Montgomery, local agent of the railroad conservative in their remarks, others openly announced their opposition to Cummins and as to whether the city ordinance prohibto what they termed "the republicanism which emanated from Des Molnes." Congressman Walter I. Smith was enthusiastically elected a member of the club and the secretary instructed to notify him of the same.

The club adjourned to meet at the same place Friday night, May II, the night following the Cummins meeting at the New theater. It was announced that only members of the club and those willing to sign the membership roll would be admitted at the next meeting.

MATTERS IN THE DISTRICT COURT Grand Jury Reconvenes and Resumes

Its Labors. The trial of the suit in which Edward Haefner seeks to recover from Huber four fingers of his right hand, which were ground off in a sausage machine operated by electricity, was begun before Judge Wheeler and jury in the district court yesterday. Evidence was introduced by the plaintiff to show that the machine was not in proper running order at the time of the accident. The defense will attempt to show that Haefner did not use proper caution and was negligent. The trial will be resumed this morning. The grand jury reconvened yesterday with Victor Jennings as foreman and the following members: 'Elida Parish, Hazel Dell township; Harry Wilkins, Keg Creek; Warren Hough, Crescent: P. N. Sucks dorf, Washington; W. R. Keating, Hardin; George Olson, Boomer. Miss Colburn i clerk of the grand jury and Major Wal McFadden balliff.

Mickey Taggart of Omaha, charged with enatching a pocketbook from Mrs. Solomon, and Dot Farley, charged with the theft of several articles of clothing, the property of a fellow chambermaid at the Ogden house, were presented to the grand jury and both waived challenge.

The grand jury is expected at this ses sion to take up several charges against J. A. Rogers, who was arrested a few days ago at Crescent, Ia., and turned over to the Mills county authorities.

At a largely attended and most enthusiastic meeting in the county court house last night the Roosevelt Republican club of Pottawattamie county was organized. The meeting had been called by County Chairman Wright for his office, but the size of the crowd compelled him to adjourn it to the south court room in the county court house.

These officers were elected: President, Victor E. Bender; vice president, Israel Lovett; secretary, Painter Knox, treasurer, Henry H. Van Brunt.

The meeting as had been anticipated, was to all intents and purposes a gathering of the faction opposed to Governor Cummins and most of the speeches made this plain, Among the crowd, however, were several well known adherents of Governor Cummins, but as was to be expected they were few and far between.

Authorities in Doubt About Legality of City Ordinance.

As a result of a Northwestern freigh train blocking the Broadway crossing Monday night for sixteen minutes an information was filed yesterday in the superior The city authorities have some misgivings iting trains standing on street crossings ever five minutes at a time will hold water in its present shape and the matter has been referred to the city solicitor. The ordinance is not specific as to who should be held responsible when a crossing is blockaded by a train. The recent ordinance limiting the speed of trains within the city limits makes the members of the train crew directly responsible in case of violafron of the measure. Mayor Macrae suggested yesterday that the ordinance regulating the blockading of street crossings by railroad trains be amended so as to make the train crew responsible in case of

REVISING WATER WORKS CONTRACT Harl & Tipley Submit New Form to

Connell Committee. Harl & Tinley, special counsel & gaged by the city council in the proceedings looking toward municipal ownership of the water works plant, have submitted to the special committee of the council having charge of this matter a modified form of contract between the company and the city providing for the sale of its plant at an appraised value. The ordinance embodying the contract, which has to be passed on by the city council and later voted on by the people at a special election, has also been revised by Harl & Tinley and both will, it is expected, be submitted to the city coun-cial at an early date. According to the modified form of contract the appraisement is to be made within thirty days after acted on by the city council and before submission to the voters. If the appraisement comes within the constitutional limit, including the regular water inx and An extra issue of 5 per cent bonds authorized by the last general assembly. the city is to have ninety days after the special election in which to complete the purchase by delivering to the water works company its bonds for the sum fixed.

Should the appraisement exceed the above tenns it will be necessary to issue water works bonds, but the company will not be obliged to acept them until their validity is established by an action in court. If such a suit is brought the city is to have ninety days after its determination in which to complete the purchase.

DITCH MATTERS AT WHITE HEAT Joint Boards Decide to Appeal to the Supreme Court.

ONAWA, Ia., May 1 .- (Special Tele gram.) -The joint boards of supervisors of Monona and Harrison county held a meeting here this afternoon, which was lurgely attended by landowners and ditch promotors anxious to learn the fate of the recent decision at Logan in regard the Monona-Harrison drainage dirch. The joint board and confractors decided to appeal from Judge Macy's decision to the supreme court, which is likely to knock out all ditch work for a year or more. About half a million dollars are involved in the contracts. While the boards were in session the largest ditch meeting ever held was in progress upstairs, and a resolution asking the boards not to appeal the case passed unanimously, but the joint board paid no attention to the resolution. There is much excitement over the ditch matter and a prospect of a long CEDAR FALLS, Ia., May 1 .- (Special.) At the double debate between the teams of the Missouri and lowa State Normal schools on Friday night the score was a stand-off. In the debate here the judge rendered in favor of the lows Normal by 2 to 1; in the debate the same evening in Kirkville, Mo., the verdict favored the Missouri contestants. The mestion for debate was: "Resolved, That unicipal ownership and operation of lighting works and street railway lines would be preferable to private ownership and operation in cities of the United States of 25,000 or more inhabitants, it being conceded that the change of ownership can legally be made." The debaters for Missouri in Cedar Falls were, Miss Irma Matthews, C. R. Stone and C. M. Weyland; for Iowa, D. D. Carlton, Thomas nley and M. H. Hoffman. The debaters in Missouri from Iowa were, J. Foy Cross, A. N. Wray and H. C. Snodgrass. In both debates the judges rendered in favor the negative, their standard being, not the merits of the question, but of arguments and logical sequence followed. The eutertaining school in each case took the negative side.
