from election officers and watchers in the south end of town. These are to the effect that votes for me were not counted that way, but were thrown to Greenleaf. Reports not precisely to that nature, but of a similar character have come to me from several precincts. I have been told by certain election officers they did all they could for me, but couldn't help it."

Heard of Threats.

"I had heard threats made before the primaries that if I could not be beaten one of a couple of other characters here come to me from several precincts. I have been told by certain election officers they did all they could for me, but couldn't help it."

Rumors that other contests would be started have been heard, but have not materialized.

In the case of Junge and Vail, socialist councilman candidate in the Fourth ward, who are tied with forty-six votes apiece, nothing has been heard from either. The law provides that in case of tie the canvassing board shall count the ballots and if a tie still remains shall decide by lot. The members of the board will summon Junge and Vail and hope they will voluntarily nip a coin and decide in that way. While they do not have to do the clerical work themselves, the recount must be made in their presence.

WESTBERG SPENDS BIGGEST SUM

Personal Candidate Heads List, While Two Democrats Lead Free.

It may be the irony of fate, but that doesn't alter the fact that John Westberg, the perennial candidate for city controller, paid more money to make the primary race than any other candidate on any ticket and got best, while W. C. Norris and M. F. Funkhouser, democratic candidates for the council from the Third and Eleventh wards respectively, had no campaign expenses and got nominated.

The biggest account turned in up to date is that of John N. Westberg, defeated republican candidate for controller, who confesses to spending $173, 890 of which went to the Fontanelle club as "assessment." Pete Loch, who lost out in the council race in the Sixth, says he had $9,000 campaign cards printed. Charles J. Karbach, a councilman loser in the Tenth, remarks that he has charged his $27.50 expenses to the "educational fund," as he considers the $27,000 worth of experience and education out of the affair.

W. H. Hoffman, the "Third ward spouter," declares it cost him $157 to spout as he thought he ought to do. Part of it went for hall rent, part for printing and ward-workers and the remainder for lively bills and signs. T. H. Dailley, a defeated democratic candidate, inserts an item of $10 for "assistance."

George Wells, socialist candidate for the council in the Seventh ward, said:

"I paid nothing at all as nomination expenses. In other words I was beautifully beaten. I had lots of fun and it didn't cost a cent, for all of which I am duly thankful."

He said he was waiting for a young woman near Twenty-sixth and Harney streets when arrested.

FACTS IN NATURE.

Not Only Do We Get Inspiration From Nature, But Health as Well.

For people who are run-down and nervous, who suffer from indigestion or dyspepsia, headache, biliousness, or torpid liver, coated tongue with bitter taste in the morning and poor appetite, it becomes necessary to turn to some tonic or strengthening which will assist Nature and help her to do her work. Nature's most valuable health-giving agents are to be found in forest plants and roots.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. R. V. Pierce, now consulting physician to the Invalids Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., discovered that by scientifically extracting and combining certain medicinal principles from native roots, taken from our American forests, he could produce a medicine which was marvelously efficient in curing cases of bilious disorder and liver and stomach trouble as well as many other chronic, or lingering ailments. This concentrated extract of Nature's vitality he named "Golden Medical Discovery." It purifies the blood by putting the stomach and liver into normal condition, thereby helping the digestion and assimilation of food which feeds the blood. Thereby it cures weak stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, or biliousness, and kindred derangements.
