FREMONT, Neb., April 5.-(Special Tele-gram.)--Pa Rourke didn't do a thing to Fremont this afternoon and his boys are still weary from running bases. Old-time fans said it reminded them of the days of the 60's. A change of pitchers did little good. Fremont was outclassed and seemed to lose its grip after the third finning. A strong north wind and a cloud of dust was what spolled the game. Score: R.H. D. Omaha0 0 4 4 1 6 4 3 0-22 30 6

Tekamah Loves Ball Grounds. TEKAMAH Neb. April 25.-(Special.)-The base bail fans of this place were very much surprised to learn that the bail grounds have been plowed and planted to potatoes this year, but there seems to be no doubt but that this small plece of ground will be more profitable but not as fascinat-ing as it was last year. However, if Tekamah wants a team arrangements can probably be made with the Tekamah Speed
