

PYTHIANS HOLD A MEETING

District Lodges of Douglas, Washington, Cass and Sarpy Counties Hold Session.

The district meeting of the various Knights of Pythias lodges for the district consisting of Douglas, Washington, Cass and Sarpy counties was held Tuesday evening at Patterson hall, Seventeenth and Farnam streets.

Among the notable Pythians present were: Will H. Love, grand keeper of records and seal; J. H. Foxworthy of Lincoln, E. J. Farr of Blair, J. Q. Goss of Bellevue, past chancellor commander, all of whom made short addresses.

GOSSIP ON COMMISSION ROW

Fresh Vegetables Arrive to Supplant the Can Goods of the Winter.

With the advent of balmy spring the succulent pea is here and the heart of the housewife, who has been cooking dried peas for her husband all winter, is made glad.

String beans and wax beans, too, are here in plenty from the sunny land of Florida. The sun of 25 cents a quart of a dollar, will get a quart of either variety.

Strawberries are coming now in larger supply from Texas, and the dealers hope in a few days to be able to lower the price.

In Desperate Strife are many who could be cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs and Colds.

In Business Again

Having purchased the grocery stock at the northeast corner of 5th and Lake Sts., we will be pleased to serve all our old patrons with the choicest Groceries and Vegetables.

Misses' and Children's Dress Shoes

One of the very popular styles we are showing this spring for misses and children wear is made with colored tops, in drab, white and brown; genuine cow calf tops that can be cleaned; patent coil pumps, button only. They are very nifty.
