

SOCIETY TAKES ONE WHIRL

Week After Last Seen Everybody Busy Making Merry.

COMING WEEK NOT SO WELL FILLED

Premier of the Calendar Suggests that People Will Have Plenty of Time on Hand During Next Six Days.

The Stupid Man.

With scorn that was perceptible, she was the said, quite skeptical of youths who were susceptible to every girl they met.

At first to be invincible was better as a principle for hearts so convulsively would easily forget.

The question of proximity was one of unamity; should wait for love's utility; to sit too close was wrong.

To kiss was indefensible; was very reprehensible; to her incomprehensible; she said in accents strong.

And then in half rigidity he bowed with grim solidity, and skipped with some rapidity alone her heart was stirred.

Her eyes assumed humidity to think of his humility; that he with such stupidity, should take her at her word—Life.

The Social Calendar.

TUESDAY—Mrs. Shaw entertains the South Side Whist club Mrs. W. S. Popleton entertains the Cooking club; current topics department, Kensington afternoon.

WEDNESDAY—Mrs. W. H. Shriver entertains the Kountze Place Luncheon club; Mrs. E. E. Welch, a society party for Mrs. Keeling.

THURSDAY—Mrs. F. T. Melton entertains the West Farnam Kensington club.

FRIDAY—The closing ball of the Metropolitan club.

Relieved of the Lenten restraint, society have vent to its long suppressed activity in a round of gay affairs last week.

First of the large post-Lenten weddings, that of Miss Fayette Cole and Mr. Herbert Whipple at St. Mathias' church Wednesday evening, was one of the features of the week, with the several attending complimentary affairs for the bride.

The reception Friday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Rice at their home, was a very successful affair, with a large card party given by Mrs. W. H. Munger, Mrs. A. G. Beeson's big buffet luncheon, the tea given Monday afternoon by Mrs. Manley Rayley and another Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. George B. Welby, were all charming affairs and largely attended and besides these there were club meetings every day and a half dozen very smart luncheon parties. There is no such crush in prospect this week. In fact, unless something develops Monday society will have time and to spare the next six days.

A number of prominent society men and women will help the Young Woman's Christian association building fund by giving base ball parties next Saturday afternoon, April 23, at the benefit game to be played at Vinton street park. The association will receive half the gate receipts and all the proceeds of tickets sold by the women.

The Field club will have its opening Saturday, May 5. There will be a reception to the president and Board of Directors from 6 to 7 o'clock, after which a dance photo dinner will be served, the table following.

One of the larger affairs planned for the near future is a reception, musical and dancing party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hunt at the Masonic Idea pumping station, Florence, probably the early part of May. It is to be a moonlight affair and some of the best musical talent of the city will contribute to the program.

Pleasures in Prospect.

This week's meeting of the South Side Whist club will be held at the home of Mrs. Shaw.

Mrs. W. H. Shriver will entertain the members of the Kountze Place Luncheon club Wednesday, the members of the Cooking club will play bridge next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. F. H. Popleton.

Mrs. F. T. Melton will be hostess of this week's meeting of the West Farnam Kensington club.

One of the largest affairs planned for the week is the charming ball of Metropolitan club, to be given Saturday evening.

Mrs. Richard E. Welch has cards out for a schree party to be given Wednesday of this week complimentary to Mrs. Arthur Keeling.

The current topics department of the Woman's club will hold its Kensington of the past Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sherry on Farnam street.

Granddaughter of Mr. Rosewater Tells Graphically of Trip from Paris to Interesting Italian Cities.

Letters received from Hon. Edward Rosewater and members of his party at Rome tell of an enjoyable trip from Paris to the Eternal City.

The first of the delegates from the United States, took the form of a spectacular reception at the capital by the king and queen, followed the same evening by a banquet given by the minister of posts and telegraphs.

The first formal session took place in the Colonna palace, as already described in the press dispatches.

He writes further that his time has been taken up largely with formal and informal visits and presentations between the delegates from different countries.
