Former Populist Will Not Accept Nomination for Attorney General.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR ONLY

He Promises a Formal Statement of His Position and His View of the Isanes Within a Few Days.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 29 .- (Special.) -- George Berge has returned from Excelsion Springs, where he and his family spent the last few weeks, and he will now enter actively upon his campaign to be the demo cratte nominee for governor of the state Last night Mr. Berge said:

'I am a candidate for governor, and not for attorney general. If I am not nominated for governor I will not accept a nomination for any other place on the icket. I shall issue within a few days a statement regarding my position and what think should go into the democratic plat

Leading democrats are somewhat at sea just at this time and the result may be Berge will get a considerable following which has not yet been counted upon for him. In view of the fact that the democratic paper at Scribner, which has been very much in favor of the candidacy of A. C. Shallanberger for governor, has come now for G. M. Hitchcock for senator and for Berge for attorney general, a number of democrats are of the belief that Hitchcock and Shallanberger have made a tieup and the talk of making Berge attorney general has emanated from the office of the World-Herald in order to help out Shallanberger.

If future events demonstrate this is true Mr. Berge will come in for a good share the support of the followers of Mr. Bryan, who are not favorably impressed with Shallanberger nor in favor of the Omaha man for senator. Friends of Berge are feeling good now because of the mistakes of his opponents. Inasmuch as they claim he could be fought only on the grounds that he has always been a populist they hold now he cannot be objected to on this ground because a great number of the emocratic papers as well as democratic politicians are willing and anxious to nominate him for attorney general.

"In view of the campaign made by Berge ast year he is recognized as an anticorporation man. Should the democratic convention turn him down the sentiment throughout the state will be the convention has taken a man who can secure the railroad support. This would be the case whether it is true or not. Then, should all. On the other hand, if Berge is nominated by the democrats the railroads will move Leaven and earth to nominate the candidate for the republicans and thus secure a candidate upon whom they can rely. The edium of corporation taint, consequently, would rest upon the republican this year will not elect a corporation candidate on any ticket."

HASTINGS, Neb., April 29,-(Special.)tions to be collected fro the benefit of the Farmers representing ten central Nebraska ountles met here last week and formed s state branch of the American Society of contributed by the citizens of the capital Equity. Resolutions were adopted vigorously endorsing the farmers' strike which was called by the society's officers in

Indianapolis two months ago. The purpose of the association is to con trol through united action the prices of all farm products, the general plan being to withhold products until market prices have advanced to the minimum standard fixed by the national officers. The standard for the strike called in February fixed the price of wheat at $1 per bushel, with a corresponding increase in the price of other grains and agricultural products. The soclety proposes to maintain its own system notice of appeal given, that of Henry of crop reporting and to base the price standards, which are published in the official organ each month, upon the crop figures thus obtained. National Organizer Sherman has been at work in this section of Nebraska since February 12 and thus far has enrolled 4,000 members. The countles represented in the meeting here are Adams, Kearney, Howard, Buffalo, Hall, Webster, Clay, Hamilton

Resolutions—George A. Allen, Clay; A. G. Bloomfield, Kearney; Henry Denman, Hall.

The resolutions adopted, besides endorsing the farmers' strike, contain a demand for the repeal of the statute requiring assessors to collect statistics as to acreage of growing crops, as well as crops already produced, it being held by the society that such future figures are of no value to the farmers, but only furnish information that assists gamblers and speculators."

The society also advocated the inauguraion, by some institute or agricultural college, of a course of instruction as to the disposal of farm products, conducted "to the end that the farmer may receive just ompensation for his labors."

CHICAGO, April 29.—Standing unsteadily and with great effort before an audience of 2,500 persons in Zion tabernacle this afternoon, John Alexander Dowie charged his traducers, if any were present, to rise to their feet and make their accusations before the whole congregation. The followers of Voliva, the new leader in Zion City's affairs, however, were at that mement attending a rival meeting, set for the same hour at the Zion college building, a quarter of a mile distant. There 5,000 of the the city's inhabitants were gathered, together with the famous choir, now divested of its ecclesiastical garb, and the Zion band and orchestra. Those who listened to the words of Dowle were for the most part visitors from other towns, brought in by the hundreds by the electric cars and railroad trains. For over an hour the crowd in the tabernacle waited for the appearance of the venerable apostle." Immediately in front of the platform and in the choir loft were probably 150 of the faithful.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures and physicians who have recognized the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due.

If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience it can be relied upon to effect a cure. The following letter proves it. Dr. S. C. Brigham, of 4 Brigham

Pierpont Morgan has immense respect for all kinds of pluck He says one of the finest examples that ever came under his observation was given by an English ciergyman. He had a rich parishioner, Lady Blank, who dictated to and hectored him outrageously. At length he declined to put up with this kind of treatment and told her ladyship so. Thereafter she refused to put anything in the offertory. merely making a stately inclination over the plate. This moved an elder to remark her hearing: "We could do with less of her manners and more of her cash, The ciergymar, dining at a lord's table, told this story with great success one evening. The host said with a frown: "Are you aware, sir, that Lady Blank is a relative of mine?" The clergyman smiled slightly. "No," he said, "I wasn't, but in future when I tell the story I'll always be careful to mention the relationship."

Nature Study.

Sitting by my open window, I distinctly hear the grass mown. This is an old joke among minstrels, but I believe it has never efore appeared in a nature study.

Have you ever observed grass? It is very intelligent. Two blades of grass may be made to grow where one grew before, and do other tricks hardly less surprising. Some say grass has no sensibilities. They are wrong. Grass which a pretty girl has sat on sometimes doesn't get over it for n week. We do not blame if.

In the Bible grass is likened to the flesh which tomorrow is cast into the oven. This is drawing it pretty strong, although some grass is undoubtedly tough. There are wild grasses and tume grasses. One has to be wary in studying wild grasses, as they are extremely shy.-Pack

Saloon Licenses Granted. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., April 29 .- (Special.)-At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, after an all-night session, the city council, by unanimous vote in each case, overruled the remonstrances filed against all of the saloonkeepers in Grand Island and granted licenses. In only one case was Hann, owner of Hann's park, who refused to make appearance by an attorney, and was indifferent as to Whether he secured a license or not. The remonstrances were brought through the efforts of the Anti-Saloon league of the state, which sent agents to secure the evidence some time ago. A weak feature of the case, admitted to be such by the attorney for the league, was the testimony of William Chambers, a Grand Island college student, who testified that he weighed 145 pounds, continually were glasses, was bald on both sides of the forehead, had a pretty heavy beard and was five feet eight inches in height, and had been selected out of seventy-five young men at the Grand Island college to go about from place to place in the city, buy a half pint of whisky and bring in the evidence as a violation on the part of the saloon man of the law. Chambers would be taken anywhere to be anywhere from 22 to 25 years of age. At no place did he give any indication of the fact that he was not of age, and these facts led to a severe attack on the part of the attorneys for the saloon men upon the methods employed to secure the evidence necessary to sustain a remonstrance.
