May Contest Nebraska's Will. IOWA CITY, Ia., April 12.—(Special.)—The Iowa legislature has passed a law leaving it to the executive council to decide on the franchise. A bill was introduced giving it to the Port Dodge, and the officials of the Newton & Northwestern learned of it and on the sly got the bill amended by substituting the name of the Newton & Northwestern. The change was discovered in the house, which amended further by leaving it to the executive council and the council will insist on knowing which will give the best service. The stub line running from Ames to the college is now operated by steam and live college people insist that the motive power should be electricity because the smoke bothers, and further that there should be a fifteen-minute service to Ames and a one-hour service to Des Moines over the new interurban.

Appeal for Suffering Italians. The following telegram requesting the citizens of Council Bluffs to contribute to a fund for the relief of the people in Italy who have suffered from the eruption of Mount Vesuvius was received yesterday by Mayor Macrae: "In behalf of the Italian people in southern Italy, I appeal to you and the people of your city for contributions. Hundreds, perhaps thousands of them have been and are being overwhelmed by the eruption of Vesuvius. Many of them are children, poor peasants. Many Americans who have witnessed the eruption of Vesuvius are anxious to co-operate with us. Contributions from the Italian relief committee below are not so many. They are in need of your aid. Signed by William Randolph Hearst, chairman; John Palmeri, John Lordi, Angelo Legniti, Charles Bacchioppe, Felice Tocci, Augustus Barbato, Joseph Franco, Mayor Macrae." The committee to take charge of the matter would probably do so today.

No Anti-Sunday Amusement Bill. In answer to a number of inquiries as to whether the state legislature at its recent session had passed any bill prohibiting Sunday amusements of any character, Ben Johnson, a collection student, had his nose broken by a wild ball and was taken to a physician's office for repairs.

Investigating Land Frauds. Over Hundred Witnesses to Be Heard by Federal Grand Jury in South Dakota. A federal jury which heard the case of H. M. Jordan of Danburg, Ia., against Miss Louise M. Monte, heiress and survivor of the late Father William Kroeger, the celebrated priest healer of Epiphany, N. D., was today discharged by Judge Carland without having agreed upon a verdict. The jury was out all night and reported that it could not agree. Jordau sought to recover the sum of $10,000 for services alleged to have been rendered by Father Kroeger.

Ballrooms in Quarrel. The Newton & Northwestern and the Des Moines, Port Dodge & Southern railroads are in a quarrel as to which will get the right-of-way through the Ames road, especially existing in the surgeons is causing him some difficulty and it is believed the present army surgeons have been isolated out of office because of the provisions of the new law. Under the old law the surgeons are appointed by the governor subject to the senate and are to be appointed by the regimental commanders. Inasmuch as the number of surgeons is entirely different, General Thrift believes the present surgeons are out and that new ones must be appointed by the regimental commanders to take their places. Other officers of the guard are in the same position.

Geologists Reunite. Because of his interest in geology since in West Virginia, which take all his time and attention, State Geologist Frank A. Wilder of the state university, has resigned his position and Prof. Samuel Calvin of the State university, who was formerly state geologist, has been appointed to the position. Assistant Geologist E. E. Savage, who has had active charge of the office, has also resigned and James B. Lees of Chicago has been appointed to the position.

DUNHAM DECLINES TO SERVE. Other Members of Insurance Committee at Des Moines Ready for Work.

HOLINESS COLLEGE CONTRACT IS LET. Interurban Roads Fighting for Privilege of Building Line into the College Grounds at Ames—One Fare for Soldiers.

From a Staff Correspondent. DES MOINES, April 12.—(Special.)—When Senator Jamison and Representatives Kendall, Jones and Clary met here today to begin the work of the insurance investigation commission they discovered that Senator Dunham, one of the members, had handed his resignation to Lieutenant Governor Herriott and would not serve. Governor Herriott today over the long distance telephone confirmed the statement that Dunham had resigned, but stated that he was in hopes of persuading him to reconsider his resignation and retain as a possible candidate for attorney general, and it is known that he has a large law practice that demands his attention. Notwithstanding the absence of Senator Dunham, the other four members of the commission met today in the private office of the state auditor to plan the preliminaries for the insurance investigation. It is taken for granted that Lieutenant Governor Herriott will appoint another senator to the commission at once and that the work can be taken up promptly. The four members will likely adjourn for a few days till another appointment can be made.

Preference Case Again. The soldiers' preference case from Marshalltown will be carried to the supreme court again. Shaw, an old soldier, who formerly filed his case with the city clerk at Marshalltown, asked for election at the hands of the city council and was refused. The case was carried to the supreme court and a ruling had upholding the constitutionality of the law and holding that Shaw had a right of mandamus to force the city clerk to issue him the certificate. The council then held a meeting and yesterday, after examining the candidates, decided that Shaw was unfit for the position and gave it to the present incumbent, Derby. Shaw will now take it to the courts on the merits of his case, which will shed new light on the interpretation of the law.

Independent Commission Firms. The executive committee of the Iowa Corn Belt Meat Producers' association met in this city today to consider the matter of the increase in commission rates charged by commission firms over the country, and delegates left tonight for a meeting at Denver, where this question will be taken up. The notice of the increased rates was given some months ago and is now in general force in many cities to which live stock is shipped. It is being proposed by the Iowa meat producers that an independent commission firm be organized in the various centers.

Secures Short Respite. Governor Cummins has issued an order changing the time of the execution of Joseph Smith at the Fort Madison penitentiary from 6 o'clock on the morning of April 29 to 12 o'clock noon of the same day. No reason was given for the change. Smith is a stolid. Only after the utmost persuasion was he induced to appeal his case to the supreme court. He took the position that he preferred death to life imprisonment. He still maintains an indifferent position.

Medical Board Nominated. PIERRE, S. D., April 12.—(Special Telegram.)—The United States grand jury met today in the private office of the state auditor, has now taken up the numerous land fraud cases which are pending. Several sessions are promised to result. Between 100 and 200 witnesses will testify in the cases.

A federal jury which heard the case of H. M. Jordan of Danburg, Ia., against Miss Louise M. Monte, heiress and survivor of the late Father William Kroeger, the celebrated priest healer of Epiphany, N. D., was today discharged by Judge Carland without having agreed upon a verdict. The jury was out all night and reported that it could not agree. Jordau sought to recover the sum of $10,000 for services alleged to have been rendered by Father Kroeger.

W. E. Hammond, an attorney of St. James, Minn., was today admitted to practice before the United States court for South Dakota. He will defend five Minnesota men who are under indictment in the federal court here on the charge of carrying on a gambling business. Hammond is making final proofs on government land in western South Dakota.

Within an hour today twenty-three defendants were arraigned before Judge Carland on indictments charging them with offenses ranging from taking intoxicating liquors from Indian reservations to post office robbery. In all but two of the cases pleas of not guilty were entered.
