Two Champions Meet.

The record game of the season was played Sunday at Witchita, between the Plitsburg, 3 (Kan.) team, pennant winners of the Missouri Valley league, and Wichita, pennant winners of the Western association. Two state records for Kansas also were broken. One was the local record for extra innings, the contest running for eighteen innings. The other was the strike-out record. Farmer Willett made twenty-nine of the visitors lay down the stick, but costly errors permitted the visitors to shove two men across the plate in the eighteenth inning, winning the game, 3 to 1.

Pittsburg was able to touch Willett up for only five hits, including one two-bagger and one three-bagger. On the other hand, a Young, who tried out with St. Louis early in the spring, was hit twelve times, one of them a two-bagger. Each pitcher walked stree men. Attendance, 3,500. Umpire, Mc-Namara. Business rivals do not always spend their idle time in writing love letters back and forth to each other. These business rivals, it is said, were not exceptions to the rule. Each, it had been heard, would like to have known the other personally.

One day Mr. Dietz took a steamer for Europe. When he got to London about the first man he met was a personal friend. He was at once impressed with the force of that trite saying, "The world is not so large after all." Mr. Dietz was anxious to visit Mount Vesuvius and he did so. Just as he reached the summit of the turbulent old mountain the Omahan was amazed to meet another old friend. It was a Chicago man. With the Chicago man was another Chicago man.

"Here, Mr. Dietz," exclaimed the friend from Chicago, "meet Mr. Holbrook." Whether the two men dumped all their old feelings into the crater is not known, but at any rate they forgot, for the time, business and knew only the pleasures of Medical Diplomas, Licenses and Newspaper Records Show.

To give a man his rightful place by birth and inheritance among his fellow men is worthy of the noblest efforts of a physician's life, and every good specialist works earnestly to this end. We offer you this aid, this help, this certainty of restoration, and if you will come to us we will spare you the penalties associated with private diseases and weaknesses of men. We will help you to escape from the slavery that is holding you captive and depleting your manhood. Do not be dejuded with the idea that diseases or weaknesses of men will correct themselves—they never do. It is useless to worvy about the past cause.

We have observed the terrible blighting influences of abuses and indiscretions in the young and middle-aged, sappling the vital forces; undermining the foundations of manhood; clouding the brightest minds and destroying all noble thoughts and aspirations; family circles disrupted and the poisonous fange reaching out and blighting even succeeding generations. We have devoted many years exclusively to treating this class of troubles, attended with the greatest success, and are embled to give this class of sufferers the benefit of our extended experience in treating discusses of this nature.

We have investigated and tested all known methods for the treatment and cure of private discusses and weaknesses of men, which gives us the right to judge between the false and the true, between shallow pretension and solid worth, between substance and abadow. Musty theories cannot stand out against our mode of treatment, against progressive medical science, new discoveries, and undisputed facts of discusses cured to stay cured.

WE CURE SAFELY AND THOROUGHLY

and all diseases and weaknesses of men due to inheritance, evil habits, self-abuse, excesses, or the result of specific or private diseases.

We make no misleading statements, no deceptive or unbusinesslike propositions to the afflicted, neither do we promise to cure them in a few days, nor offer cheap, worthless treatment in order to secure their 'Honest doctors of recognized ability do not resort to such methods. We guarantee a perfect, safe and lasting cure in the quickest possible time, without leaving injurious after effects in the system, and at the lowest cost possible for honest, skillful and successful treatment.
