CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Features of the Trading and Closing on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, May 7.—The wheat market was strong today because of predictions of cold weather, the July delivery closing with a net gain of 1/2c. Provisions were unchanged to the lower.

Wheat market was strong from the opening until the close. There was an excellent demand for shorts during the greater part of the day, but offerings were scarce. Soon after the opening, a stiffened on reports of killing frosts in the Canadian northwest and later these reports were reinforced by reports of a forecast of light frosts over the winter wheat section of this country.

Outside of weather conditions there was little news to influence traders other than to buy or sell. The market closed firm with prices near the highest point of the day. July opened at 79 1/2c, advanced to 79 3/4c and closed at 79 1/2c. Primary receipts, 10,000 bu., against 10,000 bu. last week and 10,000 bu. one year ago.

The corn market was firm because of some local receipts and the strength of wheat. Cash houses and shorts were the principal holders. The market closed at 42 1/2c.
