GOOD CLOTHES FOR MEN

Rogers Peet & 60,'s Hand-Tallored

The Most Complete Line of Odd Trousers, Fine Woolen Mixtures

The Equal of Any $35 Gustom Tallor Made Suit

BRANDEIS' SPECIAL SPRING SUITS AT $15

The new spring suits this year have a style that is all their own-Last year's spring suit won't do. The 1906 models show the long coats with with flare at the hips, the wide lapels and other new style features. Grey is the great color favorite. We are showing a matchless variety of these suits in leading tones of grey etc

$1350 and $15 MEN'S SPRING SUITS, AT $9.75

These are nobby new 1906 suits that we bought from an overstocked manufacturer-all late and becoming styles- new shades of gray, blue and the favorite mixtures-suits that are easily worth $13.50 and $15—Saturday, at.....

DRESSY SUITS FOR BOYS

Our separate clothing department for boys and children is on the third floor-a greater selection of the really nobby and stylish suits for little fellows than you can find anywhere else in Omaha. Two specials in well made knee pants suits, 250 and 298 at Base Ball and Bat Free with Every Boys' Suits.

Our Great Boys' Gombination Offer

Boys' Norfolk or double breasted knee pants suits, with extra pair of Knickerbocker trousers. Just the same as two suits, at the price of one. You would pay $5.00 anywhere else—this combination

Highest Class Suits for Little Fellows

Young Men's Sults Long Pants suits in dressy chaps up to $5-7.50-10

THE NEW STYLES IN LOW SHOES

Ladies' Canvas and Sea Island Linen Oxfords, in 150_165_275 white, gray, pink and blue -

Commercial Club Commissioner Wanted by

Grain Exchange as Secretary.

IF HE ACCEPTS WILL RESIGN OLD JOB

Ten Other Men Were Seeking the Position, but Board of Directors

His Experience.

E. J. McVann, present commissioner of the Commercial club, is the choice of the board of directors of the Omaha Grain exchange for secretary. The board met Friday afternoon in the office of the exchange and from ten candidates selected Mr. Me-

Vann. After the meeting President G. W.

Wattles gave out the following statement:

that Mr. McVann was about to leave the Commercial club and take a position in another city. Upon investigation we found that this was true, that he had been offered ras seriously thinking of leaving Omaha.

We do not want to take him away from the Commercial club, but since it seemed to us the club was to lose him at all events, him an offer. There were ten other men.

and good men, from whom we could have selected, but we considered Mr. McVann road rate matters. We have made Mr. Mcas having the broadest experience in rail

came to our attention a report

Preferred McVann for

THE NEW STYLES IN MEN'S LOW SHOES -Show the most satisfactory combination of style with absolute comfort-built on scientific principles and made from the best selected leathers patent colt, gun metal stock; tan Russian calf, etc .- specially priced for Saturday-

THE CELEBRATED FLORSHEIM OXFORDS—The best shoes for spring and $ summer that are made. If you want the best, get the Florsheim. It is more than worth its price......

LADIES' OXFORDS AND PUMPS

We lead the way in showing the smart new styles in ladies' footwear. Patent kid, dull leathers or vici kid. Large eyelet ribbon ties, new spend his entire time in securing from the railroads such arrangements as will help to make Omaha a greater grain market. The exchange will give him more than he the night, but an effort will be made to business. have these held until morning that they

Mr. McVann said he was not in a position to talk on the matter. He has not handed in his resignation to the executive committee of the Commercial club. The city to which Mr. Wattles referred from which Mr. McVann had received a gratuitous response to this enormous emer- house in which they lived was shattered in flattering offer is St. Louis. He was considered there for commissioner of the Commercial club. The St. Louis position is understood to carry a much larger salary than is paid in Omaha. It is the understanding if McVann takes the Grain exchange position he will receive a substantial increase in salary over what has been Caught Cold While Bunting a Burglar Mr. Wm. Thes. Lanorgan, provincial con-stable at Chapleau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a buran attractive position in another city and glar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will we did not think it out of the way to make posen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favor-the club. I believe Mr. McVann will be of the exchange than as commissioner of the club, since in the position which has been offered him he will not be compelled to do office routine, but will be free to is getting from the club."

ite wherever its superior excellence has become known. Nurses' School Closed. Vann a proposition and he has accepted it with one provision, that the Commercial Closed Sisters' Trained Nurses school at St. Joseph's hospital has closed for this year. Dr. H. T. Hamilton was in charge of the closing exercises and after the examination. I think there can be no question about that. Under present arrangements there will be no combination of the transportation interests of the exchange and portation interests of the exchange and they have paid to the work.

M'VANN OFFERED THE PLACE worth much more to the city as secretary BUSY DAY FOR MERCY put in the hospital tent. The number is Douglas 6400. Another large assignment of refugees is expected in some time during Expense to Railroads.

been compelled to haul supplies out here sumed by fire. from Chicago. On one train Friday morning two cars were devoted to supplies for these unfortunate people. The Northwest- cially for women, hosiery and baby clothpower, but results show they have met the used as day coaches from Ogden to Omaha.

Toyland Babes Are Safe. passed through Omaha Thursday night.

provided with warm breakfasts. J. Lewis Rains, a newspaper correspondent, arrived on Union Pacific train No. 6 Thursday night. He had his toes badly burned. These were dressed at the relief tent and he was sent on his way. Charles Black, seeing the call in The Bee for clotking, sent down a wagonload

William Hawkins, a cement worker whose me is in Chicago, arrived in Omaha Friday morning from San Francisco with one of his fingers badly burned. He said he was standing on Market street when a live wire fell and killed his two companions, but he escaped with the Res of his finger. It will have to be amputated,

Strong men are needed to help on som of the heavy work. Up to this time the hard work, such as carrying water and raking the ground and carrying the heavy coffee urns and everything else in the heavy line, has fallen upon the stage hands from the local theaters. While they show no signs

Wagner and Others All Right. H. A. Wagner, for whose safety his Omaha friends had worried, has wired to H. S. Byrne that he and his family escaped the San Francisco disaster, although their home and office were burned. He and his wife were in Passdena on the fatal day. F. W. Marsh, terminal engineer, with the Western Pacific Railway company at San Francisco, and his wife, formerly of

Rev. James Sunderland and wife, who live in Oakland, were in Portland, Ore., at the time of the great earthquake, enroute east to visit their sons, the Sunderland brothers of Omaha. They returned at once to Oakland, in order to open their home to care for those who suffered loss across the bay and who fied to surround-

restaurant in Omaha, has written

Francisco. She said she arrived in San Francisco two days before the earthquake and placed her money in the bank one day before. Her furniture and household goods were in a building which collapsed, but did not burn, and she hopes to recover theni. Mrs. Wearne went to San Francisco with the expectation of engaging in

The San Francisco relief committee has issued an urgent call for underwear, espeern, Union Pacific and Milwaukee all have ing. An unusual demand exists for these Cars on Union Pacific. Following supplies for relief of San Francisco sufferers were being moved over the Union Pacific yesterday: One car medicines, Denver,

One car crackers, Omaha. One car groceries, from various places, y express. One car miscellaneous supplies, Fre-

One car flour, Norton, Kan. One car flour, Exeter, Neb. One car canned goods, Hoopeston, Ill. One car tent poles, Chicago, Three cars wearing apparel and other rticles solely for women and children, Chicago.

BENEFIT MATINEE BIG SUCCESS Stage People Net Nearly Thousand Dollars for Relief.

Francisco relief fund by the benefit matnee given at the Orpheum yesterday afternoon by all the theatrical companies in the city with the co-operation of the local managements.

More things were on the program than any regular vaudeville bill eyer wot of. It was one of the biggest pieces of amusement ever given in the city for a dotlar and every seat-50 cents and $1-held an enthusiastic auditor. Carl Reiter, besides being general manager of the affair and purveyor of many things necessary, unted the boards and told a few stories. Some were pathetic and out of this clever manager's usual line and revealed a new

> COFFEE-RUINED NERVOUS

MEN'S SPRING

Worth 75c and $1, at ples of great eastern mills, im-ported lisies, French balbriggan, plains and fancies-a great opportunity to buy your summer underwear at about one-third its real value.

Men's Work and Negligee Shirts

New spring patterns, mohair and pongee bosoms, chambray, madras and percalessome slightly soiled—a few imperfect-values up to 75cbargain square

rien's Finest Underwear worth 112 suit, at- garment American silk and lisie Underwear. 98c

American silk and 186 Underwear 98c	3.50
liste Underwear	175,500,000
Pure linen mesh Underwear, usually sells at $3.25 garment.	2.50

Men's $1 Shirts 50c band style or collars attached, on bargain square at

Manhattan Shirts. Wellington Shirts Eureka and Griffon Shirts at Pongee Shirts Mohair Shirts 1.50 to 2.98

Men's fine Negligee Shirts, neck-50c

1.50 to $2 1.50 to 2.98 $1 and 1.50 $1-1.50-$2

Jet and Beaded Belts Jet or silk, back and front buckles, worth up to $2.50, at—each. .49c

Leather Purses and Wrist Bags, entire sample line from well known manufacturer, 69c made to retail at $1, $1.50 and $2, choice ...

JEWELRY AND

FANGY BELTS

New Department-Main Building.

$1 Silk Belts at 25c

Ladies' Form-Fitting Taffeta

Back and Side Combs

Made to match, in jet and pretty

at, set......$1 to $12

Imported Sample Combs

Fancy designs, regular price 50c up to $2 each—25c - 49c

Shirt Waist Jewelry

Well known O. S. Bigney brand, gold filled with gold front, all initials engraved free, at 49c, 69c, 75c, 98c, 1.25, 1.49

Belts, large range

Heavy Sterling Silver

Thimbles, worth 35c and 50c each, at

Brandeis' Special Men's Hats at $2

These are the hats that well dressed men like because they show the very latest correct style, give good service and at the same time are moderate in price. Every one of the hundreds of men who wear them will declare they are the best hats ever sold at.....

We Are Agents for the Famous John B. Stetson Hats at $3.49.

Men's Sample Hats at 45c and 98c

We bought from two of the largest hat manufacturers in the country their entire sample lines of Stiff and Soft Hats—all this season's goods, the leading shapes and colors, worth from $1.50 to $3 and selling at about one-third their actual value.

All the hats worth up All the hats worth up to $3, on the main floor at.....

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL CAPS AT 25c AND 49c EACH.

small case of California cherries and was captured by D. C. Bradford of the Bradford-Kennedy Lumber company for $50. The cherries were presented for the occasion against the United States soldiers, offering by Rocco Bros and were worth about $6 the third box of cherries from the earthquake state received east of Sait Lake City this spring, the first box having been auctioned in Philadelphia and the second

SOLDIERS ACCUSED OF LOOTING

Iown Men Would Prefer Formal Charges Before War Department. DES MOINES, April 27 .- Stories of whole sale robberies by soldiers as well as vandals, of innocent as well as guilty men shot down at sight by military guards, of the sweep of contagious diseases and of fires and carnage are told by Harry Shostrim and W. C. Lane, two Iowa mer who spent three days in the stricken city San Francisco. They reached Des Moines today. "The soldier is supreme in San Francisco," said Mr. Shostrim. "On the slightest provocation they shoot a ditten down and nobody as thus far questioned the act. There has been lots of looting by vandals, but the soldiers have committed wholesale plunder also. know of instances when buildings were to be blown up the soldiers would go inside, blow open and loot the safes and then dynamite the walls. I saw lots of soldlers with their pockets bulging with booty that one in uniform bragging that he had stolen tioned off the first box of California fruit $2,000 worth of diamonds. Another told of worth more than his blank state of mind received in Omaha this apring. It was a a fine gold watch he had secured, he said, Both men say they are eager and willing to lay before the War department charges

DEATH LIST FROM SAN JOSE

General Greely Sends Numes of Those Killed by Earthquake.

WASHINGTON, April 27 .- General Greely as telegraphed what he believes to be emplete list of the dead in San Jose and vicinity. The total, including ninety-six patients at Agnew's asylum, is 117. Excluding names of the insane the list fol-

REN.
ROMEO MANSHED.
DELTA MARQUANT
THOMAS O'TOOLE.

Asks Governor to Call Troops. WASHINGTON, April 27 .- Secretary Taft as telegraphed to Governor Pardee of California a suggestion from the president that in order to avoid any possible legal complications the governor should call upon the president formally for the use of United States troops in San Francisco.

Gahm fareweil concert Monday. Boyd's

Pale, Thin, Nervous?

Then your blood must be in a very bad condition. You certainly know what to take, then why not take it?-Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If you doubt, then consult your doctor. We know what he will say about this grand old family medicine. Sold for 60 years.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.

Eads by the J. C. Ayes Co., Lowell, Mass.
Also Manufacturers of AYER'S MAIR VICOR—For the bair. AYER'S PHILS—For constipation.
AYER'S CHERRY PROTOGRAL—For coughe. AYER'S AGUS CURE—For materia and ages.

(Continued from First Page.)

may be fed.

mergency with remarkable success. The Union Pacific on the train which arrived Friday afternoon had taken three regular sleepers from the Pullman company and pressed them into service. The carpets were taken from the cars and placed in the drawing rooms and they were

The eight members of the "Babes in Toyand" company who were supposed to have perished in the San Francisco disaster Ten refugees were brought in on the Rock Island and stayed in the relief tent until morning, when they were cared for and T of shirts and hate to be given those in seed of any such articles. but he would not have it done at the station, saying he wished to wait until he reached Chicago. Dr. Goetz dressed the finger as best he could to keep it clean until he could reach Chicago. of weakening they need some assistance.

Omaha and Denver, are safe with friends at 2515 Bancroft Way, Berkeley.

ing cities for refuge. Esther S. Wearne, who used to keep s

McCague Investment company from San

In a communication received last night from Berkeley, Cal., The Bee is requested to state that Mr. and Mrs. M. Marsh, form-The general public does not know of the erly of the Hamilton apartments, are safe extra expense and inconvenience to which and with friends at 2515 Bancroft street, the railroads are being subjected in their Berkeley. The communication says the gency. For instance, the Milwaukee has the earthquake and in a few hours conbeen put to a test in supplying motive kinds of clothing and those desiring to contribute are urged to send their bundles to the relief tent near Union depot.

> One car flour, Hill City, Kan. One car flour, Wamego, Kan. One car flour, canned meats and merhandise, Salina, Kan. One car miscellaneous supplies, Dakota

One car potatoes, Boelus, Neb.

Two cars provisions, Chicago.

Close to $1,000 was netted for the San vein to the audience. Albert Morrison was head usher, and the eight of him, looking as though he were

POSTUM

SYSTEM "There' a Reason."

when it come to knowing one seat check from another. Carroll Clary, who used to be doorkeeper at the Orpheum before he became a plutocrat business man, was back at the old stand, however, and what Mr. Morrison didn't remember, he did. Just or $7 in the market. It was said to be beyond Mr. Clary, "as the guests entered the church," stood Miss Eva Lang, Miss Mary Hill and Miss Marie Hudson from the Burwood theater, each laden with a big basket of roses and gowned her at Boston in a similar manner. prettiest. The three blossom sellers closned up about $100 from twice as many roses. meaning an average price of 30 cents each Mr. Morrison added to his glory by buying the first rose for a silver cartwheel from Miss Lang and Manager Retter picked the second for the same price. One man paid $2 for a posey, but Bob Shirley paid the highest price, $2.50, for a flower for Mrs. Will Manchester. It required team work on the part of Mr. Morrison and Miss Lang to work the deal, however, though Mr. Shirley said it was the "lady" who did it. During the intermission the flower

When it closed Miss Lang was offered $2 for her basket and disposed of that. The Henrietta Crosman company from the Boyd gave the second act of "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary" with every detail of the elaborate "den" scene complete. The full strength of the company, composed of Addison Ritt, Dallas Tyler, Angela Mc-Caull, Kate Jepson, John Marbie, William I knew had been stolen, and I overheard Herbert, Alice Butler, Joseph H. Graybill, Boyd Putnam, C. A. Chandos and Miss Crosman, was required by the act, and the efforts of the players were warmly ommended by applause and curtain calls. It required hard work on the part of the mechanical forces of the Hoyd and Orpheum to transfer the sceneries and properties and get them back for the evening performance. But for that matter thirtysix stage hands from all the theaters in town were behind the scenes and this aggregation made light work of the tasks. The Orpheum company gave its complete program with some necessary curtailments the participants being the Caprice, Lynn & Fay company, Murry K. Hill, the black face monologue and parody man; the Mc-Carthy & Wolcott company; Stanley & Wilson, musical comedy; Clifford & Burke, black face eccentrics, and Sandor's bursellers and their assistant, the head usher, passed down the aisle and their entire stock remaining was exhausted in three minutes.

lesque circus From the Krug Miss Lyman appeared with her sextette of singers from the "Lyman Twins" company, and the act was thoroughly appreciated. Besides tributing the head usher and flower girls, the Burwood sont Carrie Clark Ward and Grant Simpson, who acted as stage manager, ably assisted on the other side of the footlights by "Doc" Breed, manager of the Krug," Mr. Simpson called the stations. or what was to follow next, in a most pleasing voice and the nicest manner. Miss Ward's offering was the monologue and song. "Mike," from "Why Smith Left Home," in which she made such a big hit on her first appearance in Omaha, the

'cook indy" busine As soon as the performers finished their turns they came around in front, bought tickets and saw the rest of the show. The orchestra consisted of instru six in all, under the direction of Albin Huster of the Orpheum. Eddie Monaghan, business manager of the Boyd, was to have sold lemonade and ice cream, but was kept away by a slight mentalists from the four theaters, twenty-

George L. Miller, who, with Mrs. Miller, entertained a party of friends. Toward the end of the show, which lasted until after 5 o'clock, Manager Reiter auc-specific evidence if necessary.

The first box sold was taken by Dr.

MRS HELA BRANDON. MRS URGIONA COSTA. MR. AND MRS CARRIGAN AND ABY.
DR. WARREN DRERWN.
PEGENTRY AND OSCTIN DADY.
MRS. CLAUDE EVERRETT.
L. ETTERS.
PAUL FERRIS.
FUGIT AND WIFE.
JAMES HIUNGIVE.
BOST HEALY, WIFE AND TWO CHILWEEN.

W NICANOR

AND if you are a lover of old romance you will want to follow the adventures of Nicanor the story-teller, of the lord's daughter who forgot that he was a slave, and of Eldris, who loved him best. It is a novel for those of us who have not forgotten Scott and Kingsley and the nobler traditions of historical romance. It is especially commended to anyone who would like to forget for a time the hard commercial age in which we live. "NICANOR, TELLER OF TALES," is a tale of Roman Britain, by C. Bryson Taylor, with beautiful illustrations in full color and other decorations by the Kinneys. It is just published, and your bookseller has it today.