

JOHN DEERE COMPANY PLANS

Visit of President to Omaha Starts Talk of New Building.
SITE AT EIGHTH AND LEAVENWORTH

Purchase of Property by Attorney for Company Indicates to Real Estate Men the Prospects of Big Warehouse.

Charles Deere, president of the John Deere Plow company of Moline, Ill., was in the city the first of the week and, in company with George N. Peck, local manager for the company, inspected property at the southwest corner of Eighth and Leavenworth streets.

This is taken by Omaha implement jobbers as an indication that the Deere company is the real purchaser of the property bought about a month ago in the name of Francis A. Brogan, and as a further indication that the company intends to build there, March 17 Mr. Brogan bought two lots at the southwest corner of Eighth and Leavenworth streets. He said he represented eastern men, who would build a warehouse. Mr. Brogan is attorney for the John Deere Plow company.

Manager Peck went to Moline with Mr. Deere and has not returned. He is expected back Monday.

Mr. Brogan when asked about the matter Saturday morning declined to say who were the purchasers of the property. He would not talk about the proposed building.

New Warehouse Waiting.
A five-story warehouse at Eighth and John streets has just been completed by John A. Creighton for the John Deere company. In spite of this increased floor space it was stated by Mr. Peck several months ago that the new building would be inadequate and it is thought by the implement men that the concern is contemplating the erection of a warehouse on the property bought by Mr. Brogan. In order to keep ahead of the Parlin, Orendorff & Martin company it is necessary for the Deere people to build. The main warehouse and office on the Tenth street viaduct is five stories and basement, sixty-four feet wide at one end and thirty-six feet at the other. The Parlin, Orendorff & Martin's new building will consist of eight stories and will be ninety-six feet wide at the west end and forty-eight at the east end.

KINKAID LABORS FOR KEARNEY

Seeks to Secure Appropriation for Site and Federal Building at that City.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
WASHINGTON, April 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Kinkaid was granted a hearing today before the committee on public buildings upon his bill providing an appropriation of $125,000 for the purchase of a site and erection of a public building at Kearney, Neb. Judge Kinkaid showed the growth of Kearney and the necessity for enlarged quarters for the post office in order to accommodate the ever-increasing business of this thriving Nebraska city. After the hearing Judge Kinkaid expressed himself as confident that at least an appropriation for a site would be included in the omnibus public building measure now being drawn.

"It is difficult," remarked Judge Kinkaid, "to get an appropriation for a site and building in one session of congress. The house committee's position to regard to public buildings, at least this year, will be to ignore bills passed by the senate and graft upon the omnibus bill their own conclusions. As to Kearney, Senator Millard has secured the passage of the senate of a bill appropriating $10,000 for a site and building. Judge Kinkaid expects to secure an appropriation for a site at Kearney and at the next session get money for the actual construction of the new postoffice.

George D. DeLong, of Havlock, Neb., through the efforts of Senator Burkett, has been granted a pension of $4 per month from October 12, 1904. DeLong is a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

J. A. Huston, South Auburn, Neb., was today granted a pension of $5 per month. Judge Norris was today notified by the pension bureau of the issuance of a pension to Morgan Austin, Oxford, Neb., at $12 per month; also that the accrued pension due the husband of Mrs. Cecelia Cox of Red Cloud had been allowed.

HEARST FILES NEW CONTEST

Municipal Ownership Candidate Seeks to Oust Mayor McClellan by Quo Warranto.

NEW YORK, April 14.—William R. Hearst, latest candidate for mayor on the municipal ownership ticket, today made his point through his attorney the fact that he had made application to Attorney General Mayer for the institution of quo warranto proceedings in the name of the people of the state of New York against George H. McClellan to test the title of Mr. McClellan to the office of mayor of New York City.

In support of the application Mr. Hearst says: "Said McClellan is a usurper of said office and not entitled to exercise its functions. The votes for said office were not truly counted as cast, were illegally canvassed and falsely returned by the inspectors of election. Intimidation at the polling places during the voting hours and during the count prevented a free expression of the will of the voters and true representation of the people was not made. The same men were permitted to vote more than once. The votes of men who were not registered were received. Men were permitted to vote upon other men's names. Votes were purchased and sold. All of these frauds were practiced, as the applicant verily believes, in violation of the constitution of said George H. McClellan and solely by means thereof was a plurality in his favor created upon the face of the returns.

In conclusion Mr. Hearst in his application says: "The reason why this application has not been sooner made is that the applicant has been endeavoring to procure a recount of votes by other means and more expeditious means ever since the election was held.

In conclusion Mr. Hearst in his application says: "The reason why this application has not been sooner made is that the applicant has been endeavoring to procure a recount of votes by other means and more expeditious means ever since the election was held.

In conclusion Mr. Hearst in his application says: "The reason why this application has not been sooner made is that the applicant has been endeavoring to procure a recount of votes by other means and more expeditious means ever since the election was held.

AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Protests Filed with Police Board Against Granting Number of Saloon Licenses.

NOTICES NOT PROPERLY ADVERTISED

Evening Bee Determined to Protect Its Rights and the Rights of Its Patrons—O'Neil Files Deed to City Hall Site.

Protests were filed with the Board of Fire and Police commissioners yesterday noon against the granting of liquor licenses, the notices of which have not yet come to trial. The Evening Bee, the paper having the largest circulation in Douglas county, the licenses protested are those which have been advertised in the World-Herald and the South Omaha Daily Democrat. Investigation has not yet come to trial. The case was to have been tried Friday morning, but the defendants secured a continuance until Monday on the ground that their counsel had not been able to prepare for the case, being absent from the city.

With regard to the injunction issued against the Rock Island road, there has been no material change. The case is to be tried Tuesday. It is said an attempt is being made by interested parties to reach an agreement without resort to litigation.

Bank Gets New Safe.
The Farmers' National bank received a new safe yesterday and the same was placed in position. It is one of the most modern coin safes, being supposed to be proof against all assaults. The old safe was removed to accommodate the new one.

Appointments Not Decided On.
Regarding the statements made public lately respecting the appointments for the city positions, Thomas Hester stated last night that there was no ground for any of them. He said the names to which so much positiveness attached had been mentioned by him in private conversation, but none of them had been finally selected. Their mention had merely been tentative as under consideration until it is known whether the city council will agree with the chief executive. As yet the council has not been consulted as a body nor individually. The matter of appointments will be part of the order of business at Monday night's council meeting.

Easter Services.
The Christian church will celebrate Easter service at the Ancient Order of United
