

ALL GOOD BUT ONE INNING

Pa Slaughtered Jay Andrews' Sunflowers in the First Encounter.

SECOND WILL BE FOUGHT OUT TODAY

Up to Eighth Inning Game Saved, but Omaha Cut Loose Then and Walked

A merciless slaughter of Jay Andrews and his Sunflowers was perpetrated by Pa's butchers at Vinton street park yesterday.

A bad eighth inning for Topkape made the game a trifle one-sided, Omaha winning by the score of 14 to 4.

McNeely started out to do the honors for Pa and the Topkape Indians started off to do things to him, at least it looked that way.

The field has been fixed up with new earth and is a trifle rough, although a heavy roller has made it fairly smooth.
