LINCOLN, May 1 -- (Special Telegram.) Base ball was given a most auspicious opening today at the old ball park, which bad been entirely rejuvenated for the oc-casion, when the Lincoln team won from the Rourkes by the score of 4 to 0. The outpouring of the people demonstrated that they were again more than anxious for professional base ball, after a rest of eleven years, during which time the fans had to be content with games between the amateur teams and the games of the University of Nebraska.

More than 4,000 people filled the park to everflowing, lined the fences, spread all over the grass and crowded clear to the foul lines on both sides. The grandstand and bleachers are built to accommodate 2,000 people, this being considered sufficient for ordinary occasions, as Sunday base ball is prohibited. These were jammed to overflowing and the other half of the crowd had to find the softest spot possible on the sod and fences.

A fine parade of the players in automobiles was made, starting at 2:30. All the principal streets were traversed, the players being cheered all along the route When the grounds were reached the large band amused the crowd until Umpire Keefe introduced Mayor Brown. At the call of time the mayor tried to pitch the first ball, and it surely was a ball, for Carter could not have reached it with a ten-foot pole. The mayor is too portly for a first-class pitcher. Mayor Zimmar will probably do better Friday.

After the game was on in earnest the when he was the hoodoo of the Omaha team for two years. He had ins, and outs and drops, and spit balls, and he surely mixed them up. Pop forgot he was a hoodoo to Omaha while he was with the St. Joseph team, but with a better team back of him he is trying to recall the past, when the name of Pop Eyler brought shivers to the Omaha fan.

Your old friend Jack Thomas played first and took everything in sight. Collins, the old Sloux City player, and Shugart, the Omaha-Chicago-Des Moines player, is also in good shape to start the season.

Both teams played snappy ball. Lincoln bunched hits on McNeeley in the second innings and together with his wildness won the game right there. After Omaha had been blanked in the first half of the first stole second, went to third on Holmes sacrifice and scored on the throw-in of Quillan's long fly to left. Lincoln clinched the game in the second inning. After Thomas had been forced at second by Collins' grounder Shugart and Zinran in turn were given bases on balls. Eyler singled and Collins and Shugart scored Zinran was caught at the plate on Fillman infield hit, but Holmes' single brought i Eyler. Omaha played almost a perfec fielding game, but could not hit Eyler McNeeley was wild in the first three in nings, but steadled down later. Bender was along the side lines durin the game and is scheduled to catch tomor row for the Rourkes. He was given a warreception by his many friends. All Lincoln is talking of the immen-ing, McNeeley. Time: 1:25. Umpire: Keefe. DENVER, May 2.—A close decision at the plate which gave Denver two runs in the fourth enabled the Grisziles to defeat Sioux City in the opening game today.

Tip O'Neil's umpire failed to show up and Burt Davis of Denver officiated at Carney's request. With the exception of this decision no fault was found with his work. The score at the time was 2 to 1 in the visitor's favor. There was one out with resh on second and third when Zalusky rapped a fly to Nobili. Belden tried to score from third and Hess put the ball on his hips as he was sliding. The umpire called him safe, saying that he had touched the plate before the ball was put on him. In the excitement Reddick slid across the plate with the second run of the inning. Good hitting scored Denver's other two runs. Close Decision Decides Came.

off by the Omaha players. Carter started the fast work by stealing a base hit from the but of Holmes. He made a hard run, clear into Howard's territory. Welch also made a corker, which made the crowd stand enmasse and lift their hats to him. The real star play of the day was made by Perring, when he sent his left hand into the air about twelve feet and stopped a hot one from Duckey's bat. "He could have gone through the San Francisco disaster without having felt a quake" said one enthusiastic fan.

Pop Eyler was the real difficulty. He dealt out such puzzlers that the Colts could in no wise connect successfully. He had benders of every description, just as he did when he was the hoodoo of the Omaha

It was an auspicious opening of the league season. In response to the proclamation of Mayor West many of the business houses closed during the hours of the game, permitting their clerks to attend, and but for the threatening clouds of the carly afternoon there would have been a larger crowd in attendance. Before the game the two teams in carriages, headed by a band and followed by a delegation of city officials, marched through the business center. Gund's Peerless Beer

Acts as a tonic and aids digestion, enriches the blood wonderfully and promotes the health and longevity of men and women. Peerless is really a temperance drink, because it never contains more than 31/2 % of alcohol-not enough to hurt anyone.

Dr. I. M. P. Southwick, La Grange, N. C., says: "I do not think the moderate use of good beer injurious to the health of adults. I believe it to be a great benefit to some people both as a beverage and by aiding digestion and assimilation. I think beer is of food value to the human organism."

Peerless is brewed from choicest barley malt and the very finest hops, by the celebrated Gund Natural Process. This process retains and develops the strength of the grain and the fragrance of the aromatic hops in a most wonderful way.

Peerless is bottled at the brewery only. Delivered anywhere in cases. Sold at all high-grade bars, restaurants and dining cars. A splendid home beer. Telephone a trial order. You never tasted a more delicious brew. Sparkling, wholesome, pleasant and pure.

ELEVEN FIRSTS FOR AMERICANS Uncle Sam's Athletes Win First Honors in Olympic Games.

Honors in Olympic Games.

ATHENS, May 2.—The Olympic games committee published today, prior to the presentation of the prizes, a full list of the winners. The Americans took eleven firsts, six seconds and five thirds out of twenty-nine events, in many of which, however, the Americans did not compete. Amid the strains of the national anthem and cheering and landelapping, and in the presence of an immense gathering, the Olympic games came to an end this evening. All the afternoon King George, Queen Olga, Crown Prince Constantine and other members of the royal family stood in the heat of the sun distributing the prizes to the successful competitors, Sherring, the Canadian, who won the Marathon road race on Tuesday, receiving a beautiful statue of Minerva. There was an exhibition of gymnastics by 6,000 Greek school children, who were well drilled and who marched in fours in front of the royal seats.

An interesting erremony was the presen-

Remus.

The presentations having been concluded, King George arose to go, when Mr. Halpin, manager of the American team, who had gathered his team together, led three cheers in honor of the king, who, with the other royal personages, then left the Stadium cheered to the echo by his subjects.

The foreign athletes taking part in the games today discussed a scheme for the erection of a colossal marble statue of "Victory" on the hill of Ardettos, overlooking the Stadium.

King George tonight gave a gala dinner of 40% covers in honor of the foreign delegates, the athletes' committee, the judges, the winners, etc. The tables were magnificently decorated. King George expressed the pleasure he felt to see around him rep-

the winners, etc. The fables were mass inficently decorated. King George expressed the pleasure he felt to see around him representatives of nearly every nation cultivating gymnastics and athletics. He felt it a great honor, he said, that they had hastened to Athens to strive for the palm of victory, and he wished them to declare in his name to all the governments, districts and associations they represented how happy the whole royal family and the Greek people were at having had them among them in these never-to-be-forgotten days. Hophing for a renewal of the pleasure four years hence, he drank the health of all brave athletes.

The 3,000-meter walk of the Olympic games was decided today. Stantics, Hungary, won. Time, 16 minutes 18% seconds; Muller, Germany, was second and Saridakis, Greece, third. Wilkinson, England, was disqualified for running.
