BRITT-NELSON FIGHT PICTURES

Exhibition at Auditorium Wonderfally Clear and Bealistic.

The Britt-Nelson fight was fought over again at the Auditorium Monday night before about 1,500 followers of the sport in Omaha augmented by a large number of women who had come out to see what a real prize fight was like. The pictures which reproduce this fight on the screen are the most realistic and clearest fight pictures ever shown in these parts. Fight pictures have been put on before, but they were simply blurs commared with those which are sent to Omaha under the management of James W. Coffroth, the fight promoter of the Pacific coast, who will be here in person Friday.

The Britt-Nelson fight was fought last September at Colma, Cal., a suburb of San Eventice and the promoter of the sent to the sent was fought last. fully Clear and Bealistic.

The Britt-Nelson fight was fought last September at Colma, Cal., a suburb of San Francisco, and although twelve miles from the city over 15,000 people were in attendance and the gate receipts were over $83,000. In this fight Nelson won by a complete knockout blow on the Jaw in the eighteenth round after eighteen as fast rounds of fighting as it was ever the privilege of the followers of the sport to watch. One cannot imagine a fight in which Nelson is one of the contestants which would not be fast, with fighting all the time. The Dane is never idle and never stops his aggressive movements. He is right at Britt all the time, seeming to delight in the punishment he continually restups his aggressive movements. He is right at Britt all the time, seeming to delight in the punishment he continually receives. He constantly walks right into Britt's blows, following him up at all stages and never once taking a backward step. He took enough punishment in that fight to put out several ordinary men.

Britt had won in their former encounter in December of the previous year. He beat the Dane by using his head and standing off and outsparring him until he wore him out. In this fight, as is mostly plainly seen, by the pictures, he is on a defferent tack and forces the fighting all the time, ever ready to fair, it with the Dane as he walks into him. Although they weighed in at the same weight Nelson looks larger and stronger. Britt is agile as a cat and Nelson is of buildog build, heavy shoulders and looks the part of a fighter.

At several stages during the fight it looks as though Britt had the better of the argument and the crowd stands up and yells for Britt, but Nelson's recuperative powers are tremendous and he comes right back to the scratch as strong as ever. The management of the exhibition was gratified at the presence of so many women last night and the announcer gave notice that besides the regular exhibitions every night this week special matinees will be given Wednesiay. Runkle celebrated his return to the game by making two hits in three times up off Engle, the great spit ball man of the West-

Pueblo has secured a good man in Mc-Gilvray. He is the player who worked under the name of Hayes two years ago for Denver. The hitting of the Creighton team Saturday was marvelous. With both Morse and Dort pitching good ball, the youngsters hit for twelve safe ones.

Omahn fans have sympathizers at Chicago, for the Cubs were also routed out of first place by losing to Brooklyn and having the Giants win on the same day. The Diamonds defeated the Orioles in a seven-inning context, 7 to 4. The batting of Peasinger and the fielding of the Dia-monds were the features. The Diamonds are open for Sunday games.

Creighton's base ball team is dealing out some surprises this spring. By the defeat of the State university team Saturday Creighton is entitled to top honors for the season among the colleges of the state. Pa and his Colts are scheduled to arrive in Omaha Tuesday night for the opennig with Sloux City here Wednesday. All the teams, except Lincoln, will play in Omaha on this trip-Sloux City first, then Denver, Des Molnes and Pueblo.

Crappies were caught Sunday in Seymour lake that assonished the oldest inhabitant. Small boys had strings as long as they were, and hundreds stood around the banks and pulled out the beauties as fast as the ould throw in their lines.

The Lee-Glass-Andreesen team went right into the enemy's territory Sunday when the Nonparells were played at Vinton street park. The southsiders were out in force and rooted hard enough for any team to win, but the had first inning netted enough runs to win the game.

Rich Grotte, deputy building inspector, who accompanied the team on its western trip, writes the sporting editor of The Ree that Carter sprained his ankle and would be out of the game for some time. His appearance Sunday was necessitated by the fact that Bender does not play Sunday ball. Quick has not struck his gait at Fremont, as he was wild. The lack of scores on the part of Fremont, however, cannot be charged to the former social favorite of Onaha. He will be missed here on Mondays and Fridays, when the women will be invited to see Pa's Champs cavort.

Jay Gould, the 17-year-old son of George Gould, made a most remarkable record in England in the championship matches. Although losing in the finals by a close margin, he did not lose a set in the preliminaties, and the east with which he put out some of the veterans filled the Englishmen with astonishment.

with astonishment.
Our old friend, Skipper Schipke, the renowned hunter and rapper, appeared with the Des Moines team against Sloux City Sunday. While Cleveland thought Schipke was the goods, all the players are back in the game, Bradley baving recovered, and Lajole having discarded his boils, so the management evidently thought it better to put him out in the game until next season.
Rossman is working regularity at first,
which gives Stovall as utility man, and Cleveland had no immediate use for Schipke Omaha fans would much sooner Schipke had been given to Pueblo or some leam which needed a strong man.

SLATE NAMED FOR DAHLMAN

Wise Ones Pick the List of His Official Cabinet.

FIVE REPUBLICANS TO HOLD OVER

Rosewater, Michaelsen, Malone, Lynch and Hartley Said to Be Chosen to Retain Their Position.

Sources glose to the throne found it proper Monday to announce semi-officially that Mayor-elect Dahlman had decided on a number of appointments. They said the following slate was a sure thing, so far as it went:

City Engineer—Andrew Rosewater. City Electrician—Waidemar Michaelsen. Bireet Commissioner—Tom Flynn, Söperintendent City Hall—Dave Rowden. Health Commissioner—Dr. B. A. McDer-Health Commissioner-Dr. E. A. McDer-nott or Dr. Dan Lee. Secretary to the Mayor-Miss Nellie Ma-

Gas Inspector-John C. Lynch, City Abstracter-Wood Hartley.

Of this list Andrew Rosewater, Michaelsen, Miss Malone, Lynch and Hartley would be hold-overs and would represent the republican share of the appointments promised, as all have been subscribed to that faith. No strong opposition has developed to Rosewater or Michaelsen. Lynch and Hartley were enthusiastic Dahlman men. Miss Nellie Malone succeeded her sister as secretary when the latter was married to Mayor Moores.

McDermott Anginst Lee.

For the office of health commissioner the chances have narrowed down to Dr. Lee and Dr. McDermott and a very pretty contest is now in progress. The loser will be offered the assistancy in all probability. Dr. Lee was formerly county physician and has the backing of such heavyweight democrats as W. A. Paxton. On the other hand, Dr. McDermott, a comparatively new resident, is a nephew of Mrs. P. C. Heaffey, Dr. Lee's long residence in Omaha may cut considerable ice in turning the balarces.

If he lands the city hall superintendency, Dave Rowden, who was once custodian of the state house, will beat out that valiant fighting game, after which the eighteen rounds are projected on the screen so clearly that all can plainly be seen, even from the most remote corner of the building. The fight took place at noonday in the open air, which accounts for the splendid pictures. The enclosure was not covered and the immense crowd which watched the fight can plainly be seen even to the Salvation Army girl who circulated through the crowd. understudy of Andrew Jackson, Brigadier the seat of a chair at a pleasant tempera-
