

CURRENT LITERATURE.

A new and "popular" edition of Sir Horace Plunkett's important work, "Ireland in the New Century," has been put on the market...

Representative of the "Indiana group" of writers at its best is the Reader for May, this being an "Indiana number" of the magazine...

Reviewing "American Politics," in the April-June Forum, Henry Litchfield West shows how it is practically impossible for any member of congress to organize a force...

The May World's Work publishes under the general title of "Selling Diseased Meat," a symposium of articles that reveal startling and present conditions in the Chicago packing industry...

Tom Watson in an editorial in his magazine, reviews Upton Sinclair's book, "The Jungle," and incidentally gives socialism some hard rap...

Something new in the line of books has just come to our table. It is a little volume entitled "Over One Hundred Ways to Work One's Way Through College..."

We have heard a good deal about the work of Governor Folk of Missouri in the various magazines recently, but until the current number of Smith's appeared we have not heard a single word from Folk himself...

"Will the Coming Man Marry?" is a question which gives opportunity to Dr. Madison C. Peters, popular lecturer and pastor of the Baptist church of the Epiphany, Madison avenue, New York...

"Waste Not, Want Not Stories," retold by Clifton Johnson, is intended for the third reader grade. This latest addition to the Eclectic School Reading Series contains nine stories from Maria Edgeworth's "Parents' Assistant..."

The above books at lowest retail prices. Matthews, 121 South Fifteenth street.

We'll Show You

The best 5 cent cigar you ever smoked. Just the proper blend of filler, binder and Sumatra wrapper. Looks and smokes like a tea center.
