PUBLIC FUNDS DISAPPEAR

Falls City Finds Its Treasurer Short Nearly Twelve Thousand Dollars.

EXPERT ACCOUNTANTS MAKE REPORT

City and School Funds Affected and Bondsmen of Treasurer Will Be Called Upon to Replace Shortage.

FALLS CITY, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—The accountants who have been examining the treasurer's books of the city of Falls City and the Falls City school board finished their work Wednesday of this week and reported that they found Treasurer Irving Bode short in the city fund $6,000 and in the school fund $5,700. The matter has not been acted upon by either the city council or the school board and what steps will be taken are unknown.

Mr. Bode has been treasurer since 1902 and there was nothing during his term of office to indicate anything of the real conditions. His time has been devoted to his business and he has never been accused of any of the misconduct which usually accompanied a shortage of this magnitude. It is a mystery where the money has gone. It seems to have disappeared, leaving nothing to show for it and no trace of it. In all probability the bondsmen will make good the shortage.

Manacled for Short.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., May 11.—James R. Felker, treasurer of this city, who was arrested last night, charged with embezzlement from the city treasury, admitted today that his accounts are short not less than $68,000. The greater portion of the money, he said, was invested in mining stocks.

New Court House for Burt.

TEKAMAH, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—The meeting at the court house last night was one of the most enthusiastic meetings that has been held here for some time, the object of which was to get the sentiment of the people regarding the voting of bonds for a new court house, which seemed to meet with the approval of all present, and as a great many of the heaviest taxpayers, as well as a number of prominent citizens from different parts of the county.

were present, it looks very favorable for a new court house for Burt county in place of the "old shack" that is almost ready to tumble down. Committees were appointed to visit the different towns of the county and find out the sentiment that existed and report at a meeting to be held later.

HIGH SCHOOL ORATORICAL CONTEST

Seward, Madison and Sidney Get First Prizes.

LEXINGTON, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—The annual contest of the Nebraska High School Declamatory union came off tonight at Smith's opera house. There were three departments and four contestants in each department. The following were the winners: Oratorical department, first prize, August Brokaw, Seward; second prize, Martha Giltner, Madison. In the dramatic department, first prize, Arthur Oberfelder, Sidney; second prize, Marie Winkler, Columbus. Humorous department, first prize, Miss Keeler, Hastings; second prize, Florence Farmer, Rushville.

Festivities at Broken Bow.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—The most successful ball of the year, known as the annual May party, was given in this city last night at the opera house under the auspices and personal direction of the Masquima club, an organization composed of young society women. Many representative people from the surrounding towns were present and the floor was filled with one of the largest and most refined crowds that ever assembled within the walls of the opera house. The stage was beautifully decorated with flowers, plants and the club's colors of gold and blue, embellished and set off by Welch burners. This place was reserved for cards and commanded an uninterrupted view of the dancers.

The Sunbeam club, composed of a number of church workers, also entertained in a very pleasant manner, at Caldwell hall, on the same evening. An interesting program was given, after which refreshments were served.

Relief Corps Orders.

SUPERIOR, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—Late general orders from national headquarters of the Women's Relief Corps here, by the president, Mrs. Abbie Adams, announced that the twenty-fourth national convention of the organization is to be held in Minneapolis, Minn., August 16 and 17. Announcement is made of the unveiling at Galesburg, Ill., by the Department of Illinois of a bronze group memorial of Mother Bickersdyke and the private soldiers. Attention is called to the proper celebration of Flag day, June 14.

Boy Injured by Powder.

KEARNEY, Neb., May 11.—(Special Telegram.)—While playing with a small quantity of gunpowder this morning, Reginald, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Salsbery, was badly burned about the neck, face and arms. The boy had set it in a tin of powder and was trying to get it on fire with some paper, bending over the explosive in doing so. The boy is resting easily and the question whether his eyes have been injured will be known tomorrow.

Crushed to Death in Machinery.

TABLE ROCK, Neb., May 11.—(Special.)—An accident at the yards of the Table Rock Clay company resulted in the instantaneous death of Frank W. Baitley, an employee of the company, who had the supervision of the machinery department. It is supposed that the stone on his left arm caught in the cog wheel of the crusher and Perry of the Pickering Farmers' Elevator company was present at the meeting as organizer.

HUMBOLDT—New interest in the recent disappearance from St. Joseph, of Mrs. Mary Scott and J. V. Crannel was awakened by the announcement that a chum of the latter in South St. Joseph had received a letter from Crannel dated at San Francisco a few days before the great earthquake in which the missing man apologized for leaving so abruptly, but gave no information as to his destination or whether the woman was in his company. This chum, whose name is withheld, announced the belief that the couple resided in the city and were probably lost when the shock came, but the story is not credited at all by the friends of the missing pair.

FALLS CITY—The last remonstrance case before the city council was finished today at noon and at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the city council met to decide the case. There were six applications for saloon licenses. Peter Frederick, Jr., Orylle Reichenberg, William Harnack, J. J. Lollman, Ezra Erbeiter and Frank Nuffer, all of whom were in the business last year. In each case the proof was directed showing that minors had purchased liquor during the past year. All technicalities were waived. The council granted all licenses except to J. Lollman. His was refused. The remonstrators immediately gave notice of an appeal in each case and filed bonds to take the cases to the district court. It will be well toward the first of June before there will be any saloons doing business in Falls City.
