

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Office, 10 Pearl St. Tel. 43.

MINOR MENTION.

Clark's soda... Stocked with... Plumbing and heating... Diamonds as an investment...

Wanted—All K. O. T. M's to bring their... The John Beno company...

Velvet ice cream made at Purdy Candy... We have the finest line of sample...

Dr. Luella Dean, who has been absent... The regular meeting of the Associated...

Tom O'Brien, charged with obtaining two... The woman's Christian Temperance union...

These transfers were reported to the... Louis R. Lock et al. to C. L. Moorehouse...

You can rub shoulders with all magnates... Get Your Dinner Here Today.

With the coming of the ice man... Licenses to wed were issued yesterday...

SCAVENGER WORK... I haul dead animals, $1.00 per head...

OBJECTS TO PAYING TAXES

Portland Gold Mining Company Says It Has No Property in Iowa.

INCORPORATED UNDER WYOMING LAWS Answer to Suit Filed by County Otherwise Similar to Those Made to Cases Previously on the Docket.

The Portland Gold Mining company filed with County Auditor Cheyne yesterday a protest against the assessment of its stockholders for the 1906 tax.

The statement that the company has not had any property in Iowa during 1906 is based on the fact that on December 3, 1905, the company was incorporated in the state of Wyoming...

Matters in District Court. The district court, jury in the suit of D. J. Ford against W. B. Porter...

Wedge. May 11—William Loringer against Thomas H. Wright against Droge Bros. et al.

Monday, May 12—Joseph Styles against Holmes, both of Omaha, were named in this city yesterday noon by Rev. W. B. Clemmer...

Monday, May 11—Henry Eitman against Albert Baumann; Henry Wallace against Albert Baumann...

Another big car of the latest eastern fads in the "driving wagon" line just received the latest designs in seats, seat and nobby. Place your order now before they are all spoken for.

Superintendent H. W. Rothert of the Iowa Board for the Deaf regarding the erection of a new boiler house at the institution...

CONVENTION OF TELEPHONE MEN

Independent Association Elects Officers for Year. At a called meeting of the Southwestern Independent Telephone company, held yesterday in the exchange building of the local independent telephone company...

Schools Close in Council Bluffs

In a few weeks, giving your children an opportunity during vacation to study music and accomplish perhaps more in a few months than any other time in the year.

Parish Having Houses for Rent or Sale

Parish having houses for rent or sale. Recent sales have greatly reduced our list and we have customers waiting for investments.

Sunday Services

St. Paul's Episcopal church, Rev. R. W. Starr, rector; fourth Sunday after Easter; 8 a. m., holy communion; 10:30 a. m., holy communion and sermon; 12 m., Sunday school and Bible class; 8 p. m., evening prayer and sermon.

Sparring Goods

Base balls from $5 to $15; catcher's mitts, from $10 to $25; tennis rackets, from $2.50 to $12; tennis shoes and tennis balls at lowest prices; fishing poles, 50c and 10c; fishing rods, 75c and $1.00.

Housekeepers are Always on the Lookout for Some Good to Buy

Why bother with shampooing your own hair when you can have it washed in soft water and dried with compressed air at Graves', 105 Pearl street?

Ice is Scarce

Prices going up on ice; the prospects are that they are liable to double this summer, but if you get an Ice Berg refrigerator at Keller-Farnsworth Fur. Co. you will never feel the heat of summer.

Here is Something Good

Mexican red-hot chicken tamales, 15 to 25 cents a can; Mexican red-hot chile con carne, 15 to 25 cents a can; chile powder, 15 to 25 cents a can.

PAST WEEK IN BLUFFS SOCIETY

Warm Weather Appears to Have Had Stimulating Effect. Mrs. Ernest E. Hart is visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. J. W. F. Foley of South Sixth street is spending the week-end at French Lake Springs, Ind.

Mr. William Bullock, formerly Miss Ladd's teacher of this city, left Friday for his home over this week's visit with friends.

Mr. Walter G. Avery and son, Robert, of St. Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams, 111 S. Main street, Mrs. Avery's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Williams' son, Mr. W. G. Graham, 335 Avenue B, has as her guests Mrs. R. E. Graham of Virginia, Minn., and Mrs. Carroll of Cloquet, Minn.

Mr. J. W. Collins, 720 South Seventh street, is spending the week-end at Burlington, Mo., where he will visit for a month with his parents.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

built, it being understood that Mr. Haight is prepared to stand half of the expense.

It is estimated that the expense of the repairs will amount to about $4,000, but this is to be determined before the deal is finally closed.

Mr. Haight is solely interested in harness horses and his proposition has nothing to do with that of holding a running race meet this season at the park.

N. Y. Plumbing Co. Tel. 526 Night, 1488

Three complete catalogues of sheet music at each at Bourgeois Piano house, 333 Broadway, where the organ stands upon the building.

Mr. Ernest E. Hart is visiting friends in Chicago. Mr. J. W. F. Foley of South Sixth street is spending the week-end at French Lake Springs, Ind.

Mr. William Bullock, formerly Miss Ladd's teacher of this city, left Friday for his home over this week's visit with friends.

Mr. Walter G. Avery and son, Robert, of St. Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams, 111 S. Main street, Mrs. Avery's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Williams' son, Mr. W. G. Graham, 335 Avenue B, has as her guests Mrs. R. E. Graham of Virginia, Minn., and Mrs. Carroll of Cloquet, Minn.

Mr. J. W. Collins, 720 South Seventh street, is spending the week-end at Burlington, Mo., where he will visit for a month with his parents.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Alvin Fox, John Chausstrain and Warren Andrews, Refractories were served.

Mrs. H. A. Quinn, 220 Oakland avenue, is the widow of a well-known citizen of honor of her sister, Mrs. Packard, of Ottumwa, who passed away.

Three complete catalogues of sheet music at each at Bourgeois Piano house, 333 Broadway, where the organ stands upon the building.

Mr. Ernest E. Hart is visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. J. W. F. Foley of South Sixth street is spending the week-end at French Lake Springs, Ind.

Mr. William Bullock, formerly Miss Ladd's teacher of this city, left Friday for his home over this week's visit with friends.

Mr. Walter G. Avery and son, Robert, of St. Paul, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Williams, 111 S. Main street, Mrs. Avery's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Williams' son, Mr. W. G. Graham, 335 Avenue B, has as her guests Mrs. R. E. Graham of Virginia, Minn., and Mrs. Carroll of Cloquet, Minn.

Mr. J. W. Collins, 720 South Seventh street, is spending the week-end at Burlington, Mo., where he will visit for a month with his parents.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. R. Reed entertained a number of her former neighbors at an informal breakfast at her home, 2217 Broadway, Friday afternoon.

PERKINS' DAY IN PRIMARIES

Delegations from Five Counties Instructed for Sioux City Man.

NITROGLYCERINE RULED OUT OF COURT Judge McPherson Refused to Take Any Chances with Explosive Which Was Wanted as Exhibit in Criminal Case.

From a Staff Correspondent. DES MOINES, May 12.—(Special Telegram)—Republican county conventions today instructed for George D. Perkins as follows: Appanoose, 13 delegates; Washington, 15; Madison, 10; Davis, 10; Benton, 10, making the number of Perkins delegates to date 189 and Cummins delegates 192.

Alleged Forger Arrested. J. R. Hainer, alias J. H. Barrett, was arrested in Davenport and brought to Des Moines. He is accused of swindling the Agor Packing company out of $1,000 and the Louis & Thomas railway out of $1,500. Other smaller amounts were secured from business men in this city. He was arrested in Davenport by Detective McKittrick of this city, who was one of those on whom he passed a forged check.

Marshalltown Girl Killed Here. Miss Sadie Hayes Russell, formerly of Marshalltown, who deserted stage life for life in the red light district of Chicago, committed suicide by taking 74-cent capsules of mercury. She died at Mercy hospital last night. She had made three attempts at suicide. Her relatives in Marshalltown have frequently endeavored to persuade her to leave the life she was living, but without success. After her attempt at suicide, the police were asked to keep the closest watch. A week ago at a resort on Thibault street she took a lot of antiseptic tablets because of despondency over her wasted life. She died last night.

College Soldiers Detail. The State Agricultural college cadets from Ames and the Simpson college cadets from Indianola met today on the parade grounds at Fort Des Moines for a combined drill. Both companies drilled in khaki service uniform. They returned to their homes this evening after spending some time together socially.

New Candidate for Governor. A new candidate for governor is announced, W. J. Heiser of Tama county. He has secured the signatures of 1,100 registered voters of Tama county to a petition asking him to become a candidate and he and his friends say he will get the Tama county support. The Tama county convention will be held May 19.

Rules Out Nitroglycerine. Judge Smith McPherson in the United States federal court here today refused to permit nitro glycerine to be brought into the court room in the case of the United States against Andrew Scorsone, charged with robbing the Van Meter postoffice. "I will not jeopardize the lives of these jurors and attorneys and their friends," declared Judge McPherson. Scorsone and his alleged partner in the robbery are charged with using nitro glycerine to blow open the safe. The jury in the case was secured today and the first evidence taken.

Fair to Have Reserved Seats. Directors of the Iowa State fair decided today to provide for reserved seats in the amphitheater in order to make the best of the old structure, the legislature having refused to appropriate $6,000 for the new steel amphitheater. Heretofore it has been first come first served. The directors have voted to erect two new brick buildings on the grounds in preparation of the state fair. One will be a large cattle barn of brick and the other a brick dining hall. Last year fire caught in the ramshackle building which served as the dining hall, and the dining tables will be torn out and a large brick building erected large enough to accommodate all the restaurants and feeding places. The International Harvester company and the Pittsburg Steel company, which have never heretofore made exhibits at state fairs, will exhibit at the Iowa State fair this year.

WOMAN'S CLUB ON STAGE. GLENWOOD, Ia., May 12.—(Special Telegram)—The Glenwood Woman's club gave "Penelope's Affinity" and "The Piper's Play" unassisted at the opera house Thursday evening to a large audience. The plays were surprisingly well rendered. Some of our citizens attending through loyalty to the club were greatly disappointed in the entertainment, which will compare favorably with the "all professional" productions seen here this season.

Hamburg Teacher Comes to Omaha. HAMBURG, Ia., May 12.—(Special Telegram)—Miss Emily Redford, who has been the teacher in the primary department of the public school for the last two years, and who was elected for the next year, has resigned her place to accept one in the city schools of Omaha.

INSTRUCTORS CHOSEN. WOODBINE, Ia., May 12.—(Special Telegram)—The instructors of the Harrison county Normal school, which opened here on June 18, will be as follows: D. E. Brunsard of Logan, M. A. Reed, G. B. Rigg and E. J. Howe of Woodbine, Bertha Caldwell of Fort Dodge and L. B. Pruitt of Minden.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS INSTALL. WOODBINE, Ia., May 12.—(Special Telegram)—Holy Camp No. 235, Royal Neighbors of America, have recently installed the following officers: Chancellor, Mrs. Halbard; manager, Mrs. Cherry; recorder, Mrs. Johnson; and W. G. Rogers.

DELEGATION OUT FOR GOVERNOR. CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., May 12.—(Special Telegram)—John D. Dennison of Dubuque, it is announced here today, will be an active candidate for the democratic nomination for governor.

ORIGIN OF "TWENTY-THREE." Dickens lovers have no trouble these days in proving that all our supposed up-to-date Americans get merely stolen notions from the numerous and interesting tales which Dickens used to write. They have indicated that Dickens used many phrases and expressions that have been taken up today as universal by words and the latest acquisition of the enthusiasts of this sort is told in the statement that Dickens originated the expression, "Twenty-three is the number of the present is used to express 'all in chase yourself,' 'skiddoo,' 'the end' and many other things."

IT WILL BE REMARKED BY ANYBODY THAT IN the last chapter of "The Tale of Two Cities" Dickens describes the procession of humanity towards the guillotine. For the first time in Sidney Carton's hero, in a garden overlooking the hideous machine is a group of old women knitting. As the heads fall in the basket one after another the women knit steadily and quietly, not even looking up at the guillotine as the last moments of Sidney Carton recede thus:

"The murmuring of many voices, the upturning of many faces, the pressing on of many footsteps in the outskirts of the crowd, so that it swells forward in a mass, like one great heave of water, all flashes away twenty-three."

There you have it. You can take it for what it is worth.—Kansas City Star.

THE STRANGEST THING THAT could happen would be a case of constipation that Dr. King's New Life Pills foundered. Guaranteed to cure. For sale by Sherman & McCollin Drug Co.

ALCOHOL HEARING TO CLOSE. WASHINGTON, May 12.—Hearings on the 46-nation alcohol bill closed today by the senate committee of finance.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THOROUGHLY TESTED. No better test can be given a medicine than that of time. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been recommended by dealers who handle it. It has received thousands of testimonials from grateful people who have used it. It has been prescribed by physicians with satisfactory results. It has been analyzed by prominent chemists and found to be harmless. But the fact that it has been used under guarantee to give satisfaction for almost a third of a century is the best test of all. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Try it when you have a cough of cold.