rebuilding in the downtown section of the city is going on more rapidly.

Business is being rapidly resumed by retail tradesmen of every description throughout the burned sections of the city. George Wittman, chairman of the committee on retail trade, reports that the places of business are open, as follows:

Fourty-four butcher shops, twenty-nine restaurants, twenty-two bakeries, twentytwo fruit and vegetable stands, seventyone dairies, fifteen refreshment parlors, fifty-three groceries and seventy-onemis-cellaneous establishments, including tailors, plumbers, dry goods stores, druggists and

There was no definite news to account for the heavy selling and consequent collapse in prices. Wall strest heard many rumors of bear pools formed to depress prices, of alleged financial difficulties and of alleged impairment of confidence in the values of some of the securities listed on the exchange, but nothing developed to give substance to any of these reports.

CLUB WOMEN TAKE UP WORK Eighteen Become Sponsor for that Many Delinquent Children in Juvenile Court. Eighteen members of the Omaha Women's club have agreed to become sponsors for as many delinquent juveniles who find themselves in the hands of the juvenile court. Judge Sutton has already entered on the policy of paroling out the ain's action will be in the nature of a boys and girls who are in the custody of the court and who have no proper homes of their own. He has done this in several cases and it has worked well. As consequence Mrs. Towle, assistant probation officer, presented the matter at a meeting of the Women's club and eighteen of those present gave their enthugiastic Frank H. Dashner, one of the oldest and endorsement to the plan and agreed to Those who assume the care of a child this morning. Mr. Dashner settled in Milis will be asked to devote a certain amount of time to its welfare and must see that farming and stock raising. Through an it is provided with a home with suitable surroundings and influences. Judge Sutton will probably call the eighteen women together soon and have a talk with them about their duties. He is thinking of appointing each one of them a special probation officer in charge of the child. The plan is said to work well in other cities.
