

HOODLUMS STEAL THE GAME

Foul-Mouthed Manager and Craven Umpire Run Things at Vinton Park.

WOMEN DRIVEN FROM SEATS BY PROFANITY

Manager Rourke, Who Under the Rules Was Powerless, Has Plan for Execution This Afternoon.

Six hundred respectable people paid their good money yesterday to see a meek and servile umpire, at the command of a foul-mouthed hoodlum, steal a game of base ball from Omaha and hand it over to Des Moines. Six hundred people saw this disgraceful scene...

Fans of the Western league circuit have long wondered when patience and decency would cease to be the rule of the manager of the grounds and game after play is called. Mr. Rourke wanted to stop the disturbance, but couldn't, and the umpire wanted to hold his job and wouldn't.

For the sake of those who might have wondered why Manager Rourke of Omaha did not suppress the riot it may be stated that under the rules the umpire and not the manager of either team is in absolute control of the grounds and game after play is called.

When the police officers under Sergeant Hayes went to quiet Cantillon, his man Doyle, who is carried along as hanger and because he is so loud-mouthed, tried to demand from the umpire that the game be forfeited to Des Moines unless the police officers removed from the grounds...

Maxson, outside of Cantillon, was the mouthiest in the bunch, but he had good backing and any decision that was made would bring Dexter, the man who stabbed Bateman last fall, Andrews, Weidys, Hoggie, Doyle, and Big Towne, until the umpire was really convinced that he was to be killed unless he gave decisions just to suit the Cantillon-Doyle combination.

Wendy was expressed on all sides that there was a spot of ground in Omaha where the police officers could not go and that Cantillon, especially when he was using the language he did in the presence of women, if a man deliberately set out to see what he could do most to injure the game of base ball in any way he could do no worse than Cantillon and his bunch did yesterday.

Omaha outplayed Des Moines and was entitled to the game. Even Des Moines managers who had bet their money on the game refused to take the money, saying it was too much like stealing. Des Moines was blanked in the first and Omaha made two on a base on balls to Bender and doubles by Hassey and Dolan. Des Moines made two in the second inning on three singles and errors by Welch and Goding.

Des Moines, scented defeat, then started its rowdiness in the fourth and by the aid of the umpire, a hit, an error and a base on balls, scored two more.

Omaha made one in the fourth on two hits and in the fifth put Mr. Brinker out of business. Two hits were made off him and Schipke had made an error when Brinker called home. McKay took his place and passed two, forcing one run, making a total of three on the inning, which put Omaha two to the good.

Dodge pitched splendid ball until the ninth, when the pandemonium reached its climax, and he was so rattled he passed McKay the first man up. Cafry followed with a hit and Schipke caught them both on a notch. Weidys's single scored two and tied the score. Nothing was doing until the eleventh, when Schipke's base on balls and steal and Weidys's hit scored the old hunter and trapper and won the game.

Schipke made quite a record with two hits, one run, a sacrifice, one put out and two assists, an error, a stolen base and a on a double. The run he made won the game from his old playmates.

CRISIS IN WESTERN LEAGUE

Affairs of the Organization Come to a Sudden Head.

ROWDYISM OF DES MOINES TEAM CAUSE

Rourke Says a Change Must Take Place at Once or Omaha Will Drop Out of the Circuit.

W. A. Rourke, owner of the Omaha team of the Western league, has taken the first step in a movement to withdraw his team from the Western league, or will end the league. After the disgraceful exhibition on the Omaha grounds yesterday afternoon, for which Mike Cantillon, owner of the Des Moines team, is solely responsible, Mr. Rourke determined that the time for action had come.

"I have never so humiliated in all my life," he said last night. "For the first time in all my base ball career I wished I was out of the game. I do not mind the loss of the game, but to have my friends and patrons so insulted as they were yesterday is more than I can stand. In my future I will have decent ball in my grounds or I will have none. I would rather lock my gates and disband my team than to go through another such exhibition. I have laid my case before the other team owners in the Western league, and expect a reply in answer of some kind. Cantillon and his team must be restrained, and the affairs of the league must be placed on a business basis, or it will end right here."

"I have tried to give Omaha good ball and have been rewarded by most strange and ever since I came into control of the team here. This I appreciate, and in return I propose to protect my patrons if possible. The Omaha players invariably behave themselves, at home or abroad, and visiting players must behave themselves on Omaha grounds, or I am fully determined to take any action necessary to protect patrons and players from such indecent assaults as were made yesterday."

Following is a copy of the letter sent last night by Mr. Rourke to managers of Western league clubs, asking for a meeting of the league to take action to discuss straightening out the affairs of the league:

OMAHA, Neb., May 22.—Mr. R. R. Burke, Denver, Colo.: Dear Sir—I want to call your attention to the disgraceful action of the Des Moines club on the field, led on by Cantillon, the manager. Their conduct has simply become a nuisance to the public and myself, and something must be done, and done quickly, or the league will be broken up. I am sure that you here in intense and they will not attend the games if this rowdy conduct of the Des Moines club continues. The same conditions exist in other cities. The president is responsible to a great extent for the public run reached third base. Stimmler, for the visitors, was both angry and ineffective, and his support was ragged. Hitters, errors and base on balls came in a heap in the eighth, when the locals made six.

LINCOLN. May 22.—Pitcher Harmon, who was given his release two weeks ago, but asked for and was granted another trial, pitched a remarkable game against Pueblo today, winning for Lincoln by a score of 12 to 0. Only two hits were made off him and he pitched a superb game.
