TOOTH TALK, No 25

The question is often askedwhy do teeth hurt so terribly while they are being filled or crowned? Because there is little or nothing done to obtund the natural sensitiveness of the teeth. My method for the painless filling and crowning of teeth is successful in 95 cases out of 100. In the other five cases the pain is greatly lessened. Of course some people do not mind being hurt in the dental chair and, very naturally, a truly painless method of filling and crowning teeth is of no interest to them. one Douglas DR. FICKES, DENTIST,

CROW SAID TO BE INDICTED

Former Postmaster of Omaha Reported Under Charge by Federal Grand Jury.

VERDICT BY AN UNANIMOUS VOTE

Charge is that as Fereman of Grand Jury that Indicted Ware Crow Tried to Influence his Colleagues.

"Joseph Crow is indicted," is the burden of a persistent report wafted on the waves of gossip at the federal building yesterday. None seems willing to bear responsibility for making the unqualified assertion that the former postmaster of Omaha actually has been indicted by the federal grand jury now in session, yet the report is generally

The rumor says the jury unanimously voted the true bill against Crow. The report la not made public as yet.

Crow was foreman of the federal grand jury the latter part of 1905, which indicted Rev. George G. Ware, and the charge against him is that he had used his official position as a member of that grand jury to influence the action of other members of the jury against bringing in an indictment against Rev. Mr. Ware, who is president of the U. B. I. Land and Cattle company of Hooker county, and was charged with conspiring with Frank Lambert and Harry Welsh in procuring fraudulent homestead filings within the U. B. I. land en-

While this case was under investigation by the grand jury several ugly rumors were affout that efforts were being made to influence the grand jury against indicting Ware. These rumors got out into the state and the charge was made by several papers that certain jurors were traveling home rather often on free transportation, furnished presumably by some one about the federal building who was probably in close collusion with leading cattlemen who had a pull with the ruilroads.

Effort Was Systematic.

There was no secret in the fact that parties known to be friendly to the cattlemen were hanging around the corridors of the federal building with the hope of persuading some of the grand jurors of the November, 1905, term to be lenient with Mr. Ware, and that one of them at least was approached by an attorney from Mullen, Neb., the county seat of Hooker county, with the inquiry as to how he stood on the Ware case. This same attorney was summoned as a government put on the stand for the government be-However, he afterwards was called to the witness stand in Ware's defense.

The fact that Ware's indictment was returned on a very narrow margin gave some credence to the report that influences might be at work inside the grand jury room in his favor, and it was upon this hypothesis that the present grand jury was called upon to investigate the matter.

Following the adjournment of the grand jury of November, 1906, which jointly indicted Frank Lambert, Harry Welsh and George G. Ware as co-conspirators in the fraudulent land filing matters, both Lambert and Welsh pleaded guilty to the indictment. Welsh was sentenced to six months in the Douglas county jail, with a nominal fine. Lambert was not sentenced, but was placed under $5,000 bonds. This bond he gave and was for a time at liberty. Ware entered a plea of not guilty and the case went to trial, resulting in his conviction, with a sentence of one year in the Douglas county jall and a fine of $1,000. This case is now pending on appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals, a new trial having been denied Ware by Judge Munger.

The principal witness for the government in this trial was Frank Lambert, but a Lambert asked permission to go to Dead-This was denied him by the federal officials, and his bond was increased an additional $5,000, which he was unable to give and he was remanded to jail. It is further alleged that Lambert, having no attorney at this time, sent for Mr. Crow to ask his edvice as to what he had best do. It is wated that Crow visited Lambert in the ounty jail, accepted a retaining fee, but the nature of the legal advice he gave

I unibert is known only to the parties at Lambert Principal Witness.

Lambert during his examination on the witness stand in the Ware trial, and he It's Hard To Be further said that at the same time the principal reason that he had turned on Ware was in effect that Mr. Ware and his attorney, Mr. Frawley, had gone back on Perfect Whole-Wheat Food It the Key him and that then Lambert determined to make a clean breast of all his transactions with Ware. However, it should be stated any other food, and these are of importin justice to Mr. Crow that the fact of his acting as an advisory attorney for Lambert at the beginning of the Ware trial was not taken into consideration in the investigation before the present grand jury.

N Hill, vice president of the Great Northern son of James J. Hill, and interested in many other roads. From Billings the party will make a trip of the Burlington lines west to the river. It is thought perhaps this trip may have some connection with the new line which is being built be tween Billings and Great Falls, which will connect the Burlington with the Great Northern. The Wyoming division of the Burlington has all the business it can handle at present and with this connection something will have to be done to care for the traffic. The party probably will be out about two weeks.

"Pay in advance" is the demand made now on attorneys who file papers in the district clerk's and the county judge's office, as a result of the demand of the county commissioners for an accounting of uncollected costs. District Clerk Broadwell and County Judge Leslie have both issued orders to their clerks not to accept filings unless the filing fee is paid in ad-

Judge Leslie also has expressed to County Attorney Slabaugh his willingess to co-operate in securing a decision of the supreme court on the question whether or not the county judge is entitled to retain fees collected for perform ing marriage ceremonies. The judge has been in the habit of keeping these fees and not reporting them to the county. Judge Leslie offered to submit to a mandamus proceeding, but the county attorney has decided he cannot be held accountable in Lancaster county," said Judge Leslie, "and decided in favor of the county judge in the district court and never taken to the supreme court. I would like to have a decision and will co-operate with the emmissioners to secure one. In case an action is pending at the close of my term, my present impression is that I would pay the marriage fees I have collected into the county treasury under protest so that I might preserve my rights in case it was decided I was entitled to them."

Union Pacific and Burlington Present Their Men Who Are on

To begin with, Malta-Vita is made from the very best white wheat. After this From official reports of the Burlington wheat is cleaned and scoured, cooked and Union Pacific the crop outlook in Nebrasks this year is flattering. The passenger department of the Union Pacific has compiled a crop report for the month of May. This report is comeral hundred correspondents over the state. The weather conditions are not quite so favorable. The low temperature of the last ten days has interfered somewhat with planting and kept the farmers from rushing the seed into the soil.

Winter wheat is everywhere reported to be in much better condition than it was at this time last year. The acreage has probably increased. It would not be surprising to find that 2000.00 acres of winter wheat will be harvested this summer. An increased acreage may be looked for wheat production of the state will not be far from 45,000,000 bushels.

The acreage of rye may also show an increase. Last year 140,149 acres of rye were harvested. Our correspondents think that the acreage this year will be in excess of the figures, just mentioned. The yield will certainly be equal to that of last year and, if no untold thing happens, may reach 3,000,000 bushels.

The acreage of oats will probably be to per cent greater than that of last year. As the acreage of last year was 2,430,824, it would seem that that of this year will be in the neighborhood of 2,700,000. Nothing can yet be said as to the prospects of the oat crop which has been sown.

The acreage of alfalfa has undoubtedly increased. Some counties report an increase of 25 to 50 per cent; 315,714 acres were in alfalfa last year. It is believed that the acreage this year will not fail below $50,000. The alfalfa plant is everywhere in good condition and growing rapidly. Hence, the average yield per acre of last year, about three and a half tons, will unquestionably be increased the coming year.

Altogether it may be said that with the

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczemas: "My little boy had eczeras. His head was one solid sore, all over his scalp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since. As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says:

"I suffered with eczema, a burning, itching, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all eruptions had left me.
