MUSIC AND MUSICIANS

Hardel's "Messiah." presented by the Thoral society of the People's institute, the Cuscaden Philharmonic orghestra and a quartet of soloists, was given a beautiful rendition at the initial performance last evening.

The quartet was composed of Mrs. Jessica DeWolf, soprano; Mrs. Mabel Crawford-Welpton, contralto: Mr. Marc Lageit tenor, and Mr. Gustav Holmquist, bass. These artists are too well known by their revious good work to need any introduc tion to Omaha, unless it be Mr. Lagen, who them to scorn, the Lord shall have them in derision; thou shalt break them with pieces like a potter's vessel," was splenda marked huskiness by that time, seemed get more in touch with the composer's thought. It was unfortunate that he did not sing the well-known favorite, "Comfort Ye. My People," in the good style of the later work, but he will likely recover by Thursday evening's performance. Mrs. DeWolf was heard here two sea sons ago at a recital given by her under the auspices of the Concert Promoters, and last night's singing only deepened the delightful impression which she made at he first appearance. She is a consummate artist, with a bird-like voice, a fine mustcal temperament, and gives a scholarly in terpretation of all her lines. Her soprano is given a great deal of work in this ora torio and not once did she fall in all that was demanded of her. Her planissimo work was especially noticeable, and a perfect radiance seemed to come from her Bluffs and after a brief acquaintance he rendition of the aria, "Rejoice Greatly, O Daughter of Zion." The most familiar soprano aria, of course, was "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and well, indeed, did Mrs. DeWolf stand any comparison which might have been made. It was sung in a thoroughly convincing manner, with beautiful phrasing and fine tonal work

Omaha Spring Music festival, and right well were they paid for the coming. The program opened with a plant number by Miss Corinne Paulsen, who played Martucci's Concert Etude. This young woman plays with a considerable amount of dash, style and spirit, which combined with her excellent technique always gives great pleasure to her listeners. She played the piano accompaniments in a very creditable manner. Mr. Mare Lagen, a tenor with a very good natural voice, but somewhat spoiled in many tones by a decided throatiness. gave an arioso from Leoncavello's "Pagliacci" in the first part of the program; in the second half he sang a group of songs, "Love's World." by Pontius: "Her Birthday," by Browne, and "A Border Ballad," by Cowen, and very graciously responded by singing "Calm as the Night.

Andante Religioso, and Nodacek's "Perpetual Motion" in a masterly manner. Mr. Holmquist sang "She Alone Charmeth My Sadness." by Gouned, in the first part, and in the second a group of three songs, responding to an insistent encore with Ashford's "Dreamy Days" and later a little

Mrs. Jessica De Wolf sang in spiendid style Elizabeth's song from "Tannhauser." "Dich Theure Halle," fairly captivating her audience, appearing again in the second part in a group of four songs. In this group ber manner of singing "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls" was a revelation. Never has it been better sung. Her singing of Mrs. Beach's song. "The Years at the Spring." was fine. It was a joy just to listen to her.

Mrs. Weipton gave in the first part an aria from Mignon beautifully, and in the second part sang a group of songs that were simply charming. Especially is this true of the second of the trio. "In Picardie." It was a very decided success, this matince musical, and it is to be hoped other concert artists will repeat the idea.

Witness in Noonan Case Says Carlson Had Big Knife When Killed.

ALSO THAT HE HAD BEEN DRINKING FREELY

Prosecution Finds it Difficult to Get Hold of Witnesses in the South Omaha Murder Cane.

Considerable difficulty in getting hold of witnesses has been experienced by the Charles D. Butterfield, cashler of the state in the Frank Noonan murder case. of the witnesses of the tragedy, South Omaha and was arrested at Fremont with a companion for pulling guns on the express messenger in the car to which they were stealing a ride. Their destination was said to be California Tuesday it was learned William Hughes, who had been subpoensed as a witness had left the county. He was located at Lakeside, Cherry county, and a deputy sheriff sent after him.

The state also struck some unexpected testimony when Michael Speck went on the stand for the prosecution Wednesday Speck testified Carlson, who was killed by Noonan, had a large knife used in killing hogs in his pocket at the time of the tragedy. He also said Carlson had been drinking considerable whisky just before the trouble with Noonan. The other evidence of the state indicated he had not been drinking. It was brought out in the examination that Speck had been boarding with Noonan for several months.

State's Chief Witness.

several years. Catron secured a divorce The principal witness for the state was from his wife early in 1994 and the charges Frank Thompson, who was with Carlson that he made against her at that time at the time. He said Noonan and Carison created a sensation as she was a leader met in front of Harold's saloon at L society and a member of one of the street and Boulevard and Noonan de manded a dollar he said Carlson owed him. Carlson, he said, told Noonan he did not have the money and started on. He was about the middle of the street when Noonan ran out and struck him is the temple with a knife. Noonan then went back and telephoned the police that he had got into some trouble and asked Marshall, a well-known young man about them to wait till he arranged for bonds men before arresting him. Carlson was taken to a hospital where he died the next morning. Thompson testified neither he nor Carlson had been drinking. He did not see Carlson have a knife.

George Harold, who was brought up from Fremont by Sheriff Bauman, also testified at the morning session

That bad feeling existed between Frank Noonan and Charles Carlson was brought out in the evidence adduced in the hearing of the case before Judge Sutton Wednesday nine polsoning. Marshall was despondent afternoon. Both men worked in the same slaughter house and the evidence showed Noonan had been superceded by Carlson David Ross testified a few days before the murder that Noonan had told him Curlson owed him some money and if he did not pay up next payday he would "put the fixings to him.

The defense has not indicated what theory it will follow.

BABY'S TORTURING SKIN HUMOR

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off - Body Entirely Covered -Face Mass of Sores - Three Doctors Could Not Cure - Child Grew Worse - Face and Body Now Clear

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS FOR 75c.

Mrs. George J. Steese, of 701 Coburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of terturing, cura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mast of sores, and her little face was being eaten away; her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cutieura Soap and Ointmest, and before I had used half of the cake of Soap and box of Ointment the spres had all healed, and my little one's face and body were as clear as a new-boyn babe's. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit whatever.
