EMIGRATION FROM ISLAND DECREASING

Statistics Show that Fewer People Left Ireland Last Year Than in Any Year Since 1881.

DUBLIN, May 6.—(Special Cablegram to The Bee.)—Ireland is certainly as rich in artistic relics of ancient days as almost any other part of western Europe.

But these works of primeval scribes are surpassed by the Book of Kells, which, though probably written 1,300 years ago, is still exquisitely ornamented that it has been described as "the most beautiful book in the world."

The exhibition was for some years held in an out-of-the-way place, but the attention it attracts is such that the Royal Dublin Society has decided to hold an exhibition of Irish art industries, at which liberal money prizes are offered.

Dillon Opposes Canadian Cattle. The Swinford Rural District Council have received the following letter from Mr. John Dillon, M. P., in order to a resolution recently adopted by them in reference to the restrictions on the importation of Canadian cattle into the United Kingdom.

I think I can safely assure the members of the Swinford Rural District Council that the Irish party will do all in their power to resist the importation of Canadian cattle. But at the same time I think it is only fair that I should let you know that the party will ultimately be thrown open to Canadian cattle, and that as long as the importation of dead meat and fat cattle is prohibited, the effect on the price of stores will be to allow the farmer to sell his stock at a higher price than he would otherwise get.

Some remarkable facts have just come to light in the emigration returns from Ireland, just published. Chief among these is the extraordinary reduction in emigration from this country. The number of persons who left Ireland in 1905 was the smallest since 1881, when official returns were first obtained.

Emigration is Decreasing. Some remarkable facts have just come to light in the emigration returns from Ireland, just published. Chief among these is the extraordinary reduction in emigration from this country.

WILL NOT STRIKE

Anthracite Miners Agree to Resume Work Under Former Conditions.

ALL MEN MUST BE RESTORED TO PLACES. Award of Commission to Captains Until Otherwise Determined.

COMMITTEE MEETS OPERATORS MONDAY. Convention Takes a Recess Until Tuesday to Act on the Report.

STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT MITCHELL. Miners' Leader Reviews History of Controversy and Gives Reasons for Apparent Backdown of the Union.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 5.—On the advice of President Mitchell, representing the subcommittee, the miners' convention today unanimously voted to adopt the first proposition of the operators, a continuation of the award of the anthracite coal commission, with the modification that the term for which it is to continue shall be mutually agreed upon.

The action of the convention, together with a request for a conference on Monday, was telegraphed to the anthracite coal commission, with the suggestion that the provision that there shall be no discrimination against the men who obeyed the miners' suspension order. It is practically certain that the operators will not accede to any suggestion for a two-year agreement, as that would throw the next conference into a presidential year, and as the miners will not want a long term agreement, the chances are that a three-year agreement will be eventually entered upon.

Address by Mr. Mitchell. In his address to the convention in presenting the report of the scale committee, Mr. Mitchell said: "I am in favor of raising the low paid men to the standard of the high paid men. During the six or seven years that I have been in the anthracite region I have learned to know much about conditions here. I want to assure you that I am not at all prejudiced with the wages of conditions. I believe they should be improved."

At the close of the convention President Mitchell made the following statement: "For several months we have been endeavoring to negotiate a wage scale and adjustment of conditions with the operators. The representatives of the coal mining companies, during these negotiations, have made many suggestions, but none of them materially modified our original demands. It is our belief that the operators' proposals were unfair or wrong, but purely for the purpose of finding a compromise which would reach an agreement that would secure and maintain peace in the anthracite coal region. We have made every effort to reach a proposition which was reasonable and fair, notwithstanding the modifications we have since made. We believe that our proposals now we are face to face with the alternative of continuing at work under the former conditions or declaring a strike. In this crisis your committee recommends the following policy: "First: That we agree to work on the basis of the award of the Anthracite Coal Commission, with the modification that our wages may be agreed upon mutually between the representatives of the coal mining companies and the operators. This modification shall report to the convention at that time. "Second: That the suspension of work shall continue until an agreement has been reached and its terms approved by the operators. "This recommendation was signed by the full scale committee, adopted unanimously by the convention and a telegram was sent to Mr. Baer proposing a conference on Monday. The convention adjourned until Tuesday, when it will meet to hear the report of the committee."

Joy in Anthracite Region. The news that the convention had decided against a strike was received throughout the anthracite region. Since the delegates began to arrive in Scranton on Wednesday it was felt that the result of the convention would be the transforming of the suspension into a strike and that the strike, when it did come, would be a long one, and that the prospect of a good summer was bright. In his opinion there might be a slack time for a couple of weeks about June 1, but after the middle of June there would be good and prosperous times in the coal regions, with the mines working nearly full time.
